S.C. SUPREME COURT

RE: Harleysville Group Insurance, a Pennsylvania Corporation v. Heritage
Communities, Inc., et al.
Appellate Case No.: 2013-001281
and Harleysville Group Insurance, a Pennsylvania Corporation v. Heritage
Communities, Inc., et al.

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

The purpose of this letter is to advise the Court that the Respondents/Appellants will not file a return to Appellant/Respondent's Petition for Rehearing unless requested by the Court as provided by Rule 240(e) SCACR. The Court has consistently emphasized that a Petition for Rehearing is not to present points which lawyers for the losing parties have overlooked or misapprehended, nor is it the purpose to have the case tried in the Appellate Court a second time.

I have thoroughly reviewed each of the points set forth in the 72 page Petition for Rehearing filed by Harleysville. I believe that each of the issues raised are points overlooked or misapprehended by Harleysville and is an attempt to have the Court retry the case a second time.

Again, I will be more than happy to file a return if so requested by the Court.

Respectfully,

John P. Henry
