Re: State v. Jomar Antavis Robinson
Appellate Case No. 2012-213013

Dear Counsel:

This office is in receipt of your letter dated October 12, 2012. Since this is an appeal from a guilty plea, nolo contendere plea, or plea pursuant to Alford, Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires you to provide "a written explanation showing that there is an issue which can be reviewed on appeal. This explanation should identify the issue(s) to be raised on appeal and the factual basis for the issue(s) including how the issue(s) was raised below and the ruling of the lower court on that issue(s). If an issue was not raised to and ruled on by the lower court, the explanation shall include argument and citation to legal authority showing how this issue can be reviewed on appeal."

Compliance with Rule 203 is an obligation of trial counsel. You need to set forth any issues that can be reviewed on appeal. If no issues were raised during the guilty plea, you must state this fact. Failure to make a sufficient showing may result in the dismissal of the appeal.

The explanation should be served and filed within ten (10) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
