Case No. 2016-002179

V.

James Teal, Appellant

Motion to answer Respondents brief

Respondent has erred, stating appellants issues were not raised, in the lower Court. The dismissed case was presented to the lower Court. Page 5, lines 14-20, transcript of record.

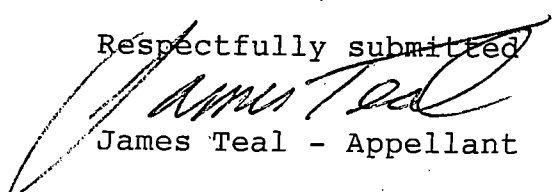

The Honorable Jocelyn Newman, could not rule on this issue, as respondent was notified by E-mail of entry of appeal. Respondent claimed not receiving the E-mail. Page 9, lines 16-20. The Courts reaction to respondents claim of not receiving said E-mail, Page 15, lines 11-17.

Respondent claims "conclusory statements," by appellant, with no support by authority. Appellant claims adamantly, statements entered were based on truth and fact

In answer of respondents claim of no support by "authority." Appellant entered his appeal with the S.C Court of Appeals and the authority vested in this Honorable Court.

Respondent is adamant with his initial brief, desiring a dismissal of appellants case. Appellants trial was dishonored by respondent, with a dismissed case, never heard in Court and entered as evidence. Respondents desire for a honorable dismissal of appellants case is chilling to appellant.

Respectfully submitted

KERSHAW COUNTY, Respondent

Case No. 2016-002179

V

James Teal, Appellant

Motion to alter judgment

Appellant, is requesting the Court to accept this Motion and overturn the judgment in the Summery Court of Kershaw county. Motion is based on respondent, presenting a dismissed case, never heard in Court. The Honorable William D. Corbett, erring in not charging the jury, as appellant objected. The admission of undocumented evidence and a memory loss of evidence, important to appellants case. Due to irregularaties in appellants trial, appellant is asking the Appeals Court to overturn appellants conviction.

Respectfully submitted

James Teal - Appellant
