Dear Jenny Abbott Kitching

I received a copy of Assistant Attorney General Megan Harrigan Jameson Motion ~~comp~~ ~~com~~ to compel filing of the complete Record on Appeal dated April 6th 2017 on April 11, 2017. As well as your letter dated April 07, 2017 informing me of the filing of the State's Motion to compel filing of complete record on Appeal. When I filed the Record on appeal I sent a letter enclosed with that Record on appeal, explaining that, due to my indigency, and that SCDC does not make copies of hand written pro-se legal documents, that I am unable to provide the state's Assistant Atty General Megan Harrigan Jameson with a copy of the Record on appeal and requested that this court provide her with a copy of the Record on Appeal. Apparently Ms. Jameson ~~has~~ doesn't consider the document she already has in her possession as the Record on Appeal, which shows that she has been provided the actual document that are included in the Record on appeal, that I filed with this court, that has marked on the coversheet of the Motion for new trial; reviewed by the Attorney General's Office. I am therefore requesting that this court send me a copy of my Record on appeal. So that I can forward it to PS The Record on appeal that I recently submitted to this court for filing consists of the complete record on appeal. There was not court hearing for a transcript to be transcribed - to the best of my knowledge the record on appeal is complete. Please send a copy of the filed Record on Appeal.
