Re: Kershaw County v. James Teal
Appellate Case No. 2016-002179

Dear Mr. Teal:

Upon reviewing your document dated January 26, 2017 which is being construed as your initial brief, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this appeal will be dismissed:

- The caption/title does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, the front page of your initial brief should include the full title of the appeal, the county, lower court judge, and correct title of the document. Please see Form 13 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- The initial brief is not accompanied by a designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. See Rule 209, SCACR, and Form 14 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- A proof of service has not been provided showing service upon opposing counsel. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

- The content initial brief of appellant should include a table of contents, statement of issues on appeal, statement of case, argument and conclusion. See Rule 208, SCACR.

Very truly yours,
