

State of South Carolina
Court of Appeals

James G. Blakely, Petitioner, vs.

B. P. Sterling, et. al. Respondents

Petitioner's Opposition To Court Order, Case
No. 2016-002418

SC Court of Appeals

The United States Constitution art. VI, § 2 Reads: "This Constitution and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the Supreme Law of the Land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby any thing in the Constitution or Laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding - standing."

28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(4) clearly states: "(4) No person shall a prisoner be prohibited from bringing a Civil action or appealing a Civil or Criminal judgment for the reason that the prisoner has no assets and no means by which to pay the initial partial filing fee."

So this Court is not upholding the law. Also, Petitioner is requesting a copy of the alleged "Motion to Reinstate Case no. 2016-002418 above. Please check your records for this error of law and correct.

Petitioner's file reveal that this Court requested proof of appeal and proof of service, would the Court like copies of said letters?

It seems like a miscarriage of justice or a legal conspiracy is in operation.

This Court is violating federal laws, which petitioner will appeal.

The South Carolina Court of Appeals is fighting and violating the law, wasting tax payers' dollars, just to keep petitioner from achieving the shoes that petitioner is entitled to, as a state prisoner?

Where is the intelligence of this Court of Appeals? Petitioner is indigent and prepared to go all the way to the United States Supreme Court, if necessary for my rights.

I am sure along the way there will be news papers and radio stations dealing with this subject of the waste of tax payers dollars.

How much is the Court

Willing to spend on state's shoes? Petitioner will appeal any denial.
