Dear Mr. Lyon

I hereby consent to your adding any admitted exhibits that you may wish to add to the Supplement on Appeal

I thought that my letter clearly gave consent to your request. I sincerely apologize that it was not clear to you. Apparently the explanations of my thoughts made my consent obtuse.

May I have an answer to the mystery of my missing 17 exhibits that were admitted, shredded, and the listings removed from the Index?

Very truly yours,

John Alden Bauer, III

Mr. Bauer,

I have again attached the supplemental file which I will file, on your behalf, with your consent. I am doing this in the interest of getting on with this appeal. I feel sure you must be anxious to do that as well. If you cannot give me a plain answer ("I consent/I do not consent") by 4:00 PM today, I will have no choice but to file my motion

David
