Re: Benjamin Reyna vs. Town of Hanahan; Case No.: 2016-CP-08-1261
Appellate Case No. 2017-000796

Dear Ms. Smith,

I am writing in response to your letter of April 5, 2017. Regarding the transcript, I ordered it while the case was pending in circuit court. However, I remain confused about the docketing date of this appeal.

I sent the first notice of appeal on March 14, 2017. However, I received no acknowledgement letter from your office. As a result, I called several times, asking for clarification. On two occasions a case manager named Dianne Green went above and beyond the call of duty to make an effort to answer my question about whether your office did or did not receive the March 14th filing. In a follow-up call, Ms. Green informed me that the Court did receive the March 14th filing and also received the second Notice of Appeal. She told me someone would be in touch with me about which Notice of Appeal was to be used to calibrate the briefing schedule. To date, I am in the dark whether my brief is due 30 days after March 14th filing or the March 30th filing.

Could you let me know when the brief is due? Also, please let me know if I must do anything further regarding the transcript since I already have it and do not need to order one. I thank you in advance for your attention to this request. With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,
