Dear Counsel:

Enclosed is a letter from Mr. Williams dated February 23, 2017. In this letter, he assert that the appendix is missing a document. If it is appropriate to file a supplemental appendix containing this document, that relief will have to be requested by you as his counsel.

Very truly yours,

Enclosure

cc: Justin James Hunter, Esquire
Mr. Trey Williams, 341036

Dear Daniel E. Shearouse:

2-23-17

Dear South Carolina Supreme Court: Clerk, Shearouse.

This is Trey Alexander Williams, SCDC# 341036, I have an Appellate case # with the Supreme Court from 2016 upon me being granted my PCR. Nathan Sheldon is my attorney of record and Justin Hunter is the attorney general handling the case. An Petition and Appendix from the state has been filed and I received it on 2-22-17 and the Appendix is incomplete. The Appendix does not have my Amended PCR Application in it titled "Judicial notice of Adjudicated facts," this document was filed with the York County Clerk of Court before my PCR hearing, it was also submitted to the PCR Judge Allison Renee Lee on 11-18-2014 and it was addressed several times in her PCR order. This document must be put in the Appendix for safe guarding my issues, claims, arguments and S.C. U.S.A.C. Rights, I left voice mails, emails, letters to my Attorney of record and the same at the Attorney General's office, as well as a message to Ashley who handles my case at the Supreme Court, my Amended PCR Application must be included in the Appendix, it addresses constitutional violations, it safe guards the fact that I did not have a fair bite at the apple etc and it was mentioned, received, considered in the order of the PCR Judge!!!
