APPEAL AND MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF COUNSEL

There appears a pattern of discrimination in the South Carolina court system that limits the participation of the appellant Mamie Jackson based on the refusal of judges, and court personnel to treat me with equal access to the court system and to be treated equally as all other members of the bar: I believe that is because of my race and that I am pro se. The basic standards of law are ignored, for instance the original order has not been signed, only initialed, and never been clocked in. Circuit Court judges have refused to recognize that I have a right to a clocked in order for it to be legal.

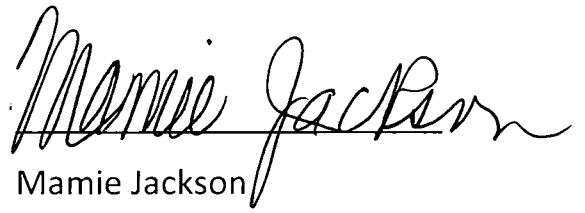

The Magistrate Court, the Richland County Circuit Court judges refuse to rule in my favor based on the court system's biasness against me even thou I have the rule of law on my side.

The Appellant meets all the standards of law for appellate indigence defense to represent me but they and S.C. Court of Appeals have denied me my rights under the law.

Would ask the court to order all parties to cease and desist this discrimination treatment and to order all court personnel to comply with state law and court procedures.

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion requesting that this court review Chief Judge Lockemy's order of November 22, 2016, which denied Appellant's request for appointed counsel and required Appellant to serve and file her initial brief and designation of matter within ten days. We construe Appellant's motion as a petition for rehearing. Because the November 22, 2016 order did not have the effect of dismissing or finally deciding this appeal, we decline to entertain Appellant's petition. See Rule 240(i), SCACR ("This court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or a petition unless the action of the court on a motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal.").

Appellant has not served or filed her initial brief or designation of matter as required by the November 22, 2016 order. Appellant shall serve and file her initial brief and designation of matter within ten days of this order or this appeal may be dismissed.
