Dear Megan Harrigan Jameson Assistant Atty. General

on 3/27/2017 I placed in the P.C.I. mail room, the 147 pages appeal of judgment you received on September 14, 2016, entitled Case 2016-05237463 Motion for a New trial pursuant to 37-23710, Brady v Maryland 373 US 83 (1963) and S.C. Rule 29(b) offer of newly discovered evidence, page lot 1, and Sworn Supporting Affidavit page 1-147. I attached a cover sheet to those documents entitled Record on Appeal for appellate case 2016-000966 and mailed it off to the office of S.C. Court of Appeals to be filed.
I am unable to have a copy of those 147 pages plus page lot 1 Motion for a New trial Because S.C. does not make copies of inmate generated hand written legal material. I have made the S.C. Court of appeal Clerk Jenny Abbott Kitching that you have been made aware of the filing of the Record on Appeal, and already have in your possession all the documents that are included in the Record on Appeal all you lack is the cover sheet, entitling those documents as the Record on Appeal.

Dear Jenny Abbott Kitchings: Esq. Clerk of Court,

Enclosed you will find my Record on Appeal. I am indigent, and SCCL doesn't make copies for inmate hand written legal material. So I am unable to provide the state a copy, or you proof of service that I have provided the state a copy of this enclosed Record on appeal. So if you could please provide the state with a copy or send me a copy back to me, I will send a that copy to the state with a proof of service. I do want to bring to your attention that the state, Megan Harrington Jameson do have a copy of the documents included in the Record on Appeal page lot 1 and Sworn Affidavit pages 1-147. proof of this is Ad on page lot 1 of the enclosed Record on Appeal where the state, S.C. Attorney General's office has received a copy on September 14 2016. also see enclosed letter dated _____ from Assistant Atty General Megan Harrington Jameson, stating she received the document of 147 pages.

Rec'd

Art I did was add a cover sheet entitled Record on Appeal to the 147 page document she received and filed it with you as the Record on Appeal. So the state does have the document of the Record on Appeal. I am also sending a letter to Megan Harrington James on, that I have filed those 147 pages with cover sheet as the Record on Appeal with the SC Court of Appeals, as my proof of Service, putting the state on Notice.

Thank you
