RE: Curtis vs. South Carolina Department of Public Safety, et al
Appellate Case No. 2016-001239

Greetings,

Please take NOTICE: Appellant will respond to the March 2, 2017 MOTIONS, filed by the Respondents and submit responses and objections to the MOTION TO REFORM THE RECORD ON APPEAL AND FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE FINAL BRIEFS UNTIL THE RECORD ON APPEAL CAN BE REFORMED within the required deadline of March 13, 2017. Also, Appellant will respond to the March 2, 2017 Order within the required deadline of March 13, 2017 and submit responses and objections to the Respondents MOTION TO DISMISS THE APPEAL, BASED ON APPELLANTS FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE JANUARY 26, 2017 ORDER OF THIS COURT.

PLEASE NOTE: THIS PRO SE LITIGANT did FILE documents according to the January 26, 2017 deadline which contained exhibits because it was not specified by the court in the order that the "Exhibits to Support Final Brief", specifically, the exhibits, postmarked January 4, 2017, and filed in The Court Index on January 6, 2017, were stricken. Simply put, I adhered to the courts ORDER regarding the time frame and in the effort to TRULY comply with the courts order, I downloaded the forms to use directly from the courts website.

Unfortunately, I mailed these documents on February 27, 2017 (See Proof of service filed in the index) and they were clocked March 1, 2017, so, in the interim, the ORDER, dated March 2, 2017, clarifying the fact that because Appellant's final brief was stricken, the "Exhibits to Support Final Brief" were also stricken, the Appellant had already mailed the documents including exhibits. Simply put, I had already mailed my documents before I received the order that was issued.

At this point, all I can do is AGREE with the Respondent's MOTION TO REFORM THE RECORD ON APPEAL AND FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE FINAL BRIEFS UNTIL THE RECORD ON APPEAL CAN BE REFORMED, dated March 2, 2017 and inserted into the court index on March 6, 2017.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.
