RE: Dr. Rogers C. Reeves, Individually and as Trustee of the Reeves Family Trust, Respondent Case No 2009-CP-23-8727

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

As the Appellant in this case I have tried to research the various methods of fraud the defendant has employed. In order to accomplish this task, I went to the closest library branch to look through Black's Law Dictionary. I sat at a table near a young teacher and she used her laptop computer to look up and print out first "Extrinsic Fraud" and then she printed everything that was listed in the Black's Law list of fraud. Roger has perpetrated fraud on the court; In a judicial proceeding, a lawyer's or party's misconduct is so serious that it undermines or is intended to undermine the integrity of the proceedings. During the case, he lied to the police, he lied to DSS, he lied to the doctors, he lied to the arbitrator, he lied to Judge Verdin and he lied to the State of South Carolina. He committed fraud in the inducement, by telling Scot and Kelly, our children, that I wanted them to sign a consent form, which I did not. In every opportunity to make any statement, he has not told the truth.

He has in fact been more Machiavellian than Machiavelli himself. He will do whatever it takes to get what he wants, including lying. And what he wants is to blame me for everything that has happened, when his position is indefensible. Rogers Reeves is in breach of contract, by hiring a contractor against the rules of our agreement and not obtaining replacement insurance on my home. Our contract states that I, alone, hire the person to do the work, as I am an architectural designer and have been for forty years and know the rules. Mr. Chasteen and Mr. Daniels have both promoted Roger in these fraudulent activities. Mr. Daniels was fired on October 8, 2012, but he continued to submit information to the court as a shadow pro se appellant. My desire is for the court to allow me to have a fair hearing, a hearing without prejudice, where the truth can be expressed. I beg the court to allow me to express the truth.

Enclosed is the $25.00 money order to file the motion.

Yours truly,

Goldie Grier Reeves
