Notice of Appeal

Notice is hereby given that I Gregory L. Campbell the plaintiff, Attorney by pro-se in the above-named case, * hereby appeal to the Supreme Court of South Carolina, from the 20th circuit court from the order so submitted on the 16th of December, 2016. By the South Carolina Court of Appeals listed below:

1. The Order of the circuit court that grants the Defendants' motion to set aside entry of default is not immediately appealable. (Noting generally the denial of a motion to dismiss does not established the law of the case and the issue can be raised again at a later stage of the proceedings). Therefore the initial appeal is dismissed. See attached order

Notice of Appeal so submitted this 13th day of April, 2017.

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Gregory L. Campbell (SCDC #363559), Appellant, v.

State of South Carolina and Attorney General Alan McCrorry Wilson, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2016-002320

ORDER

This appeal arises out of two orders of the circuit court. In the first order, the court gave the appellant 30 days to file an amended complaint, after which time the court would consider the respondents' motion to dismiss filed in the circuit court. The second order grants the respondents' motion to set aside entry of default. Neither one of these orders is immediately appealable. See Ateyah v. United of Omaha Life Ins. Co., 293 S.C. 436, 361 S.E.2d 340 (Ct. App. 1987) (dismissing appeal from an order setting aside entry of default as not immediately appealable); McLendon v. S.C. Dep't of Highways & Pub. Transp., 313 S.C. 525, 443 S.E.2d 539 (noting generally the denial of a motion to dismiss does not establish the law of the case and the issue can be raised again at a later stage of the proceedings). Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed. The remittitur will be sent pursuant to Rule 221(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

RE: Gregory L. Campbell Vs. The State of South Carolina; Appellant court case
No. 2016-002320; Circuit Court Case No. 2016-CP-22-00049.

Dear, Clerk of Court

The above styled- case was appealed at the District Court of the United States on the 13th day of February, 2017. On the 27th day of March, 2017, I was sent a letter stating that the case had to first be filed with The Supreme Court of South Carolina. Therefore I'm filing the enclosed Notice of Appeal from the Appellant Court of South Carolina. Please see attached letter from clerk of Superior Court of the United States, and Notice of Appeal with attached Order.

Sincerely,

Campbell, Gregory L.

RE: Campbell v. South Carolina

Dear Mr. Campbell:

The above-entitled petition for a writ of certiorari was originally postmarked March 7, 2017 and received again on March 27, 2017. The papers are returned for the following reason(s):

Your case must first be reviewed by a United States court of appeals or by the highest state court in which a decision could be had. 28 USC 1254 and 1257.

Sincerely,
Scott S. Harris, Clerk
