

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

R. R., by and through his Guardian ad Litem, Roketha Reid, Appellant, v.

Williamsburg County School District, Superintendent Dr. Yvonne Jefferson-Barnes, Assistant Superintendent Dr. Bernice Davis-Cooper, Delaney K. Frierson, Senitta Swinton, Principal Dr. Janice Gamble, Rose Marie Moore, Williamsburg County School District Board of Trustees, Defendants,

Of which Williamsburg County School District is the Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2016-002221

ORDER

Appellant served and filed a notice of appeal from a circuit court order granting Respondent's motion to quash a subpoena duces tecum. This court dismissed the appeal because the underlying order on appeal is not immediately appealable. Appellant has now filed a petition to rehear the dismissal of the appeal. Because an order granting a motion to quash a subpoena duces tecum is not immediately appealable, there is no basis for granting a rehearing.¹ Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.

¹ We note the order of dismissal cited law relating to the appealability of an order refusing to compel the taking of a deposition; however, an order granting a motion to quash a subpoena duces tecum is also not immediately appealable. See ex parte Wilson, 367 S.C. 7, 625 S.E.2d 205 (2005) (stating an order quashing a subpoena duces tecum is not immediately appealable).
