COME NOW Appellants William McFarland and Jennifer McFarland (collectively “Appellants”), by and through their undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, and, on the grounds set forth below, hereby move this Honorable Court for a second extension of fifteen (15) days’ time to petition for rehearing of this matter, which the Court decided via Unpublished Opinion No. 2017-UP-067 filed February 1, 2017.

1. Rule 221(a), SCACR, provides, “Petitions for rehearing must be actually received by the appellate court no later than fifteen (15) days after the filing of the opinion, order, judgment, or decree of the court.” Based on the February 1, 2017 filing of the Court’s opinion in this case, the Appellants previously made a request for a 15-day extension of time, requesting extension of the deadline through March 3, 2017. This motion has not yet been acted upon by the Court.

2. On account of other time commitments, both work- and non-work-related, the undersigned requests an additional extension of fifteen (15) days’ time for Appellants to petition for rehearing.

3. The undersigned submits that, under the circumstances, there exists good cause for the Court to grant the relief requested herein, such relief constituting a reasonable dispensation, timely sought and consistent with the interests of justice, posing no threat of undue prejudice to any other party.

WHEREFORE, Appellants request that the Court grant them an extension of 15 days' time (from Friday, March 3, 2017) to petition for rehearing; by the undersigned's calculations, if this request is granted, the new deadline for the Court's actual receipt of Appellants' petition for rehearing would be Monday, March 20, 2017. Additionally, Appellants request that the Court hold this matter in abeyance (and not send down the remittitur) while the present motion is pending.

Respectfully submitted,
YOUNG CLEMENT RIVERS, LLP
