SC Court of Appeals

I Sasha Deyford Thomas feel that a Conflict of Interest is an Arguable ground for appeal on my case, # 2016-002571. It was brought to my attention that Judge Cole daughter was hit by some years ago by a drunk driver. And I feel that he treats all cases in the category as if it was his daughter all ~~ate~~ ^{again} I'm not saying that I am not guilty as charged because I am but I do feel like the sentence I was giving was stiff. I have not been in any trouble in the State of South Carolina since the Probation violation in 2008 which I served my time for and have been doing better for myself and my daughter whom is 9. I have held a job since being released from prison in 2010. I did the Scram bracelet for almost a year ^{with no} problems which should let the court know I don't have a drinking problem. I was going thru a ~~str~~ tough time in my life at the time of the wreck in 2015. I lost my 1st daughter Nov 13th 2001 and around the end of the year I do get a little depressed. ~~I just lost my job a Lear Corporation due to baby sitting issues and I had just found out the man I had been with almost 15 yrs had been cheating with a church member. I'm not trying to make excuses for my mistakes in life. I'm just trying to get a 2nd chance to raise my daughter whom needs me and she the best child of God I can be despite my circumstances.~~

Thanks My Girl Bless You!
