BRICE DI'VON COLEY,

PETITIONER,

V.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

RESPONDENT

APPELLATE CASE NO. 2016-0001759

MOTION TO ENLARGE TIME

Brice D. Coley
Appellate Defender

Comes now the Petitioner, Brice Di'von Coley, respectfully requesting this honorable court to grant an enlargement of time to file the pro-se Johnson brief in the appellate case # 2016-0001759. The present deadline is March 30, 2017.

The Petitioner requests an extension of thirty-one (31) days for a new deadline date of April 30, 2017. The request is necessary for the following good cause:

1) I am an inmate incarcerated at the Broad River Prison, I am specifically housed in the Marion Dorm.

2) There was an incident that occurred in the Marion Dorm where two (2) correctional officers were stabbed and severely wounded on February 17, 2017.

3) The Marion Dorm is on a security lockdown; movement was stopped for all prison functions, including the law library. I've been trying to get to the law library or to use law material, but I have been continually denied.

4) I was allowed a brief use of the law library on February 28, 2017 and I got assistance to write this motion to you. I truly need the extra time

the Marion Dorm will be on security lock down from 3-6 months, and will be restricted severely in any movement.

5) This motion is made in good faith and to encourage judicial economy, not to delay the courts.

I ask that you grant this Motion.
Thank you.
