Appeal # 2016-000-961 S.C. SUPREME COURT

Dear Mr. Hamilton,

Well, I hope this finds you well. I write today for one reason and it is to confirm our conversations some years back when I confided in you regarding Staff at the Solicitors office offering derogatory information to people about my past criminal history that was at the time recently available on-line in York County made public after Charleston County.

I showed up for Jury selection and I told you I had a felony arrest as a teenager and thought that excused me from that duty and your reply was for me to have that record expunged. Soon after, I paid cash to have a number of minor offenses removed from the County Web-site.

At any rate, in short I am in the process of filing a brief to the SC Supreme Court to bring to light some issues one of which includes a personal conflict between myself and Solicitors office Staff which I declare you witnessed in its primacy; a germ that manifest into the contamination of my Jury and witnesses involved with my murder trial, to the Courts attention.

I will appreciate your acknowledgment of the above incident as I have requested this at least once already through your office.

Please feel free to contact me at Lieber C.I. by mail or phone

Cordially,

Steven Spagnoli
