

⑤

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Mamie Jackson, Petitioner,

v.

South Carolina Court of Appeals, Clerk of Court of the South Carolina Court of Appeals Jenny A. Kitchings,
South Carolina Indigent Defense, Judicial Grievances, and Richland County Magistrate Stroman, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2017-000151

RECEIVED

APR 18 2017

SC Court of Appeals

---

ORDER

---

Petitioner seeks to file a document in this Court bearing the above caption and entitled "Appeal and Motion for Appointment of Counsel." Therein, petitioner complains about the way she has been treated and the decisions that have been rendered in various cases to which she is a party.<sup>1</sup> She asks this Court to order all parties to this action "to cease and desist this discrimination treatment and to order all court personnel to comply with state law and court procedures."

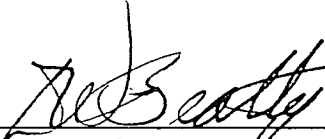

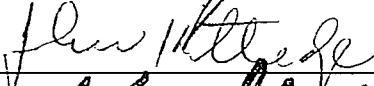

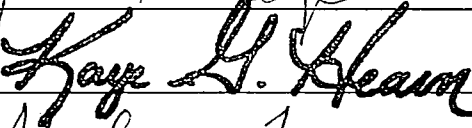

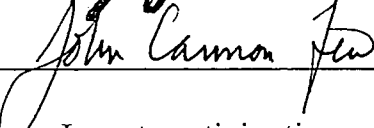

Because there has been no decision rendered in the above captioned matter to review on appeal, and due to the general request for relief petitioner makes in the document filed with this Court, we construe the document as a request for relief in this Court's original jurisdiction pursuant to Rule 245, SCACR.<sup>2</sup> However, by

---

<sup>1</sup> Ms. Jackson references the following cases: Mamie Jackson v. Haiyan Lin, et al, 14-CP-40-7467, Appellate Case No. 2015-001696; Mamie Jackson v. City of Cayce, Appellate Case No. 2015-002113; Mamie Jackson v. City of Columbia, Appellate Case No. 2015-002332.

<sup>2</sup> Even if we were to consider the "Appeal" a petition for a writ of certiorari to the Court of Appeals in the cases petitioner references, it would have to be dismissed because it would be untimely in the Haiyan Lin case (remittitur issued by Court of Appeals in January 2016 and motion to recall the remittitur denied in August 2016) and it would be premature in the City of Cayce and City of Columbia cases because they are pending before the Court of Appeals and no final decision has been rendered. Rule 242(c), SCACR.

order dated October 20, 2010, this Court directed that no filings be accepted from petitioner in which she seeks relief in this Court's original jurisdiction unless they are signed and submitted by an attorney. Petitioner moves to be appointed counsel in this matter. We have considered petitioner's motion for appointment of counsel in light of the matter she wishes to file in this Court. Because we find the matter does not meet the requirements of Rule 245, SCACR, we deny the request to appoint counsel and dismiss the matter.

_____ C.J.

_____ J.

_____ J.

_____ J.
James, J., not participating

Columbia, South Carolina

April 18, 2017

cc: Ms. Mamie Jackson
Jenny Abbott Kitchings, Esquire
Magistrate Valerie R. Stroman
Commission on Judicial Conduct
South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense