Appellate Case No. 2016-000640

MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME

TO: The S.C. Court Of Appeals,

The appellant in this case was recently granted an extension of time due to death in his immediate family. The appellant thanks the court for granting that previous motion. Circumstances have arose that place the appellant in a position where he is forced to motion for an additional extension of time until May 1, 2017. The court granted the extension until April 19, 2017 to submit the brief. I started preparation of the brief only to find that I have ran out of typewriter ribbon in the first initial pages. I repeatedly made efforts to order more ribbons but was delayed receipt of those ribbons until today, April 11, 2017. Thus, it will take me some additional days to complete preparation of the brief having received those awaited typewriter ribbons today. Therefore, I respectfully motion for an extension of time until May 1, 2017 to complete the Brief and then forward it to the court. The delay was on S.C.D.C. who took significantly over the normal amount of time to send those typewriter ribbons once ordered.

The appellant prays the court would grant this request, to include any other relief the court would deem proper.

Respectfully,

Jason Morris Gourdine
