Re: Lucille Tate v. Capsugel Holdings
Appellate Case No. 2016-002397

Dear Ms. Tate:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or the appeal will be dismissed:

- The notice of appeal fails to include a statement of when you received written notice of entry of the order or judgment from which this appeal is taken.
- The required filing fee has not been submitted. The correct filing fee is $100.00.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. Specifically, you must provide the names of the parties that have been served, as well as an address for each party.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR. Specifically, you must provide the names of the parties that have been served, as well as an address for each party.

- A proof of service showing that a copy has been served on the Workers' Compensation Commission has not been provided as required by Rule 203(b)(6), SCACR.
- The document has not been signed as required by Rule 267(b), SCACR.
- The order submitted with your documents indicate WCC File No. 1416152 and 1422948. You have indicated you are appealing WCC File No. 119362, 1416152, and 142298. No order was submitted for WCC File No. 119362.
- The notice of appeal is deficient. You must serve and file an amended notice of appeal substantially in the format shown by Form 1 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

Very truly yours,
