To ~~Mr.~~ Clerk of Court,

It has been 8 months since my petition for a writ was submitted and I have heard nothing yet. This is very unsettling. I've begun to wonder if my case has been overlooked because it seems the wheels of justice have simply stop turning. My attorney Mrs. Durant does not respond to my letters. I would like to know how much longer is this waiting process. I mark my calendar every day expecting to here something to be avail. I have a few concerns, hope all this office can answer them for me.

- 1.) Why didn't the state respond to my petition for a writ?
- 2.) What's the maximum amount of time it takes for a writ to be granted or denied?
- 3.) Has my case been skipped?
- 4.) I mistakenly submitted my real brief as my Johnson brief, if a writ is granted can I allow the brief I already submitted to be reviewed to support my complaint. Is that acceptable.

I grow a little impatient, and was compelled to make sure I wasn't overlooked. I'm being wronged by agents of the state and it's getting worse. In conclusion, I will greatly appreciate it if you can assist me with at least some of my concerns. Thank you for your honorable services.

Respectfully
Vin R.
