RE: Henton T. Clemmons, Jr. v. Lowe's Home Centers, Inc.-Harbison and Sedgwick Claims Management
Services, Inc.
SC Court of Appeals Case No. 2015-001350

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

Please find attached the original and six (6) copies of a Reply to Motion for Extension. While the Motion for an Extension of Time was filed with the Court via hand delivery, it was forwarded to me by regular mail and I just received it on March 15th. On that same date, I received a copy of the Court's Order granting the Motion but I am submitting the attached Reply to the Motion if for no other reason, for posterity's sake. Since the Motion has already been granted and because more importantly I would not have opposed the request anyway since as a sole practitioner I have to make those regularly and I never want to be couched in the light of being someone that opposes anybody's request for an extension; even from a very large defense firm with a dedicated appellate division.

By copy of this letter, I am notifying and serving defense counsel via email, fax and regular mail of the submission of this Reply.

As always, I appreciate all the courtesies and kindnesses shown to me by the Court and again

Sincerely yours,

Preston F. McDaniel
