Sworn Affidavit

Dear, Jenny A. Kitchings

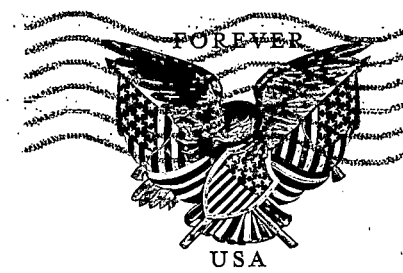

On the date of January 24, 2017 I receive a letter from the S.C. Court OF Appeals, stating that Appellant has failed to timely provide a proof of service that demonstrates timely service of the Notice of Appeal upon the Respondent, which is a false accusation on behalf of S.C. Court of Appeals. On the date of 10-21-16 the Appellant was found guilty by the jury in this matter, and immediately sent to Kirkland R&F Center on the exact same day, which was on a Friday. The first thing monday morning the Appellant on the date of 10-24-16 sent his Notice of Appeals to the S.C. Supreme Court with a Proof of Service that the opposing counsel, Ernest A. Finney III was also being served. Review: Court Records. This false accusation, or mistake by the S.C. Supreme Court is denying the Appellant his right to Appeal, and violates his 14th amendment of due process to address his issues.

I declare under penalty of perjury that on the date of October 24, 2016 the Appellant sent the S.C. Supreme Court his Notice OF Appeal in a timely manner with a Proof of Service on the opposing counsel, Ernest A. Finney III, and that the foregoing is true and correct, executed on the date of: 1/24/17
