SC Court of Appeals

Madam Clerk And Your Honor,

I am filing an Notice of Appeal past the (10) day guide-lines of Your Honorable Court, due to the facts, that my Attorney did not express thoughts of Appeal and/or explain the Appeal process and I do not and did not have legal knowledge of the Appeal Processes.

Further, I am incarcerated at Kirkland Reception and Evaluation Center, who currently is not providing access to the institution's Law-Library. So I did not or could not acknowledge(d) or learn the Rule(s) of Appellate Procedure.

So I ask the Court of Appeals to acknowledge my Appeal and accept its lateness due to the sole facts above. I will provide a Notice of Appeal to the Solicitor's Office and an Notice of Appeal and proof of Service. Further, I was not provided with my Sentencing-Sheets, and due not currently or did not have my Indictment or Sentencing Information, to properly file or complete my Notice of Appeals but currently are seeking them from SCDC And the Clerk of Court in my County. Sincerely,

Rashad Johnson
