Dear Supreme Court,

I'm writing in request for at least a sixty day extension to submit a pro se arguement raising issues the court should consider in my appeal. I need the extension because the attachment included in this request is a phone call I conducted with my attorney (John Clark) that supports my claims in my appeal. I'm currently in the process of trying to obtain the recording of that call. The FBOP has let me know it have to be subpoena by a judge or lawyer, which brings me to a standstill. Because I'm pro se I can't subpoena it myself. I've written to my indigent attorney (Taylor Gilliam) about this issue with no response. This phone call is VERY important to my appeal. So I'm asking for a extension to possibly obtain it. Also if its possible that the courts could assist me with getting this call subpoena or obtain in some way I ask that it do so. The attachment included is all the info the courts/attorney would need to ~~get~~ get the recording from the FBOP. Again John Clark clearly proves his ineffectiveness in the recording of this phone call. Its very important evidence to my claims in my appeal. I ask that the courts assist me with retrieving this evidence and give me a extension while doing so. Thanks!

Yours Truly

Quentin Patrick
