CP-23-8727

DEar Ms. Kitchings;

This requests ansn extension of thirty days from the current January 20, 2017 date to complete the Designated Matter task required by th Court of Appeals process.

My grounds for the requist are due tothe Unexpected complication with the retrieval, packaging and delivery of the initial, the timely request forthe Record on Appeal documents for our appeal.
Upon receipt of the materials, The package was fully in tact,

The document stacked inside consisted of almost three hundred unstapled page , some of the had no. signature and were not dated. This stack was eight inches wide by ten inches long and two inches deep. There was evidently only one regular rubber band securing the horizontal length and only one securing the wth.. A weighty, formidable block was formed and placed in a ceextra llarge and oversized manilla envelope.

The clasped end was tripled wraped with extra wide packaging scoth tape. the bottom en was not. So upon recieving the bundle bundle, I t was necessary to open it from the bottom end. Upon doing so while standing on hardwood flooring, Unfortuately the document sliout in a snake like form tering the envelope widely. into a mass of sheets folloed by a broken rubber band. the other was around the papers.

I believe in transit there was movement within the extralarge paper container.

I contacted the Cler that helps me, and was asked if I could restack the pile properly, but I could not do it in a conseccuative order..

There fore They said to make another request. and I did.

However, the court was evidently busiy so the refill tok round four months to complete evidently and arrived on Jaunary 2, 2017.

psge. 3.

Ms. Monica cassidy used metal clips and remailed the documents in a fourteen inch by twelve in envelope, so there was much less movemnt within the envelope.

Evrything was fine .

Let me Submittal and
