1 attention to the testimony in this case so that at the end of
2 the testimony, after all the arguments of counsel and the
3 charge on the law by the Court, you will then be in a
4 position to determine what the true facts are and apply the 5 law to those facts and thus render a true and just verdict.

6 It will be the added duty of the foreperson, who I will
7 appoint at a later time, to be the Court's liaison and to be
8 the person that contacts the Court if you need anything. And 9 I will give you further instructions as to what those duties
10 will entail later.

11 Any objections to the preliminary charge from either the 12 State or the defense?

13 MR. JUSTIS: None from the State, Your Honor.

14 MR. WEHMAN: None from the defense, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Solicitor, you may proceed.

16 MR. WARD: May it please the Court, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18 MR. WARD: "Come in and help me." That's what the 19 officer heard a woman screaming from inside the house because 20 this man, Ralph Martin, had threatened to kill his wife and 21 was in the throes of assaulting her and choking her when the 22 police arrived.

23 The defendant is charged with one count of criminal
24 domestic violence of a high and aggravated nature. A person
25 is guilty of this crime if one of the following occur: A

1 person commits an assault and battery on a household member
2 with the use of a deadly weapon or results in serious bodily
3 injury, or an assault occurs with or without the accompanying
4 battery, which would reasonably cause a person to fear
5 imminent serious bodily injury. Let me repeat that.
6 Reasonably cause a person to fear imminent, serious bodily
7 injury or death.

8 Now, back in the beginning of July 2014, a neighbor
9 hears screaming and arguing coming from the Martins' house.
10 He calls the police. Officer Powell responds to the house,
11 approaches the front door and announces himself and 12 immediately hears Ralph Martin's wife, Becky Martin, scream,
13 "Come in. Help me."

14 She, a short time later, opens the door. She is then 15 able to speak with law enforcement and gives a statement to 16 them about what had just happened. She tells them the 17 defendant had been drinking all day, was on medication, and 18 came out of the bedroom a little time later. When he was 19 angry, he started slapping her and punching her in the face.

20 He then grabbed twine and wrapped her hands together,
21 tied them together. When she tried to break free, he grabbed
22 a dog leash, put it around her neck, and pulled tight,
23 choking her, and that's when law enforcement arrived and 24 stopped it.

25 The defendant, all the time he was doing this, was

1 threatening to kill her. Becky Martin reasonably believed
2 she was in fear for her life that night.

3 EMS then responded out to the scene. They evaluated
4 Ms. Martin. They advised her to go seek further medical 5 treatment at a hospital. Mrs. Martin refused to go to the 6 hospital that night.

7 Then about a week ago, last Wednesday, Ms. Martin went 8 and met with these two attorneys. She met with them in their
9 office and gave a new statement about what she said happened
10 that night.

11 MR. WEHMAN: Objection, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Basis of your objection?

13 MR. WEHMAN: It's improper. It's -- Your Honor, I
14 believe this is factually inconsistent with what occurred.
15 It's improper, and it's discrediting a statement that hasn't 16 been admitted yet.

17 THE COURT: Under what rule of evidence is your 18 objection based?

19 MR. WEHMAN: Your Honor, I would argue that you can't 20 impeach her, which he's attempting to do, before she's made a
21 prior inconsistent statement. She's not testified. She has 22 not made an inconsistent statement; therefore, he's 23 attempting to impeach the witness before she's done that.

24 THE COURT: His opening is merely assertion as to what 25 he thinks the issues will be. The testimony itself will be

1 what the jury will determine. Your objection is overruled.

2 MR. WARD: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 MR. WARD: She gave a new statement of what she said
5 happened that night, and it does contradict what she said the 6 night of the incident when she was speaking with law
7 enforcement.

8 Ladies and gentlemen, that night when the defendant was 9 assaulting her, choking her and threatening to kill her, she 10 was reasonably in fear for her life or serious bodily injury,
11 and that is why after you hear all the testimony from that 12 witness stand and see all the evidence in this case you'll 13 have no choice but to find the defendant, Ralph Martin,
14 guilty of criminal domestic violence of a high and aggravated
15 nature.

16 THE COURT: Counsel.

17 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
18 Court.

19 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

20 MR. WEHMAN: Solicitor Justis, Solicitor Ward.

21 Good afternoon. We want to thank you, Mr. Martin and I,
22 not necessarily for your attendance, because we know that's 23 mandatory. You have to be here. But what you do have the 24 choice about is your attention.

25 The Judge just went over a charge with you. And

1 attention I think is the most important thing that you can
2 take from that charge, because you have a very important job.
3 You are a judge, judge of the facts. The facts are going to
4 be laid out. The solicitor has made some representations
5 about what the facts will be. You'll have a chance to hear
6 them and make your own decision.

7 My client, Ralph Martin, walked into this courtroom an
8 innocent man. The State has a very, very important burden
9 that they have to meet before they can convict him of what 10 they have charged him with. They have the burden of proving 11 him guilty beyond any reasonable doubt.

12 Now, you'll hear from the victim, Ms. Martin, his wife
13 of over 40 years. She was there that night. She is the only 14 witness who will testify that was there that night when these
15 acts were alleged to have happened. She is going to recite
16 to you what happened that night. Pay attention. Take 17 everything that she says with a grain of salt, but also pay
18 attention to her words.

19 At the end of her testimony, along with the testimony of 20 the other witnesses in this case, I'm confident that you will 21 deliberate, pass your votes in to your foreman, and at the 22 end of that deliberation, you will find that the State has 23 not met their burden of proving Mr. Martin guilty beyond a
24 reasonable doubt.

25 Again, we'd like to thank you for your attention and for

1 your presence here today. Without you, we could not do this,
2 so thank you.

3 THE COURT: Solicitor, you may call your first witness.

4 MR. WARD: The State calls Richard Stevens.

5 RICHARD STEVENS,
6 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

7 THE COURT: Your witness.

8 MR. WARD: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
9 Court.

10 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. WARD:

11 Q. How are you today, Mr. Stevens?

12 A. I'm well.

13 Q. Good. Mr. Stevens, where do you live?

14 A.

15 Q. All right.

16 A. Summerville.

17 Q. And are you married?

18 A. Yes, I am.

19 Q. Are you employed?

20 A. I am.

21 Q. Where do you work?

22 A. in North Charleston.

23 Q. And how long have you lived at that address?

24 A. Going on ten years.

25 Q. And do you know the defendant in this case?

1 A. I do not.

2 Q. About how -- can you see the defendant's house from your
3 house?

4 A. Yes, it's three houses down.

5 Q. Okay. And is it on the same side of the street?

6 A. No, it's on the opposite side of the street.

7 Q. Opposite. About how far would you say your house is 8 from theirs?

9 A. Few hundred yards.

10 Q. Let's turn your attention back to the beginning of 11 July 2014. Can you tell the jury what you remember from that 12 day?

13 A. Yes. Just a second, though. I said yards. I meant 14 feet.

15 Q. Thank you.

16 A. Yes. That night my wife and I had gone out onto the 17 porch to smoke a cigarette. We heard some shouting outside.
18 There's a -- a bar across the street from where the incident
19 happened. A lot of times shouting comes from there, so I got 20 up and looked out the door to see where the shouting was 21 coming from.

22 I saw a shadowy figure at the residence in question, and
23 it was about halfway down the driveway behind a car. After a
24 few seconds maybe, I heard somebody say, "Help me. Help me."
25 Then I saw that figure move and a male voice said, "Get back

1 in the house."

2 And at that time I turned to my wife, asked her if I
3 should call the police, and I told her what I'd heard and she
4 said probably, so I did.

5 Q. Okay. And did you call police?

6 A. Yes, I did.

7 Q. And after that did you have any other involvement in 8 this case?

9 A. I think an officer came by the house and asked if I had 10 anything else to add, and I didn't, so no, nothing else after 11 that.

12 MR. WARD: Thank you. No further questions. Please
13 answer any the defense may have.

14 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

15 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
16 Court.

17 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. WEHMAN:

19 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Stevens.

20 A. Hi.

21 Q. Good afternoon. So you testified that you are a
22 neighbor of the Martins; is that correct?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Okay. You live a couple houses down?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And on that night, you testified you'd heard some
2 shouting?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Do you live near a bar?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. About where is that?

7 A. Okay. The neighbor's house is three houses down and
8 across the -- he lives on the corner, and across the street
9 from them is the bar.

10 Q. Okay. And you testified you heard shouting and 11 someone -- you said a female's voice saying, "Help me"?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And you heard another voice from somewhere say, "Get 14 back"?

15 A. "Get back in the house," yes.

16 Q. Did you see anything?

17 A. It was dark.

18 Q. So you didn't see anything?

19 A. I didn't see who it was that had said it.

20 Q. Could you see who the female voice was that was 21 shouting?

22 A. No. I just saw a shadowy figure. I couldn't see who it
23 was.

24 MR. WEHMAN: Okay. Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

25 No further questions, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Any redirect?

2 MR. WARD: Nothing from the State.

3 THE COURT: You may step down, Mr. Stevens. Thank you.

4 You may call your next witness.

5 MR. JUSTIS: At this time the State calls Becky Martin.

6 BECKY MARTIN,

7 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

8 THE COURT: Your witness.

9 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, Your Honor, may it please the
10 Court.

11 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. JUSTIS:

13 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Martin.

14 A. Hello.

15 Q. Could you tell us where you live?

16 A.

17 Q. And is that --

18 A. Summerville.

19 Q. -- in Summerville?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Is that in Dorchester County?

22 A. Yes, it's in .

23 Q. Okay. And were you living there back in July of 2014?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. Okay. And who were you living at that residence with

1 back then?

2 A. My husband.

3 Q. And who --

4 A. And my son.

5 Q. Okay. And who's your husband?

6 A. Ralph Martin.

7 Q. Is he in the courtroom today?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Could you point him out for the jury?

10 A. He's over there with the blue shirt (indicating).

11 MR. JUSTIS: Please let the record reflect she

12 identified the defendant as her husband, Mr. Ralph Martin.

13 Q. Was there an opportunity for law enforcement to arrive
14 at your house back in July of 2014?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. And what was happening that night that precipitated law
17 enforcement coming to the house?

18 A. Ralph suffers from post-traumatic stress disorder --
19 syndrome, and he was also drinking, and he gets -- he don't 20 make sense. He starts scrambling his words and hollers and 21 everything when he's -- he's going through episodes.

22 Q. Okay. And was there a verbal altercation that occurred
23 that night?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Okay. Was there any physical altercation between he and

1 you that evening?

2 A. No.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. Other than him -- he did not take the leash to me. He
5 took the leash, but he didn't put it around me. He had some
6 twine and he wrapped them around my arms and my neck, but it
7 was loose and I just took it off.

8 Q. Okay. I'm showing you what's been marked as State's
9 Exhibit No. 1. Could you take a look at that for me and tell
10 me if you recognize that?

11 A. Yes. He didn't -- it's too little. That's Sandy's, my 12 dog's -- his dog's leash.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. It would not go around me.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. No way.

17 Q. Did he attempt to put it around you?

18 A. No, he just picked it up, but he didn't even -- he 19 looked at it and realized that it wouldn't go around me.

20 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as State's Exhibit
21 No. 2. Do you recognize this?

22 A. Yes, that's crabbing twine.

23 Q. Is that the twine he put around your hands?

24 A. It was, yes, around here (indicating) and around my 25 neck, but it was very loose. I just took it off. He was

1 trying to confine me.

2 Q. So you're saying he was trying to confine you with it?

3 A. Yes. Because I -- when he -- when he gets into those
4 situations where his panic -- with the post-traumatic
5 syndrome, he loses -- he doesn't know who he is and he -- he
6 starts calling out people's names and I don't know who he's
7 talking about it. He don't know who he's talking about. It
8 stem back from coming home from Vietnam. He done the same
9 thing then, and that's been 30-some years, 40-some years ago.

10 Q. Okay.

11 A. We've been together 47 years.

12 Q. And when he started doing this, at some point in time,
13 did you walk outside?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Okay. And when you walked outside, what did you do?

16 A. I just went outside.

17 Q. Okay. Did you say anything when you went outside?

18 A. No, I just went outside.

19 Q. Okay. And at what point did you come back inside?

20 A. I didn't. He come outside.

21 Q. Okay. And what happened when Mr. Martin came outside?

22 A. He come outside and grabbed hold of me and told me to go
23 back inside. But by that time the dogs -- we've got two 24 dogs, and they come out, and so he was screaming for them to 25 come back.

1 Q. Okay. And the leash and the twine incident, did that
2 happen prior to you coming outside or did that happen after?

3 A. After. No, the leash was first.

4 Q. Okay.

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. So the leash happened, then you came outside?

7 A. Yes. And then he -- when I come back inside, he come
8 out and told me to come back inside.

9 Q. What was he trying to do with the leash?

10 A. I guess he thought he was going to tie me up, but it was 11 too little.

12 Q. What did he try to tie -- like what part of you did he 13 try to tie up with it?

14 A. He didn't do anything. He just grabbed it. Then he 15 realized it was too little and he put it down.

16 Q. Did he say anything when he picked it up?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Do you remember police arriving that evening?

19 A. Vaguely.

20 Q. Okay. Did you call police?

21 A. No.

22 Q. And what did you tell police when they arrived?

23 A. I don't remember. I don't remember anything from that
24 night.

25 Q. Okay. Do you remember giving a written statement to

1 police that evening?

2 A. No. I mean, I remember writing, but I don't remember
3 what I wrote or why.

4 Q. So you don't recall giving a written statement to 5 Deputy Strickland that evening?

6 A. No, sir.

7 Q. I'm showing you what's been marked as State's Exhibit 5.
8 Do you recognize it? Please take a moment to look at it. Do
9 you recognize that?

10 A. Yes, that's my handwriting.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. But I don't remember what these questions were that I
13 answered. I don't remember that.

14 Q. So you remember making a statement, but you don't 15 remember --

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. -- the content of the statement?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Would that be a fair --

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. -- statement to say?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. But that is your handwriting?

24 A. When I'm nervous, yes. I usually write better than 25 that.

1 Q. And is that your signature at the bottom?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And what about the second page; is that your signature
4 at the bottom?

5 A. Yes.

6 Q. And what was the -- what was the date on that statement?

7 A. It was July the 1st, I thought. Where is the date?
8 July the 1st.

9 Q. Okay. Thank you. Would it help if you read this to 10 refresh your memory about what you told police that night?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Would that help you?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Okay. Now, did you have -- did you have an opportunity
15 to -- obviously you talked to police that night?

16 A. I don't remember. I remember this officer (indicating),
17 but I don't remember anybody else.

18 Q. Okay. Officer Powell right here (indicating)?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. So you remember --

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. You remember his face from that evening?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Do you remember meeting with an EMT?

25 A. No.

1 Q. Okay. And do you remember if you went to the hospital
2 that night?

3 A. No, no. I wasn't hurt.

4 Q. Okay. And did you have an opportunity to give another
5 statement recently?

6 A. No.

7 Q. To anyone?

8 A. No. Not that I know of.

9 Q. Okay. Do you remember making a statement to 10 Mr. Martin's attorneys last week at their office? Do you
11 remember doing that?

12 A. I don't know what I said.

13 Q. Okay. Let me show you what's been marked as State's 14 Exhibit No. 6. Please take a look at that. Let me know if 15 it refreshes your memory.

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Okay. So do you remember making that statement to them
18 last week?

19 A. Yes.

20 Q. Okay. Is that your signature at the bottom?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. So you would agree with the statements in there?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. So could you tell the jury what you told the public
25 defender's office last week what happened? I mean, you've

1 read this statement.

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Do you need to see it again?

4 A. I guess. I don't --

5 Q. Okay.

6 A. I suffer from anxiety disorder, so I can't -- I don't --
7 sometimes I don't remember.

8 Q. I understand.

9 A. I take medication for it.

10 Q. What was it you told the public defender's office last
11 week that occurred that evening?

12 A. I don't need that. I can tell you what happened.

13 Q. Okay.

14 A. He -- he --

15 Q. Well, tell us.

16 A. He had been -- Ralph had been drinking all day, and he
17 was also taking his medicine for post-traumatic stress
18 disorder, and he -- he went to lay down. And when he woke 19 back up about four hours later, he was just not making any 20 sense. He was talking out of his head and called out
21 people's names that I did not know, and he really scared me.

22 Q. Right.

23 A. So I --

24 Q. So you were scared that night?

25 A. Yes, and I ran out. That's why I ran out.

1 Q. But he came after you?

2 A. Yes. He told me get back in the house, and I went back
3 in the house.

4 Q. Okay. All right. Thank you.

5 At this time I'm going to show you State's Exhibit 17
6 through 21. Can you please take a look at these and tell me
7 if you recognize these?

8 A. Mm-hmm, yes. Well, that right there is this right here
9 (indicating) from a dog that I used to have, and she was 10 small. When we pick her up, she scratched me. That's scars.
11 But my mouth being bloody, yes --

12 Q. Well, first of all --

13 A. -- see my teeth?

14 Q. -- what do they appear to be?

15 A. My teeth are messed up. They always -- I always got 16 blood on my mouth.

17 THE COURT: Ms. Martin, if you would, on -- the number
18 of each picture, if you're describing something on each
19 picture, please reference the number.

20 Q. Right. Generally, first of all --

21 A. What?

22 Q. There's a number on each picture on the back. Okay?

23 Generally, what are those?

24 A. What are?

25 Q. Photographs?

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. Of what?

3 A. Of me.

4 Q. Okay. And if you look at each photograph, and if you
5 turn it over, there's a number on each one.

6 A. Mm-hmm.

7 Q. On the little red sticker. If you could tell us the 8 number and then kind of describe what that is a picture of.

9 A. This is No. 18, and it's just my neck. There's no --
10 there's no cuts or anything.

11 And this is No. 19, and I don't see anything.

12 And this is No. 20 and, no, I don't see anything except 13 for the scars that are there right now from the dog.

14 And this is 21, and I don't see anything.

15 Q. But you would agree that they're all pictures of you?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. And this is from that evening?

18 A. I guess. Those are the scars right there from my puppy
19 (indicating).

20 Q. Okay. Thank you.

21 MR. JUSTIS: Beg the Court's indulgence.

22 Q. Ms. Martin, were you drinking that evening?

23 A. I don't drink.

24 Q. Okay.

25 A. I've never drank in my life. I do not smoke. I do not

1 take drugs except for my medication from the doctor. I do
2 not drink.

3 Q. Okay.

4 A. Anybody that knows me knows I don't drink. And I am a
5 Christian, so --

6 MR. JUSTIS: Okay. Well, thank you very much. Please
7 answer any questions that Mr. Wehman might have for you.

8 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

9 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
10 Court.

11 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. WEHMAN:

13 Q. Ms. Martin, how are you?

14 A. Angry.

15 Q. Yes, ma'am.

16 A. I'll calm down.

17 Q. Yes, ma'am.

18 Now, you had mentioned before about PTSD --

19 A. Mm-hmm.

20 Q. -- in reference to Ralph.

21 A. Mm-hmm.

22 Q. Where did that come from?

23 A. From Vietnam. He's a Vietnam veteran.

24 Q. Okay. What branch did he serve in?

25 A. In the Army.

1 Q. And did he do any tours overseas?

2 A. Did he?

3 Q. Yes.

4 A. Yes, Vietnam.

5 Q. Right, right.

6 A. And also he went to Germany, but I went with him when he
7 went to Germany.

8 Q. Okay, okay. Now --

9 A. And he volunteered. He was not drafted. The draft was 10 back then. He volunteered for all of it.

11 Q. Okay.

12 A. He's a very good man.

13 Q. Now, you stated, when you were speaking to the 14 solicitor, about being confined. At any point during that 15 confinement, were you in fear for your life?

16 A. No. I've been with him for 47 years. He won't -- no.
17 If he was going to hurt me, he would have done it by now.

18 Q. Okay. At any point during this altercation, did he 19 strike you?

20 A. No.

21 Q. And you stated that -- did he ever put the dog leash
22 around your neck?

23 A. No. It's too little.

24 Q. If you weren't in fear for your life, why do you believe
25 he was binding you?

1 A. Trying to hold me, keep me from going, leaving. He was
2 afraid I was going to leave. He was not in his right mind.

3 Q. So you believe he was afraid you were going to leave?

4 A. Yes.

5 MR. WEHMAN: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

7 MR. WEHMAN: May I approach the witness, Your Honor?

8 THE COURT: You may.

9 Q. I'm going to show you what you've already looked at,
10 which is State's Exhibit 17. You were saying something about 11 the blood on your mouth. Can you tell me what -- how that 12 blood got there?

13 A. Me biting my lips. Do I need to show you my teeth?
14 Why --

15 Q. You're fine.

16 A. I got diabetes, and my teeth are breaking off, and so
17 they're very baggy, so they're always bloody or something.
18 And I can't walk because of my diabetes.

19 Q. Now, when EMS came -- do you recall EMS coming?

20 A. No.

21 Q. You don't?

22 A. No.

23 Q. So you do not remember what you told them?

24 A. No. I don't remember talking to any -- I don't remember
25 any of that.

1 Q. Okay. But you did testify that you did not go to the 2 hospital?

3 A. No. I've never gone to the hospital or a doctor's
4 office because of anything that he's done to me, no.

5 I fell at my doctor's office the other day and did more
6 damage, broke my glasses, blacked my eye, because I can't 7 walk.

8 Q. Okay.

9 A. Blacked my knee, and I still got scars on my hands, but 10 the doctor was right there. Saw it.

11 MR. WEHMAN: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

12 I have no furthers questions, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Any further redirect?

14 MR. JUSTIS: None, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: You may step down, Ms. Martin. Thank you.

16 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

17 THE COURT: You may call your next witness.

18 MR. WARD: Colleen Connolly.

19 COLLEEN CONNOLLY,
20 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

21 THE COURT: Your witness.

22 MR. WARD: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
23 Court.

24 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

25 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. WARD:

1 Q. Good afternoon, Ms. Connolly.

2 A. Good afternoon.

3 Q. Where are you currently employed?

4 A. Dorchester County EMS.

5 Q. And how long have you worked there?

6 A. I've been full-time there for about a year now.

7 Q. Okay. What type of education is required for your job?

8 A. We do about a year of school, and then there's a
9 nationally standardized testing that we have to go through in 10 order to get our certification, including every month we have 11 to complete so many hours of continuing education and 12 recertify every three years.

13 Q. And what is your job title right now?

14 A. I am an EMT, emergency medical technician, crew member
15 with Dorchester County.

16 Q. And part of your -- what are some of your job duties?

17 A. Patient care. We do a lot of -- EMTs do a lot of trauma
18 patient care, including taking care of the truck, public
19 service events.

20 Q. And could you explain for the jury kind of the procedure
21 you follow when you're called out to an assault case?

22 A. Sure. We get the call, generally with assault cases, if 23 there's not police already on scene, we stand by in the area
24 until the scene's secured. Once we arrive on scene, we
25 immediately make patient contact. Usually if the officers

1 are there, we get a little information from the officer,
2 whatever information they have.

3 Once we make patient contact, we speak with the patient,
4 find out their chief complaints and immediately start getting
5 vital signs and taking care of the patient, treating any 6 injuries they have, then getting them loaded into the 7 ambulance and transporting them to the ER for further
8 evaluation by a physician.

9 Q. And what happens if someone refuses to go to the 10 hospital, to be transported to the hospital?

11 A. It's their right to refuse, so if they do refuse, we 12 explain to them any risks involved related to their injuries
13 that they might -- might cause further action if they don't
14 get treated. And we have them sign our refusal policy.

15 Q. Okay. Now, let's turn your attention to the incident in 16 this case. How did you become involved?

17 A. There was a 911 call received for our dispatch center.
18 So then we were the closest truck to the incident, so we were 19 dispatched there. The scene was already secured. There were 20 already police on scene, so we were able to go straight into 21 the scene, which was the residence, and made patient contact.

22 Q. Okay. And who was the patient you made contact with?

23 A. Patient was Ms. Becky Martin.

24 Q. Okay. And what was the first thing you did when you
25 made contact with Ms. Martin?

1 A. We immediately asked her what had happened and what she
2 was complaining of, what her chief complaints were.

3 Q. And what were her chief complaints?

4 A. She was complaining of some head pain as well as some
5 tenderness in her neck where there was some bruising present.

6 Q. Okay. I'm showing you what's been marked as State's 7 Exhibits 17 through 21, if you'd take a look at those.

8 A. Okay.

9 Q. Do you recognize those?

10 A. Yes, sir. This is the victim, Becky Martin, that we 11 were called to evaluate.

12 Q. And are those photographs a fair and accurate
13 representation of what you saw on her that night?

14 A. Yes.

15 MR. WARD: At this time, Your Honor, we'd ask for 16 State's Exhibits 17 through 21 to be admitted into evidence.

17 (State's Exhibits 17-21 admitted into evidence.)

18 THE COURT: Any objection?

19 MR. LOY: No objection, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: They're in.

21 MR. WARD: May I publish for the jury, Your Honor?

22 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

23 Q. I'm showing you what's been marked as State's 17. Could 24 you explain kind of what you saw on her that night from this 25 picture?

1 A. There was -- on the right lateral and posterior part of
2 her neck, there was some slight bruising going on and redness
3 to the area.

4 Q. And if you can, on the screen right there, you can
5 actually touch it and kind of circle and put marks on the 6 screen. If you could show what you were describing or where 7 you saw those injuries.

8 A. The area was kind of like right in here (indicating) and 9 then around to the back of her neck, which you can't see as 10 well in this picture. And there was some redness where the 11 patient had stated that the -- she had been strangled.

12 Q. And did you notice anything about her mouth?

13 A. Yes. There were some cuts and bleeding to her mouth.
14 You can see in this picture.

15 Q. Okay. I'm showing you State's 18. Were you able --
16 could you explain this photograph?

17 A. This is another picture of her neck. Same. There was 18 redness and bruising in this area around to the back of the 19 neck that (indicating) --

20 Q. And then State's 21, did you see anything when you
21 evaluated her that night on this part of her?

22 A. I don't believe so. I don't have anything noted in my 23 report about that.

24 Q. Okay. And after you evaluated Ms. Martin, what was your 25 advice to her?

1 A. That she be transported by me and my partner to the 2 hospital to be further evaluated by a physician.

3 Q. And why was it your -- why did you tell her she should 4 be evaluated further?

5 A. When she received several blows to the head, she stated,
6 by a closed fist and was complaining of pain in her head and
7 a headache, and that can cause a number of life-threatening
8 injuries, including, you know, bleeding inside your head,
9 hemorrhaging.

10 And then in addition to that, she stated that she had 11 been strangled with a dog leash and then a piece of some sort
12 of yarn around her neck. And strangulation can cause
13 swelling inside your throat. You can create trauma to the 14 area, break something in that area. And all of those can 15 lead to life-threatening injuries.

16 And we, unfortunately, in the field don't have the 17 ability to rule all of that out, so we recommended that she 18 be transported and evaluated at the hospital where they have 19 that ability to rule out those sort of things.

20 Q. And did Ms. Martin take your advice and go to the 21 hospital that night?

22 A. She did not. She refused transport to the ER, despite 23 me and my partner explaining these things to her and against 24 our medical advice, which I stated in my report, and she, as 25 every patient who is alert and oriented, has that right to.

1 Despite knowing that they could have life-threatening
2 injuries, they can refuse transport.

3 Q. Okay. And did she -- how did she refuse? Is there
4 something she needed to --

5 A. She signed our refusal policy for Dorchester County,
6 which states that we recommended and told her that her
7 condition required further evaluation by a qualified
8 physician and that she would be best served by being
9 transported in the EMS unit. We advised her of the possible
10 consequences of her decision and explained to her that these 11 could result in loss of life or other serious aggravation of 12 any medical condition she already had.

13 And she signed stating that she understood all of that 14 and that even though we requested that she receive further
15 treatment by us that she decided to refuse.

16 MR. WARD: Thank you. Beg the Court's indulgence.

17 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18 MR. WARD: No further questions. Please answer any the 19 defense may have.

20 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

21 MR. LOY: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LOY:

23 Q. I'm sorry. I missed your name when you came in, ma'am.

24 A. Colleen Connolly.

25 Q. Ms. Connolly?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 Q. And, Ms. Connolly --

3 MR. LOY: May I approach the witness, Your Honor?

4 THE COURT: You may.

5 Q. I see you've got some paperwork up there with you.

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. Is this duplicative of what I have? Do I have the same
8 stuff?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. So we're looking at the same paperwork?

11 A. Yes, sir.

12 Q. And you were referring to that -- the paperwork I
13 mean -- during the course of your testimony; is that correct?

14 A. That is.

15 Q. And this happened -- that is, you responded to 16 or , whatever it was, back in July; is 17 that right?

18 A. July 1st.

19 Q. Okay. So it's been months, six, seven months since 20 then, a little more; is that right?

21 A. Yes, sir.

22 Q. And you've responded to a lot of calls in the meantime,
23 have you not?

24 A. That is correct.

25 Q. How many in a day or a week? And I know it varies, but

1 roughly, what would be fair to say?

2 A. Probably in the Summerville area, it can be anywhere
3 from two to six calls. It fluctuates. It's really hard to 4 really put a number on it.

5 Q. When you say two to six calls, do you mean in a shift,
6 in a day that you work?

7 A. In a 24-hour shift.

8 Q. And is that how you work, on a 24-hour shift?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. So -- and then it's a small percentage of those cases
11 that you respond to that you're actually called into court to 12 testify; is that right?

13 A. That's correct.

14 Q. Have you been called to testify before?

15 A. I have been called to testify but not actually 16 testified.

17 Q. Not put on the witness stand?

18 A. Right, correct.

19 Q. You're doing great.

20 A. Thank you.

21 Q. And I take it that the scenes or situations that you're 22 called to or respond vary a great deal, do they not?

23 A. They can, yes.

24 Q. I mean, sometimes people have, and I don't know the 25 lingo, but an organic difficulty, like something wrong with

1 them physically from the inside, like have a heart problem or
2 a kidney problem or an aneurysm, those of type of things, and
3 you get called upon to respond to those, do you not?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. And sometimes it's more on the lines of an automobile
6 accident or a farm accident or any nature of things that
7 cause people to be in danger or hurt; is that right?

8 A. Correct.

9 Q. Okay. And it would certainly be fair to say that since
10 you're not a rolling hospital, I understand you all do the 11 best that you can when you show up, but you all err on the 12 side of caution; is that fair to say? Do you understand my 13 question?

14 A. Um --

15 Q. What I mean -- and I'm sorry. I don't want to cut you
16 off, but if you don't, I can rephrase it and maybe make it a
17 little artfully constructed.

18 What I mean is this: If you show up and you and your 19 partner think, "Well, this person might need more medical 20 treatment, well, they might well not," you advise them to get 21 more medical treatment or be seen by the doctor, do you not?

22 A. Correct. And I feel that anybody who felt the need to 23 call 911, which is an emergency service, had something going
24 through their head that they felt like they need to be 25 evaluated, and that would most -- you know, properly be done

1 by a physician.

2 Q. Okay. But separating this case from those, since
3 there's nothing before you that tends to show you that
4 Ms. Martin dialed 911 -- I mean, you were summoned by someone 5 else.

6 A. Mm-hmm.

7 Q. So in a situation where, regardless of who dialed for 8 EMS, when you respond, if you think it's questionable as to 9 whether or not further treatment would be beneficial to this 10 person, you err on the side of caution and recommend they be 11 seen?

12 A. Yes, I would recommend that they go to the ER.

13 Q. And that's what you did in this case; is that right?

14 A. I recommended that she be evaluated by a physician
15 because her injuries could have caused some sort of life
16 threat or furthered her medical conditions that she already 17 had.

18 Q. Okay. Well, I'm looking on what I think is Page 3 --

19 A. Mm-hmm.

20 Q. -- of your report.

21 A. Mm-hmm.

22 Q. And just so I can show you what I'm looking at, it's 23 this one that says "final" and it's got a narrative here?

24 A. Correct.

25 Q. Do you have that with you?

1 A. I do.

2 Q. Would you look at that with me for just one moment. And
3 I was counting down in the narrative section, one, two,
4 three, four, five, six, seven lines, which starts with -- and
5 then three words in, "No additional pain"; do you see that?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. And would you read -- just begin reading there for me,
8 please.

9 A. "No additional pain upon palpation of the head."

10 Q. Now, let me slow you down. What does that mean, "No 11 additional pain upon palpation of the head"?

12 A. She was complaining of head pain, and palpating is when 13 you press down around, so we check that there's no additional 14 rebound tenderness or pain when you press down.

15 Q. And in this case there was not?

16 A. Correct.

17 Q. Okay. And it goes on, "Redness with mild tenderness 18 upon palpation of the lateral portions of the neck"; is that 19 right?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. Then it says, "No pain or tenderness down the spinal 22 column"?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. "Or through the back"?

25 A. Yes.

1 Q. And no other acute findings?

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Now, they publish an indictment in this Court earlier
4 that said Ms. Martin had been knocked unconscious on that
5 evening. Did you ask her about loss of consciousness?

6 A. I believe I -- yes, I did, and she said she denied any 7 loss of consciousness --

8 Q. So when you --

9 A. -- as stated in my report.

10 Q. I'm sorry. I didn't mean to cut you off.

11 A. No, that's okay. I was just saying stated in my report
12 that she denied any loss of consciousness.

13 Q. So when you responded to the scene, when the police were 14 there and things were going on and the lights were flashing
15 and you were doing your examination, you asked, and they
16 said, "Well, no, there was no loss of consciousness"; is that 17 right?

18 A. That is correct.

19 Q. No falls?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. No tightness or tenderness in the throat, yes?

22 A. Correct.

23 Q. Now, you've talked about some mild bruising or 24 tenderness or something in the throat, but if we look at 25 this, at this line it says, "No tightness or tenderness in

1 the throat or difficulty breathing."

2 A. Correct.

3 Q. Is that right?

4 A. Correct.

5 Q. Denies chest pain and that she doesn't need to go to the 6 doctor, that in her opinion she doesn't want to go to the 7 doctor.

8 A. In her opinion, she felt like she did not want to be
9 transported by us to the ER at that time.

10 Q. And you agree that's her right?

11 A. That is her right, correct.

12 Q. She exercised it?

13 A. Correct.

14 Q. You passed her on the way out, so she did survive the 15 whole ordeal?

16 A. Yes.

17 MR. LOY: Just one moment, please.

18 Nothing further. Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Any redirect?

20 MR. WARD: Briefly, Your Honor.

21 REDIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. WARD:

22 Q. Looking at that narrative that you've been looking at,
23 what was her chief complaint when you were evaluating her?

24 A. She stated her chief complaint was head pain and -- give 25 me just a moment, head pain and tenderness to the neck

1 (indicating).

2 Q. Okay. And you stated she refused to go to the hospital,
3 but also in here, did she mention about anyone being able to 4 take her in case?

5 A. She stated she did not want to go with us at that time,
6 but if she felt like her granddaughter lived close and that
7 her granddaughter could take her to be evaluated or that she 8 might be able to manage the pain on her own at home, but she
9 urged very strongly about her granddaughter being so close
10 and being available to take her to the hospital to be 11 evaluated.

12 MR. WARD: Thank you. No further questions.

13 MR. LOY: Nothing, Your Honor, thank you.

14 THE COURT: You may step down, ma'am. Thank you.

15 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: You may call your next witness.

17 MR. JUSTIS: State calls Deputy Carlin Strickland.

18 MR. WEHMAN: Your Honor, may we approach?

19 THE COURT: You may.

20 (Judge and attorneys confer.)

21 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, let's take just a
22 brief recess. If you would step into your jury room, we'll 23 be right back with you.

24 (The jury retires to the jury room at 3:22 p.m.)

25 THE COURT: Mr. Loy, you had a matter to bring up to the

1 Court?

2 MR. LOY: I think Mr. Wehman is going to handle that
3 argument at the bar, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: You may proceed.

5 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor, may it please the
6 Court.

7 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8 MR. WEHMAN: I believe that the State is intending to 9 call the deputy to elicit the statement that's been made.
10 And the defense's argument would be that the witness has been 11 called to the stand. She has been confronted with this 12 statement. She admitted that she signed the statement. She 13 did deny not remembering what was in the statement.

14 However, the Rule 613 does allow impeachment of a
15 witness on their own statement. However, it must be -- she 16 must be confronted with what is in that statement. The 17 solicitor is well within his rights to go through that 18 statement, advise her of what is in there, have her admit or 19 deny on the record whether she made that statement.

20 At that point, if she denies making the contents of that 21 statement, extrinsic evidence of that statement is 22 admissible. He can publish the statement. He can try to 23 submit it into evidence. However, in this case, she was 24 presented with the statement. She said that was her
25 signature. The contents of that statement were not -- were

1 not delved into. We did not hear what she wrote. She did
2 not get a chance to admit or deny that she said those things.

3 Based on that, we would argue on -- based on the notes
4 on Rule 613 that the State did not allow her to comment on
5 the contents of that statement and, therefore, no further
6 extrinsic evidence of that statement is admissible.

7 THE COURT: All right. Solicitor?

8 MR. JUSTIS: Yes, Your Honor. According to Rule 613 of 9 the rules of evidence, it does state that unless the witness
10 is advised of the substance of the statement, which in this 11 case she was actually handed the statement, she was given the 12 opportunity to read the entire statement, okay, which she 13 did.

14 She looked at the entire statement, both pages; the time
15 and place it was allegedly made, we did cover that with her;
16 and the person to whom it was made, we said
17 Deputy Strickland, given the opportunity to explain or deny
18 it.

19 Her explanation was she didn't remember. She didn't say
20 she didn't make the statement; she didn't say she did. She 21 said, "I don't remember. It's my handwriting, but I don't 22 remember."

23 And under State v. Moses, it specifically states that 24 there's wide latitude extends to a witness indicating an
25 ability to recall or to remember a previous statement. So

1 she has to -- unequivocally, she has to say, "I made that
2 statement," and she didn't state that.

3 If she says, "I didn't make that statement," it can come
4 in, or if she says, "I don't remember," it comes in. And she
5 clearly said several times, "I don't remember." She talked
6 about her memory, how she doesn't remember things and
7 everything. So she clearly stated she did not remember
8 making that statement.

9 She did acknowledge, "That's my signature," you know,
10 "that's my handwriting, but I don't remember making the 11 statement."

12 So based on that, the State would allege that we are 13 entitled to have this officer authenticate that statement and 14 have that statement brought in as extrinsic evidence against 15 her.

16 THE COURT: Pursuant to Rule 613, a witness's own
17 out-of-court statement is hearsay if offered for its truth.
18 However, when a witness's prior inconsistent statement is 19 offered for impeachment, however, it's being offered merely 20 to show that the witness told a different story at a
21 different time, so it's admissible.

22 You may proceed. Let's have our jury back.

23 MR. JUSTIS: And, Your Honor, if we might real quick,
24 before we bring the jury out, we have a similar situation
25 with oral statements that were made to Deputy Powell.

1 Deputy Powell had his body mic on the entire time, and she
2 makes some oral statements similar -- I mean, similar to what
3 she puts in her written statement. She makes some oral
4 statements, and it would be our intention with Deputy Powell
5 to get into those oral statements. We have that recording,
6 and that was provided to the defense also.

7 (Brief pause.)

8 MR. JUSTIS: So we would have the same issue. Rather 9 than having to bring the jury in and out, if you want to 10 address it, we would make the same argument that she -- you
11 know, I asked her about oral statements that she made to the 12 police officers. She, again, said she couldn't remember.

13 Now, we do have, obviously with his body mic, there's a
14 lot of stuff going on. There's parts of his body mic
15 recording that has things that the defendant was saying. It
16 would be our intention to play only snippets that deal with 17 what she said, those statements she said, so that it would --
18 because there are some issues with some prior bad acts, and 19 it would be our intent to keep that out. And we can actually 20 review that with -- before we call Deputy Powell, with the 21 defense so that they're aware of what portions we would play.

22 MR. LOY: Is it a couple of minutes? Is it 20 minutes?

23 MR. JUSTIS: Total, it's probably going to be a couple
24 minutes. It's not long.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MR. JUSTIS: The whole video is like an hour and 40
2 minutes, but we've gone through and narrowed it down to
3 probably about eight, ten minutes tops, maybe.

4 THE COURT: Do you all want to take a quick break to 5 review that?

6 MR. LOY: Yes.

7 MR. JUSTIS: Do you want to do that now? We can do
8 that.

9 THE COURT: And that way if there's any objections, we 10 can deal with it all at once.

11 MR. LOY: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: So you all just let me know when you're 13 ready.

14 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: We'll be at ease, just don't discuss your 16 testimony with anybody.

17 (Recess held.)

18 THE COURT: Have you all had an opportunity to review
19 the statement?

20 MR. JUSTIS: We have, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Okay. And is everybody in agreement as far
22 as what's coming in? I know you still wanted to put your 23 objection regarding the officers.

24 MR. WEHMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Okay. I'll be happy to hear from you.

1 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. And may it please
2 the Court.

3 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

4 MR. WEHMAN: It's my understanding that there will be
5 four segments of audio from, I believe, Officer Powell that 6 will be attempted to be introduced into evidence. And we
7 would make the argument that these are captured on a body
8 microphone. There's no video. It's just his dash cam was on 9 and he was recording. His body mic picked up all of these 10 statements made by Becky, Becky Martin. We would argue that 11 these are hearsay.

12 And secondly, we would kind of renew our previous 13 argument as to the written statement. We would argue that 14 this is extrinsic evidence of a statement. First, she -- 15 that statement that she made in writing is going to be 16 introduced into evidence. You've already ruled on that a few
17 moments ago.

18 And secondly, extrinsic evidence of a statement that she 19 made is not admissible unless the witness is advised of the 20 substance of the statement, the time and place it was 21 allegedly made and the person to whom it was made. And 22 that's State v. Galloway, which is still good law in South
23 Carolina.

24 We would argue that she was presented with a statement
25 by the solicitor. She was asked whether or not her signature

1 was affixed to the bottom of it, which she admitted, and he
2 asked if she made that statement. She said she could not
3 remember.

4 However, it was never clear whether or not she read
5 through that statement. I believe at one point he said, "Are 6 you going to read through," and she might have made some 7 reference to, "No, I don't need to," or "I don't" -- it is 8 not clear that she read that statement, actually read the 9 words and denied whether or not she made it or not.

10 We would argue that she gets that opportunity to read it
11 and have it made clear on the record that she did read it and 12 does not know if she made that statement or not.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Justis?

14 MR. JUSTIS: And I would argue, Your Honor, she did have 15 it. She had the opportunity to read it. She didn't read it
16 out loud, but she did look at the statement. It actually 17 protects the jury from hearing those statements. She had an 18 opportunity to read it and either deny it, say "I don't 19 remember" or say, "Yes, this is true," before any of those 20 statements were actually improperly introduced to the jury.

21 So we would say that the law is very clear. She says
22 she doesn't remember, which she stated that several times, "I
23 don't remember anything I said," basically, is what she said.
24 "Yes, that's my signature. Yes, that's my handwriting, but I
25 don't remember." So we would argue that it does meet that

1 exception.

2 THE COURT: The Court's recollection of her testimony
3 was that she was given the statement. She indicated that it
4 was her handwriting on the date in question, which was
5 July 1st. She also stated that it was her signature. Her
6 testimony, however, was not unequivocal admission that she
7 made the statement, said it was her writing, but she doesn't
8 remember making the contents of the statement.

9 So based upon that, under State v. Blalock, basically
10 when that court found that when a witness admits
11 unequivocally that a prior inconsistent statement has been 12 made by him or her, at that stage they impeach themselves.
13 This is not what she did. She said that she did not
14 remember, so therefore, evidence is admitted when simply -- 15 when the witness simply avoids any direct answer, which is 16 what she did. She just basically said that she did not
17 remember.

18 And State v. Blalock found that if a witness either
19 directly admits or denies the act of declaration as when he 20 merely states that he does not recollect or as it seems gives
21 any further indirect answer not amounting to an admission, it
22 is competent for the adversary to prove the affirmative or 23 otherwise the witness might in every case exclude evidence of 24 what he had done or said by answering he did not remember.

25 So based upon that, I think it's clearly -- it goes to

1 being offered that the witness told a different story at the
2 time, not for the truth of the matter asserted, so I think
3 the witness's statement does come in, as does the oral
4 statements, because statements can be either oral or written,
5 so I think you're free to proceed on those grounds.

6 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 (State's Exhibit 5 admitted into evidence.)

9 MR. JUSTIS: Yes, Your Honor. If we might, at this time
10 we can publish the times we're going to play on that video.

11 THE COURT: Okay.

12 MR. JUSTIS: It will actually be with the next witness,
13 but at 3 minutes and 30 seconds into the video, she made
14 several statements. And then at -- looks like at 15 minutes
15 45 seconds in, and then at 19:50 in and then at 20:05 in,
16 those statements are made.

17 THE COURT: And, Mr. Wehman, is that your understanding
18 of when the statements were made?

19 MR. WEHMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: All right. The video has been properly
21 redacted? Or you're able to stop it at the appropriate
22 times?

23 MR. WARD: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. JUSTIS: Mr. Ward's in charge of that.

1 THE COURT: It's a technical matter. Okay. Anything
2 further before we bring the jury out?

3 MR. JUSTIS: No, Your Honor.

4 MR. LOY: Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 MR. LOY: Only, if I may, just for clarity sake and 7 purposes of our record, we may want to make a copy of the 8 minutes and seconds that are actually being introduced and 9 make it a Court's exhibit in the event a jury wanted to 10 rehear any of that.

11 THE COURT: Sure.

12 MR. LOY: It needs to be clear what it was they had 13 heard and what they hadn't heard.

14 THE COURT: Sure. We can certainly do that.

15 MR. LOY: Because we don't have -- they don't have a
16 redacted copy, so they're not introducing the CD into
17 evidence. I'm not sure exactly by what manner they can come
18 back and listen to something that's not in evidence. It's an 19 issue before the Court that may or may not arise.

20 MR. JUSTIS: Well, I think what we would do is we would 21 put the CD in evidence subject to these specifications, so if 22 that -- they don't get to take the whole CD and listen to the 23 whole thing.

24 THE COURT: Right. So if they wanted to listen to it
25 again, we'd bring them back out and listen to the specific

1 portions.

2 MR. JUSTIS: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Anything further?

4 MR. JUSTIS: No, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: All right. Let's have our jury, please.

6 (The jury enters the courtroom at 3:59 p.m.)

7 THE COURT: Welcome back, ladies and gentleman of the 8 jury. Thank you for your patience. We will now proceed with 9 the testimony.

10 You may proceed.

11 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
12 Court.

13 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

14 CARLIN STRICKLAND,
15 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. JUSTIS:

17 Q. Deputy Strickland, where do you work?

18 A. Dorchester County Sheriff's Office.

19 Q. And how long have you worked for Dorchester County?

20 A. About a year and a half, almost two years.

21 Q. And what's your position at the sheriff's office?

22 A. I'm a road deputy.

23 Q. And could you explain to the jury briefly what some of 24 your duties are as a road deputy?

25 A. I respond to normal patrol cars, I'm sorry, patrol

1 responses as far as 911 calls, things that dispatch send out,
2 do routine patrols, traffic stops, a lot of foot patrol, get
3 out and talk to people, those types things.

4 Q. Okay. And did you have an opportunity to respond to a
5 call at 100 -- I think it's in Summerville back
6 in July of 2014?

7 A. Yes, sir, I did.

8 Q. And when you arrived, what did you observe?

9 A. Deputy Powell had the door open at the time. He was 10 radioing for me while I was en route to it that he had heard
11 some things and he was going to perform a forced entry. He 12 asked that I escalate my response time, so thankfully I was 13 close enough to him to where I didn't have to. I pulled my 14 vehicle, my patrol vehicle in and exited out of my car
15 quickly. I ran to the front door. Deputy Powell was arguing
16 and it seemed like he was somewhat wrestling with the 17 defendant at the time, getting him in handcuffs.

18 He didn't need much of my help, so I proceeded to walk
19 in and speak with the victim. She approached me at the front
20 door. I asked her to step outside so I could speak with her
21 to kind of give distance between Deputy Powell and her and 22 kind of relieve her from the situation and speak with her and 23 just begin to talk about what happened that evening, if she 24 was okay, just kind of assess the situation as it became 25 clear to me, because I wasn't able to speak with

1 Deputy Powell prior to me just arriving on scene.

2 Q. And when you made contact with Ms. Martin, what was her
3 demeanor?

4 A. She was very emotional. She was very slow to speak.
5 She stuttered a few times. It took her a little bit to catch
6 her breath. Every time she started to say something, you
7 could tell something traumatic had happened. Usually when I
8 confront people that are in instances like this, they have
9 trouble saying a lot of things in general. It takes them a
10 long time to talk about it. They can't use their words
11 properly. That's what she was displaying to me.

12 Q. Okay. And did you have an opportunity to make any 13 physical observations of Ms. Martin?

14 A. Yes, sir. She had several things about her that I
15 noticed instantly. She had a redness around her mouth. It
16 looked like what appeared to be dried blood, from what I
17 could see. It was on the bottoms of her lips and little bit
18 on her -- like, on her gums where it had still been present.

19 She had what appeared to have been marks on her wrist
20 from some type of string or something that had been tied or 21 wrapped around her wrists, to the point where I could see it
22 from a distance where I didn't have to get very close to her.
23 Very roughly between me and her (indicating), as I am now, it
24 was quite visible. It was still red. There were a lot of 25 indentions in it, not where just it had been wrapped, like,

1 one time but, like, a couple, because there were different
2 layers of it.

3 There was also a mark on the side of her neck. It was 4 kind of wide. It wasn't the same consistency as what was on
5 her hand, both her hands, rather. It was just different
6 looking. It wasn't real small and thin like the other one.
7 It was quite big. It was only apparent, though, on the side
8 and on the back. I didn't see anything on the front. That's 9 the only thing that I recall as far as her person.

10 Q. Okay. At this time I'm showing you what's been marked
11 as State's Exhibit 17. Could you describe what we're looking 12 at there?

13 A. This is Ms. Martin, and this is what I was speaking of 14 earlier, the redness around her lips right here. You can 15 tell, like, from what I can see, the normal lip color seemed 16 to be, like, a normal, like, light pink. This section that's 17 across the top on both sides was almost black, like it had 18 been dried for a little bit, which appeared to look like
19 blood. And as you kept going little bit further, you can see
20 that it turns into a little bit more red color.

21 Q. Okay. I'm showing you what's been marked as State's 18.
22 Could you tell us what we're looking at there?

23 A. As I described a minute ago, there was an inconsistency
24 right here (indicating) on her neck that was different from 25 what was on her hands. It seemed to be wider and not as,

1 like, fine. There was a lot of detail on what was on her
2 hands, and this was different from that.

3 I could only see bruising from this side and what was on
4 the back of the neck, which we don't have a picture of here.
5 And there wasn't anything on the other, the other views of 6 this.

7 Q. Okay. State's Exhibit 19?

8 A. So the mark on the side continued from about here
9 somewhere along in this point, and then there was also a mark
10 on the back somewhere around here (indicating).

11 Q. I'm showing you State's 21. Tell us what we're looking
12 at there.

13 A. These are the small marks that I described. They show
14 several different small patterns. There's one across right
15 here just above that one; there's a second one right about 16 there; there was one here (indicating).

17 And then you can see kind of there's a second little
18 straight line that comes right across the top of it where it
19 appeared that each one had been wrapped not once but like 20 twice because of the lines that were across there. They're 21 quite deep in the indentation. I would say roughly about a
22 16th or 32nds deep and probably about an eighth inch wide.

23 Q. Okay. And can you see those marks in this picture,
24 State's 20?

25 A. I can see three of them. There's one here, one there

1 and there's one right about there (indicating).

2 Q. Do you know who took these pictures?

3 A. Yes, sir. I did.

4 Q. Did you take other pictures while you were there?

5 A. Yes, sir. I took a series of pictures from outside the 6 residence all the way in, including all the evidence.

7 Q. I'm showing you what's been marked as State's 7 through 8 12. Do you recognize these?

9 A. Yes, sir. No. 7 is the exterior of the home. This is 10 from the street view, roughly where both of our patrol cars
11 were parked. It also shows the front door being open.

12 No. 8 is the -- shows the numerics of the house number,
13 depicts that this is the actual house we were responding to.
14 The house number's above the garage door, which is 100.

15 No. 9 depicts the front door where we made contact with 16 both individuals prior to entering the house.

17 No. 10 is a depiction of a -- what appears to be a cell
18 phone battery that was on -- in the driveway in between -- I
19 guess you would call it a front walkway, the driveway and the 20 vehicle that was currently in the driveway.

21 No. 11 and No. 12 are also other pictures close up
22 depicting that particular battery from different views.

23 Q. And did you take all those pictures?

24 A. Yes, sir, I did.

25 Q. And are they a fair and accurate representation of what

1 you observed that evening?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 MR. JUSTIS: At this time the State would offer
4 State's 7 through 12 in evidence.

5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 MR. WEHMAN: No objection, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: They're in.

8 (State's Exhibits 7-12 admitted into evidence.)

9 Q. And briefly, Deputy, showing you State's 7, could you
10 briefly tell us what that is?

11 A. That's the front of the house from the street view.
12 You're looking from the perspective of where the two patrol
13 cars were parked. That's looking at the house.

14 Q. And State's 8?

15 A. That's the top of the driveway depicting the numerics of 16 the house being 100. That's the garage door.

17 Q. And State's Exhibit 9?

18 A. That's the garage door, the vehicle that was in the 19 driveway and the front door to the residence.

20 Q. Is that the vehicle -- withdraw.

21 State's 10, what is that depicting?

22 A. This is the picture of the battery right there
23 (indicating). I know it looks like a leaf, but that's the 24 cell phone battery that we recovered. That's in between the 25 vehicle that was in the driveway. This is, like, the

1 walkway. The front door's here (indicating).

2 Q. State's 11?

3 A. That's just a different view and a close-up picture of 4 the battery from the cell phone.

5 Q. And finally State's 12?

6 A. That's another close view also of the same battery.

7 Q. Did you -- besides the pictures of the victim and the 8 pictures of the outside of the house, did you take any other
9 pictures?

10 A. I took several pictures. I took pictures of the 11 evidence that was also collected during the scene. I took 12 pictures of the injuries, the house, the cell phone, the 13 battery. I think that's about it. I can't recall to my -- I
14 mean, it's been a while since I've taken those pictures.

15 Q. Okay. I'm showing you State's Exhibit 13, 14, 15 and 16 16. Do you recognize those items?

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. And what are they?

19 A. No. 13 is a leash that was recovered at the scene that 20 the defendant said -- sorry, that the victim said was used on 21 her during the incident.

22 No. 14 is a table that's in the middle of living room in 23 between the dining room and the living room. On the table is 24 a roll of twine or string, depending how you want to call it.
25 It's still on the coil, and there's a pair of scissors beside

1 it. That's what the victim stated that was used on her as 2 well.

3 No. 15 and 16 are two different views of the same twine
4 or string just in a closer format so you can see them a
5 little bit better.

6 Q. And are those items fair and accurate representations of 7 what you observed that night?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. And you took these photographs?

10 A. Yes, sir.

11 MR. JUSTIS: State would offer State's 13 through 16
12 into evidence.

13 THE COURT: Any objection?

14 MR. WEHMAN: No objection, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: They're in.

16 (State's Exhibits 13-16 admitted into evidence.)

17 MR. JUSTIS: May I publish, Your Honor?

18 THE COURT: You may.

19 Q. I'm showing you State's 13. Briefly explain what that 20 is.

21 A. That's the dog leash she was speaking of that she stated
22 it was used against her.

23 Q. And State's 14?

24 A. This is the table that's in between the two rooms, the 25 kitchen and the living room. And on the table right here you

1 can see this is where the twine is at that was in plain view
2 when we walked through the residence (indicating).

3 Q. State's 15?

4 A. This is a closer picture of the same table, also showing
5 the same string (indicating).

6 Q. And what's that item right above the string?

7 A. It's a pair of scissors.

8 Q. And finally, State's 16?

9 A. That's, once again, just a closer view of the same two 10 items.

11 Q. Thank you.

12 Now, you've mentioned that you had an opportunity to 13 speak with the victim?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Did you have an opportunity to take any kind of 16 statement from the victim?

17 A. Deputy Powell initiated a written statement. He asked
18 her if she would write one down for us. When she said she 19 would, Deputy Powell handed her the clipboard that had it
20 already on it, explained to her how to fill it out and how to 21 answer the questions and how to write a written statement in 22 her words.

23 As he handed it to her, I stood by and said -- told him
24 he can take care of his other things and I would handle the 25 written statement for him, so I witnessed her actually

1 writing the statement down and walked her through the rest of
2 that process. So he gave her the piece of paper but I helped 3 her fill it out.

4 Q. And I'm showing you what's been marked as State's
5 Exhibit 5. Do you recognize that?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 Q. And what does that appear to be?

8 A. This is a photocopy of that written statement that was 9 taken that evening or morning.

10 Q. Okay. And how do you know it's a copy of the original
11 statement?

12 A. I signed it. I looked at it several times. This is my
13 handwriting where I wrote the question and answer in a
14 certain portion of it, my handwriting as far as me witnessing
15 it, writing where the interview place was and signing that I
16 gave her the copy.

17 Q. Okay. Have you had an opportunity to read that 18 statement?

19 A. Not since then, no.

20 Q. Okay. Please take a moment and read that statement to 21 yourself.

22 Is that what you recall that evening?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Is this a fair and accurate representation of the 25 statement that was taken by you of her that evening?

1 A. Yes, sir.

2 MR. JUSTIS: At this time, Your Honor, the State would
3 offer State's 5 into evidence.

4 THE COURT: Any objection?

5 MR. WEHMAN: Your Honor, we would object. I would renew
6 my previous motion. Also, we would argue that foundation
7 hasn't been laid at this point. It's not consistent or 8 inconsistent.

9 THE COURT: Subject to your previous objection, your 10 objection's overruled.

11 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 Q. Deputy Strickland, could you --

13 MR. JUSTIS: May I publish for the jury, Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: You may.

15 Q. I don't know, Deputy, if you could read that or if I
16 have to do it kind of in sections.

17 A. I'm good there.

18 Q. Could you kind of tell us what we're looking at here?
19 Kind of start at the top of the page and go down.

20 A. This on the top right, this would be your case number.
21 This is what the case is filed under as far as the report,
22 incident, evidence. Anything that follows the case will stay
23 with this number.

24 This box that we have here, this entire square, it's 25 pretty much standardized information about themselves. It's

1 their name, their date of birth, their Social Security
2 number, information so that we could identify who it was that
3 took the statement. If we had to contact them, it has their
4 phone number and things like that, their employer address,
5 their driver's license, those type of things. It also 6 establishes the location of the interview, who it is taking
7 the statement, the department in which they represent.

8 The second line starting here states the actual person
9 that's giving it, once again, that they understand the 10 following and that to some degree, they've received some type
11 of education. It requires them to specify that education
12 type so we can determine whether we need to dictate certain
13 portions or they can actually read and write correctly.

14 Where it starts originally with these blank lines, from 15 here down is where they actually start their written
16 statement, which we explain to them to put in your own words
17 exactly how -- what events that happened and took place that 18 evening to the best of your ability. That's what's written 19 here.

20 Q. Okay. And that handwriting there where it starts that 21 kind of statement part, whose handwriting is that? Is that 22 your handwriting?

23 A. No, sir. That's Ms. Becky's.

24 Q. And can you read us what that paragraph says?

25 A. It says, "Ralph has been drinking for days. He has PTSD

1 and it" -- I believe it says, "under care at the VA in
2 Charleston." It's an abbreviation, "and continues to drink
3 although he is taking meds. He was in the bedroom all day,
4 and when he came out, he started slapping me and punching me.
5 Then he decided to tie me up and tie me with his fishing
6 string and was choking me when police come. He said he was 7 going to kill me."

8 Q. Okay. And after that portion, what's that next section
9 down there with the Q and all that?

10 A. This is what we reference as what's called question and 11 answer time. Sometimes we feel that in different parts of 12 the narrative, they leave out descriptions or things that 13 they have told us but not written down, things that they have 14 uttered out loud but for some reason didn't write it in the 15 actual statement. So we request if I write out an answer, I
16 will say it for you and ask you verbally, and then you write
17 the answer out for me, basically reminding them of what they
18 had previously stated and see if they will answer it for us.

19 So the Q would be my handwriting, and each one is where
20 I would verbally ask and then write it out, each statement.
21 Then the A is where she would write out the answer to that
22 statement in each one.

23 Q. And could you take us through that Q&A on that page?

24 A. My question was that the first one was, "Where did he 25 slap and punch you?" She responded with her answer was,

1 "Face, head and back."

2 The second question was, "How many different things did
3 he tie you up with?" The answer was, "A leash and twine."

4 The third question was, "How did he tie you up?" The 5 answer was, "First he tied my neck, then my hands and was 6 starting to tie my feet to -- when the police came to the 7 door."

8 Q. Okay. And then slide it up a little bit further. Could 9 you kind of explain what the bottom of the page is and 10 everything?

11 A. This is the date and time at which we finished the 12 statement. The top of the page is when we actually started,
13 so you can see the consistency of when the timeline of the 14 statement was actually taken. To my knowledge, there was 15 several minutes from when she actually started to complete
16 it. It took her a little bit to kind of finish it. She took 17 a little break in between. The -- and we were also speaking
18 with EMS, trying to wrap that up at the time as well.

19 This is Ms. Martin's signature here where she signs it.
20 It's also signifying that she's been given a copy and she's 21 read it, and also given two pages of it, which was right
22 here, signifying that. We have the witness signature, which 23 is mine, signifying that I witnessed it, and that's also my 24 badge number.

25 Q. And 146 is your badge number?

1 A. Correct.

2 Q. And on the second page, kind of take us through the
3 second page. Start in at the top.

4 A. What I usually do is I have the witness or the person
5 giving the statement sign it at the top just stating that
6 this is the second page of that statement as well. That's 7 why I have that. And it's a continuation of hers, which is 8 Ms. Martin.

9 These are the last two questions that I asked, which 10 was, "Did he say how he was going to kill you?" And the 11 answer was, "Choke me with the twine."

12 The other question was, "Did he prevent you from calling
13 law enforcement? It says, "He took my phone" -- and end of 14 statement. He -- this mark here was where I scratched
15 something out and I initiated above it so you can state that 16 I didn't try to change it, as well as here (indicating).
17 These are her initials above her scratch mark as well.

18 The end of statement is where we establish there isn't 19 anything left that she wanted to tell us. I always try to 20 ask, "Is there anything that you forgot? Is there anything
21 that you need to tell me further that you haven't told me
22 already that you need to write down?"

23 If they don't have anything further, I have them write
24 "end of statement" or usually "EN." Sometimes it's easier to 25 write that, which is right here.

1 The giant X and all these little marks here are the
2 initials of the person that gives that statement. The 3 purpose of this is so that I line through each line and have 4 them initial each individual block so that nothing can be
5 added by myself, another deputy or anyone else without them
6 being present and actually starting a new statement
7 altogether so that I can't change, alter or misrepresent
8 anything they've given me. And at the bottom I have them
9 sign it.

10 Q. Okay. Was that the extent of your involvement in this
11 case?

12 A. Yes, sir, that was pretty much it. I did see Mr. Ralph
13 in the hospital when I drove to the hospital to meet with 14 Deputy Powell. His laptop wasn't working, so I let him
15 borrow mine to do his report.

16 MR. JUSTIS: Okay. Beg the Court's indulgence.

17 No further questions. Please answer any questions
18 Mr. Wehman has.

19 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

20 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
21 Court.

22 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

23 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. WEHMAN:

24 Q. Good afternoon, Deputy.

25 A. Good afternoon.

1 Q. Okay. Now, you testified that you took these
2 photographs, correct?

3 A. Yes, sir.

4 Q. Now, let me show you what's been marked State's 18.
5 Now, is that an accurate depiction of what you saw when you
6 responded and took those photos?

7 A. Yes, sir.

8 Q. You said you noticed bruising?

9 A. Yes, sir.

10 Q. Let me show you what's been marked as State's 19.
11 That's also an accurate depiction of how the victim looked 12 when you arrived on scene?

13 A. Yes, sir.

14 Q. And what did you state you saw there?

15 A. There was bruising around the neck, the top and the 16 side. I know it's a little bit difficult to see because of 17 the back splash of the flash of light. Unfortunately we 18 don't have the best equipment when it comes to video cameras.

19 Q. Okay. But that's how she looked?

20 A. Yes, sir.

21 Q. And one more, State's 21. This is a zoomed-in shot of 22 her hands, correct?

23 A. Yes, sir.

24 Q. Did you transport Mr. Martin?

25 A. No, sir. Deputy Powell did.

1 Q. Okay. So he booked Mr. Martin when he was arrested?

2 A. Yes, sir.

3 Q. Okay. Let me ask you a question about the statement
4 that you took. Now, Ms. Martin told you in her statement
5 that Mr. Martin tied her, her neck, her hands and was 6 starting to tie her feet when the police came to the door,
7 correct?

8 A. Yes, sir.

9 Q. To a chair?

10 A. She didn't specify.

11 Q. But she was tied up when the police came to the door?

12 A. Not that I saw.

13 Q. Okay. But that's what she stated?

14 A. Yes, sir.

15 Q. Were you at the door when police made contact with her
16 initially?

17 A. No, sir. Deputy Powell had the door open prior to my 18 arrival.

19 MR. WEHMAN: Okay. Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

20 I have no further questions for this witness, Your 21 Honor.

22 THE COURT: Any further redirect?

23 MR. JUSTIS: No, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Counsel, please approach.

25 (Judge and attorneys confer.)

1 THE COURT: Ladies and gentleman of the jury, it's about
2 4:30, and I am certainly mindful that many of you don't live
3 very close by, so it's a good time for us to stop the 4 testimony to allow you time to get home in time in case you
5 have other obligations this evening. So we will conclude the 6 testimony for today and we'll resume the testimony tomorrow
7 morning.

8 If you could be back in your jury room between 9:30 and 9 9:45, that way we can get started right at 9:45, that should
10 allow you plenty of time to get to the courthouse and park
11 and get into your jury room.

12 Again, please remember my previous instructions not to 13 talk to anyone about the case or do any independent research
14 about the case or anything regarding the case or don't talk
15 to any family members, friends or anything of that sort.

16 Again, have a good night, and we will see you in the 17 morning.

18 (The jury retires to the jury room at 4:30 p.m.)

19 THE COURT: Officer Strickland, you may step down.

20 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Anything further before we adjourn for the 22 day?

23 MR. JUSTIS: Nothing from the State, Your Honor.

24 MR. WEHMAN: Nothing from the defense, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: We'll be adjourned until 9:30, 9:45.

1 (Trial of the case adjourned on February 10, 2015 at 2 4:30 p.m.)

3 - - -

4 (Trial of the case resumed on February 11, 2015 at 10:11
5 a.m.)

6 THE COURT: Parties ready to proceed?

7 MR. JUSTIS: State's ready, Your Honor.

8 MR. WEHMAN: Defense is ready, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Let's have our jury, please.

10 (The jury enters the courtroom at 10:12 a.m.)

11 THE COURT: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen of the 12 jury. I hope you had a pleasant evening.

13 Sir, what is your name on the end?

14 THE JUROR: Alan or William Abernethy.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Abernethy?

16 THE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: Since you've taken that seat the last couple
18 days, I'm going to appoint you as foreman.

19 THE JUROR: Okay. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: We will now proceed with the testimony in 21 the trial.

22 Solicitor, you may call your next witness.

23 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
24 Court.

25 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1 MR. JUSTIS: At this time, the State calls Deputy
2 Jarrod Powell.

3 JARROD VINCENT POWELL,
4 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

5 THE COURT: Your witness.

6 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, Your Honor, may it please the
7 Court.

8 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. JUSTIS:

10 Q. Deputy Powell, where do you work?

11 A. Dorchester County Sheriff's Office.

12 Q. And how long have you worked there?

13 A. I've been at Dorchester for two years.

14 Q. Okay. And how long have you been in law enforcement?

15 A. Almost 11.

16 Q. Okay. Where were you previous to Dorchester --

17 A. Sumter. Sumter Police Department in South Carolina.

18 Q. Okay. And what's your job title at the sheriff's 19 department?

20 A. I'm a deputy sheriff.

21 Q. And what are some of your responsibilities?

22 A. I enforce state and local or county ordinance, laws. I
23 also -- at the time, I was performing patrol duties. I was a
24 patrol officer, responded to calls for service, assisted the 25 public, enforce traffic laws and state criminal laws. I'm

1 currently assigned as a school resource officer in Dorchester
2 County.

3 Q. And did you happen to be on patrol back in July of 2014?

4 A. I was.

5 Q. Did you happen to respond in regards to a domestic
6 dispute on July 1st?

7 A. I did.

8 Q. And where did you respond to?

9 A.

10 Q. Okay. Is that in Summerville?

11 A. That's Summerville, Dorchester County, South Carolina.

12 Q. And do you remember approximately what time you
13 responded?

14 A. It was approximately 9:21 p.m.

15 Q. Okay. And when you responded to that location, what did
16 you observe when you arrived there?

17 A. I stepped out of my car. The call from dispatch was 18 that there was a -- unknown people were arguing. There was 19 some kind of disturbance at the corner of and

20 . That's in the subdivision. I

21 pulled up right at the corner of , right in front of

22 , got out and I heard a disturbance several seconds
23 after I got out of the car coming from inside the residence,

25 I stepped onto the yard so I can hear a little bit

1 better, see if I can hear, discern what was being said, and
2 as I got to the front porch, I heard a disturbance inside.

3 MR. WEHMAN: Objection, Your Honor, hearsay.

4 THE COURT: He hasn't said anything yet as to what was 5 said.

6 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Little premature.

8 THE WITNESS: As I stood up, I could hear -- at the 9 front porch, I could hear a woman very distinctively
10 screaming, she had very much appeared to be in distress from 11 inside the residence.

12 Q. Okay. I'm showing you what's been marked as State's
13 Exhibit 7. Do you recognize that?

14 A. I sure do.

15 Q. And what is that?

16 A. This is from my perspective where my patrol car was,
17 that is the front of the house,

18 Q. Thank you. And after you heard this female screaming,
19 what did you do next?

20 A. To the best of my recollection, I said -- I announced
21 who I was, sheriff's office, Dorchester County. And as soon
22 as I announced that, I heard a female scream to me very
23 distinctively, "Come in and help me."

24 MR. WEHMAN: Objection, Your Honor, hearsay.

25 MR. JUSTIS: Excited utterance, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Overruled.

2 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 Q. I'm showing you what's been marked as State's Exhibit 9.

4 Do you recognize that?

5 A. Yes. That's where I was standing on the porch, right
6 behind the door, the front door -- or in front of the door.

7 I'm sorry.

8 Q. After hearing that comment, what did you do next?

9 A. I -- because of the disturbance going on inside the 10 residence, I did not know what was going on inside, except I
11 was very sure there was a disturbance. And with the woman
12 screaming, "Come help me," very frantically, I got on my radio
13 just like this radio right here and I said to my dispatcher,
14 "Please give me the channel," which means the frequency that 15 we were on, give me priority so that she can hear me in case
16 I have to escalate my action, okay.

17 And I also asked Deputy Strickland, who was en route to 18 assist me, to pick up his response, which means come a little 19 faster, because I didn't know what I was getting into, which 20 was why I delayed entry, because I didn't know what was 21 waiting behind me, behind the door.

22 Q. At some point in time, did you actually enter the home?

23 A. I did. I -- after I announced that to the dispatcher, I
24 knocked again, said, "Ma'am, can you hear me?"

25 And I believe I heard her say, "Come in."

1 So I went to open the door, and she had -- Ms. Martin
2 had already opened it before I had a chance to put my hand on 3 the knob, she actually opened the door, and I could see into 4 the house.

5 Q. And when Ms. Martin opened the door, what did you
6 observe?

7 A. I immediately observed Ms. Martin standing in the 8 doorway. About 20 feet, approximately 20 feet behind her
9 standing in the front room facing the opposite direction
10 towards the TV was Mr. Martin, the defendant.

11 I saw immediately Ms. Martin was in distress. She was 12 sweating; she was breathing heavily; and she had a very 13 distinctive red mark on the side of her neck right back here
14 (indicating). It appeared to me that there was some kind of 15 confrontation and she had sustained injury.

16 Q. What did you do at that point when you observed that?

17 A. I took a step into the residence so I could get closer
18 to him and kind of be between her and him, okay, Mr. Martin
19 and Ms. Martin. And she had told me -- she just 20 spontaneously uttered, "He has been trying to kill me all 21 day. He" --

22 MR. WEHMAN: Objection, Your Honor, hearsay.

23 THE COURT: Sustained.

24 THE WITNESS: And what I did was I approached Mr. Martin
25 and I placed handcuffs on him and I detained him.

1 Q. Okay. What happened after you detained Mr. Martin?

2 A. I removed him from the residence.

3 Q. At some point did Deputy Strickland arrive?

4 A. He did.

5 Q. And approximately when did Deputy Strickland arrive?

6 A. I want to say right at a minute, no more than a minute.

7 Q. And after detaining Mr. Martin, what did you do next?

8 A. I did -- what I did was I left the residence for a brief
9 moment. I took Mr. Martin with me to the car and I placed
10 him in the back of my car.

11 Q. And why did you place him in the back of your car?

12 A. When we detain people, we usually don't like to keep
13 them in the middle of the situation. If we're trying to talk
14 to the victim, the alleged victim at the time and get her
15 side of the story, we don't want cross fire. We don't want
16 the suspect, you know, shouting at her or we don't want the 17 victim to feel intimidated by the suspect being there. So we 18 put, usually put them in the car for the moment.

19 Q. Okay. Was there some point where EMS was contacted?

20 A. Yes. I radioed to my dispatcher to have EMS come,
21 Dorchester County EMS come to the house.

22 Q. And why did you ask your dispatch to do that?

23 A. Because what was advised to me but also what I observed.
24 I observed the injury, like I said, to her neck. I also saw
25 around her wrist what appeared to be striations from unknown

1 object at the time.

2 Q. Okay. I'm showing you what's been marked as State's 17,
3 18, 19, 20 and 21. Can you identify those?

4 A. I can.

5 Q. And what are they?

6 A. No. 17 is a picture of Ms. Martin and her face and
7 the -- what I saw, the injury to her mouth, apparent injury
8 to her mouth with the blood.

9 This is No. 18. This is a view of her neck where you
10 can see the manifestation of the injury that I saw 11 immediately when I walked in the door or when she opened the 12 door.

13 No. 19 is just a -- it shows more of the back of her
14 neck and the right side of her neck, again, where I mentioned
15 where I saw the injury when she opened the door.

16 This one is her standing. This is No. 20, her standing
17 up and where you can see what I described were striations
18 around her right wrist and a little bit of her left wrist.

19 This is No. 21. This is a close-up shot of her wrists,
20 and you can see it more clearly, all the striations on both
21 of her wrists.

22 Q. Now, while you were there that evening, did you collect
23 any items of evidence?

24 A. I did.

25 Q. And what did you collect from the residence?

1 A. I collected a blue dog leash and I collected a roll of 2 twine.

3 Q. I'm showing you what's been marked as State's Exhibit
4 No. 2. Do you recognize this?

5 A. I do.

6 Q. And what is that?

7 A. This is the roll of twine that I seized from the 8 residence that night.

9 Q. And how can you tell you seized that roll of twine?

10 A. This -- by the feeling of it and the appearance, I know
11 for a fact that this is what I had seized. This was also -- 12 this was present on the scene -- at the scene when I was 13 there.

14 Q. And when you collected that item, what did you do with 15 that? How did you collect it?

16 A. I immediately placed it in a bag that appears -- that 17 looks -- that's what you see here (indicating), and I marked
18 it. I notated it, completed a chain of custody form and 19 attached it with it so I could submit it into evidence.

20 Q. Okay. And then what did you do with that item after you
21 put it in a bag and identified it? What did you actually do
22 with it?

23 A. After -- after -- and I forgot to mention,
24 Deputy Strickland took a picture of it before I actually put 25 it in the bag, but once I put it in the bag, I placed it in

1 the back of my patrol car in a secure location so nobody can
2 manipulate it.

3 MR. JUSTIS: At this time the State would offer
4 State's 2 into evidence.

5 THE COURT: Any objection?

6 MR. WEHMAN: No objection, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: State's 2.

8 (State's Exhibit 2 admitted into evidence.)

9 Q. Deputy, I'm showing you what's been marked as State's 10 Exhibit 1. Do you recognize this?

11 A. I do.

12 Q. And what does that appear to be?

13 A. This is the blue dog leash that I just mentioned that 14 was also taken from the scene on the floor. After it was --
15 after the photograph was taken by Deputy Strickland, I did
16 the same thing as I did with the twine; I put it in a bag
17 that resembled this and I notated it as evidence and I
18 secured it in the back of my patrol car so it could not be 19 manipulated.

20 Q. And after you put it in the back of your patrol vehicle,
21 what did you do with those two pieces of items or evidence?

22 A. When I -- after the arrest was made and it was
23 transported to the jail facility in Dorchester County, I
24 placed it into our evidence with a chain of custody form at 25 the sheriff's office,

1 MR. JUSTIS: At this time the State would offer
2 State's 1 into evidence.

3 THE COURT: Any objection?

4 MR. WEHMAN: No objection, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: It's in.

6 (State's Exhibit 1 admitted into evidence.)

7 Q. Now, when you arrived at the residence, who was at the 8 residence, how many individuals?

9 A. Aside from myself, there was Ms. Martin and the 10 defendant, Ralph Martin.

11 Q. At some point in time, did you have an opportunity to 12 interview the victim in the case?

13 A. I did.

14 Q. Okay. And are you aware of whether or not she wrote a
15 statement?

16 A. Yes. I started her on a statement, and
17 Deputy Strickland did complete or allow her to complete it
18 while he remained on scene.

19 Q. Deputy, is your car -- is your patrol vehicle equipped
20 with an in-car camera?

21 A. It is.

22 Q. And how does that system work?

23 A. Any call that we're on, we are required by policy to 24 have the camera we have -- we carry a body mic on our person
25 so it can record audio, what we're saying and what's going

1 on. We're required by policy to carry those and have them on
2 at all times when we're on calls, just as I had on that
3 night.

4 Q. Okay. So you were wearing a body mic that night?

5 A. I was.

6 Q. And did you have that body mic activated that night when
7 you responded to this call?

8 A. I did.

9 Q. And was there -- was there a recording made of, I guess,
10 your investigation of this situation that night?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. At this time I'm showing you what's been marked as 13 State's Exhibit 4. Do you recognize that?

14 A. Yes. It is the CDR recording of my body mic from that
15 night.

16 Q. Okay. Could you explain, I guess, how that DVD gets 17 made?

18 A. When we make an arrest, we obviously have a body mic
19 recording, or we should, by policy, as I did there, and I
20 submit a form to a special person that works for our agency
21 to save the video. She gets our body mic recordings and she 22 periodically goes through them, but what we do is we put a
23 priority on it in writing, and they retrieve that and they 24 put it on a disc like the one I just identified, and they put 25 it into evidence.

1 Q. And on this, have you had the opportunity to view this
2 particular DVD?

3 A. Yes.

4 Q. Since it was made?

5 A. Yes, I have.

6 Q. And prior to testimony today?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. Is it a fair and accurate representation of the events
9 of that evening?

10 A. It is.

11 Q. Okay. Now, you talked about your camera in the car. So
12 can you describe a little bit what would be on that video as 13 far as, like, what would the video be of?

14 A. You're going to -- the video does not travel with us
15 like the cam, like the audio does, the mic. So you would see
16 the cruiser, the point of view of the front of the cruiser,
17 the way it's facing. You'll hear, but you won't see because 18 it doesn't come with us. It's not like a body camera.

19 Q. Okay. But the actual audio is -- it comes through a mic
20 that you wear on your person?

21 A. That's correct. That's correct.

22 MR. JUSTIS: At this time the State would offer
23 State's 4 into evidence.

24 THE COURT: Except as to your previous objections?

25 MR. WEHMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

2 (State's Exhibit 4 admitted into evidence.)

3 Q. Deputy Powell, when you reviewed this DVD and the audio
4 on this DVD, did it include statements from the victim about
5 what occurred that evening?

6 A. Yes, sir.

7 MR. JUSTIS: At this time, Your Honor, the State would
8 ask to publish those selected portions of the video that was 9 previously discussed between the attorneys.

10 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

11 MR. JUSTIS: And, Your Honor, just for the record, we 12 have a duplicate copy of this that the attorneys have heard
13 that we're going to use that. It's already cued up for those 14 portions.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 (Audio played.)

17 MR. JUSTIS: No further questions.

18 THE COURT: Cross-examination.

19 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor, may it please the
20 Court.

21 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. WEHMAN:

23 Q. Good morning, Deputy. How are you?

24 A. Good morning. Good. You?

25 Q. Doing well.

1 When you responded to the Martins' household, it was
2 your testimony that Ms. Martin opened the door, correct?

3 A. She did open the door.

4 Q. And she let you in?

5 A. She allowed me to come in the residence, yes.

6 Q. So when you came in, she was not tied up?

7 A. At that time she was not tied up.

8 Q. Now, you stated --

9 MR. WEHMAN: May I approach the witness, Your Honor?

10 THE COURT: You may.

11 Q. You stated that you took a look at this picture?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And that represented the -- that shows the blood that 14 you saw that night, correct?

15 A. On the mouth.

16 Q. Okay. Was it dry when you saw it?

17 A. It appeared so, yes.

18 Q. Now, did you book Mr. Martin?

19 A. I did.

20 Q. Do you have a copy of your booking sheet with you?

21 A. I believe we -- I don't have it with me right here, but 22 one has been made, yes.

23 Q. Okay. Do you --

24 MR. WEHMAN: Court's indulgence, Your Honor.

25 May I approach the witness, Your Honor?

1 THE COURT: You may.

2 Q. Is this a copy of the booking sheet?

3 A. It appears so, yes.

4 Q. Okay. Does it have listed Mr. Martin's height and 5 weight on that sheet?

6 A. Yes, it appears so.

7 Q. Could you read that to me?

8 A. It says six-four, 250.

9 Q. Okay. Now, the things that we heard, those were all of 10 Ms. Martin after this incident took place, correct?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. You did not see any assault while you were there?

13 A. I did not witness any assault take place.

14 Q. And the injuries that are captured on these photographs
15 that the solicitor showed you and you looked at, do those 16 accurately depict what you saw?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Were there any other injuries on her arms other than 19 what you testified to? Anything else? Any other injuries
20 that are not captured?

21 A. Not to my recollection.

22 MR. WEHMAN: Your Honor, I have no further questions for 23 this witness.

24 THE COURT: Any redirect?

25 MR. JUSTIS: No redirect, Your Honor.

1 THE COURT: You may step down, sir, thank you.

2 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: You may call your next witness.

4 MR. JUSTIS: At this time the State's rests, Your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, at this time we'll 6 take a very brief recess and give you an opportunity to just 7 use the restroom or whatever. We'll be back with you in 8 about ten minutes.

9 (The jury retires to the jury room at 10:34 a.m.)

10 THE COURT: Any motions at this time?

11 MR. LOY: Yes, Your Honor. Your Honor, at this point in 12 time the defense would move for a directed verdict on the 13 grounds that the evidence that's been presented is not
14 credible enough or consistent enough to convince a reasonable
15 and impartial jury of guilt of the defendant beyond a
16 reasonable doubt.

17 The burden, I know, is relatively slight at this point,
18 that is, burden on the State to put forward credible evidence
19 such as could sustain a verdict. And, I mean, the State
20 always wants to argue, well, is there any evidence at all,
21 and I don't think that's the burden. I think the question is 22 whether or not there's any credible evidence or enough
23 credible evidence that would support a conviction.

24 And in this case, the testimony appears inconsistent in 25 that there are allegations Ms. Martin was tied up. She says

1 at one point, the State contends, she was tied up. The
2 officer says, "When I got there, she's the one who opened the 3 door." Her own testimony was that "These things that they
4 claim I was tied up with were just so loose they were wrapped
5 around me. I just pulled them off and set them aside
6 myself."

7 Her testimony further was that, "I didn't" -- her live
8 testimony, "I didn't feel threatened. I didn't feel like I
9 was going to be hurt or endangered. He's a good man," I
10 think is a quote. "He wouldn't hurt me. I know that he 11 wouldn't have hurt me." Then the inconsistencies with what 12 you hear here today. I think that -- that is on this audio
13 tape that's presented. I think that without any other real 14 indicia, evidence of a physical assault, which there's just 15 not, no one saw it.

16 You've heard testimony that Mr. Martin is 6 foot 4,
17 250 pounds. I think the Court could take judicial notice
18 that Ms. Martin is obviously a much smaller person, that she 19 had difficulty coming in and out of the courtroom. I noticed
20 a couple of times when people reached out to her because she 21 moved slowly and indicates she has diabetes and her health is 22 not good.

23 The idea that Mr. Martin has been, as was attributed to 24 him, punching her, hitting her, etc., and produced no other 25 injury than what is shown on the photographs that have been

1 introduced, and there's at least an argument that they --
2 that they don't show anything other than a spot on her lip,
3 which she says she has bad teeth from diabetes and that's
4 self-inflicted. That's just something that occurs.

5 But there's certainly not black eyes, broken bones,
6 fractured orbital sockets, bruises up and down or anything to 7 support the contention that she has suffered some sort of 8 severe assault or beating at the hands of Mr. Martin or 9 anyone else.

10 As a matter of fact, when she comes in here today or 11 yesterday, would today if she had the opportunity, and 12 completely disavows that this has occurred or that this is a
13 problem with her, I simply think it's an abuse of discretion
14 to allow it to go forward to the jury. So based on those 15 things, I'd ask you to enter a verdict of -- or direct a
16 verdict of not guilty.

17 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Loy.
18 Solicitor.

19 MR. JUSTIS: Your Honor, I would say, and as Mr. Loy
20 said, there's clearly evidence of some injuries. We've had 21 testimony to that. The officer, both officers and the EMT
22 saw injuries, so they did see some -- what they determined to 23 be some fresh injuries. Some of the blood they did say was 24 dry.

25 But according to the statute, there doesn't even have to

1 be a battery. You heard from her, from the body mic
2 testimony, that she said, "He was trying to kill me. He was
3 beating the shit out of me all day." She says that right on 4 there.

5 So I think that is a question for the jury to determine
6 her credibility. That's their job to do that. They are the 7 judge of the facts. It's their job to judge credibility of 8 witnesses, and they can do that.

9 So there doesn't even have to be a battery, even if you
10 conceded the fact that he didn't hit her, just the fear that 11 she was in, evidenced by her statement, which she agreed to.
12 That's her signature. That's her handwriting. And then the 13 statement she made to law enforcement and to the EMT, the 14 statements for medical diagnosis and then the excited
15 utterances, we would say that there's more than enough
16 evidence to make it a jury question.

17 THE COURT: Mr. Loy, at this juncture of the trial, as 18 you're well aware, the Court is concerned with existence or 19 nonexistence of evidence, not the weight of it, and there has 20 been evidence submitted as to each element of the offense of 21 criminal domestic violence, high and aggravated nature, and 22 your motion will be respectfully denied.

23 MR. LOY: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Thank you. Does your client intend on 25 testifying.

1 MR. WEHMAN: Your Honor, if we can have a moment to
2 speak with him.

3 THE COURT: Sure.

4 (Counsel confers with Defendant.)

5 MR. LOY: Your Honor, would you like to address the 6 defendant?

7 THE COURT: Mr. Martin, if you would please stand and be
8 sworn, please.

9 RALPH WAYNE MARTIN,
10 being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

11 THE COURT: Mr. Martin, at this time I'm going to 12 explain to you certain of your rights. If you do not
13 understand anything that I say, please let me know. If you 14 want me to explain anything in more detail, also please let 15 me know. Do you understand?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, ma'am.

17 THE COURT: We have reached the stage of the trial where 18 you may present your defense. You have the right to claim
19 the protections given to you by the Fifth Amendment of the 20 Constitution of the United States. This amendment states in 21 part that no person shall be compelled in any criminal case
22 to be a witness against himself. This means that you cannot 23 be required to testify in this case. You have the right to 24 testify on your own behalf; however, no one can make you
25 testify. This is a personal right and no one can waive this

1 right except for you.

2 If you decide to testify, you will be subject to the 3 same rules that govern other witnesses, and you may be
4 examined and cross-examined on any relevant issue in this
5 case.

6 In addition, if you have any convictions involving 7 dishonesty or false statement or for crimes punishable for 8 more than one year and the Court determines that the 9 probative value of admitting this evidence outweighs the 10 prejudicial effect to you, the solicitor will be able to 11 introduce your record and attack your credibility.

12 If you decide to testify, this decision on your part
13 must be freely, voluntarily and intelligently made with the 14 knowledge of the protections given to you by the Fifth
15 Amendment and the consequences of your decision to testify.

16 If you decide not to testify, I will instruct the jurors
17 that they cannot give the fact that you did not testify any 18 consideration whatsoever and that there is to be absolutely
19 no prejudice to you because you did not testify. It's left
20 entirely up to you whether or not you want to testify.

21 You may talk with your attorney, your family, your
22 friends or anyone else, but the final decision must be yours,
23 and it's left entirely up to you. Do you understand what
24 I've explained to you?

25 THE DEFENDANT: I understand, yes, ma'am.

1 THE COURT: Do you have any questions about what I've
2 explained to you?

3 THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

4 THE COURT: Have you discussed with your lawyers whether
5 or not you should testify?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have.

7 THE COURT: Do you wish to talk with your lawyers any
8 more at this time?

9 THE DEFENDANT: No. My attorneys -- I would like to 10 speak to my wife.

11 MR. LOY: No.

12 He said he'd like to speak to his wife.

13 It's not appropriate at this time. You can't do that.

14 THE DEFENDANT: Okay. I don't know about this --

15 THE COURT: You don't need to speak to your attorneys at 16 this time any further?

17 THE DEFENDANT: No. No, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: Do you wish to testify?

19 THE DEFENDANT: No, ma'am.

20 THE COURT: All right, sir, thank you. You may have a 21 seat.

22 Mr. Wehman, do you intend on introducing any witnesses?
23 Do you just wish to rest in front of the jury?

24 MR. WEHMAN: That's correct, Your Honor. We'd like to 25 rest.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Do you all need a quick break before
2 we go into closing and the jury instructions or are you all
3 okay?

4 Mr. Loy, do you need a break?

5 MR. LOY: No, thank you, Your Honor. I'm good. Thank
6 you, though.

7 MR. JUSTIS: The state's fine, Your Honor.

8 MR. WEHMAN: We're fine, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. So we'll allow you to rest in 10 front of the jury, then we'll proceed with the jury
11 instructions and closing arguments.

12 (The jury enters the courtroom at 10:46 a.m.)

13 THE COURT: Welcome back, ladies and gentleman of the 14 jury.

15 MR. WEHMAN: Your Honor, at this time the defense rests.

16 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, at this 17 point both sides have rested their case and it's now time to 18 proceed with closing arguments of counsel. And please pay
19 close attention, as we will now proceed.

20 Solicitor.

21 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, Your Honor, may it please the
22 Court.

23 "Come in and help me," that's what Becky Martin told
24 Deputy Powell when he knocked on the door. That's what 25 Mr. Ward told you in his opening statement. That's what she

1 said seven months ago, and I submit to you that's what she
2 said yesterday to everyone, "Help me," when she testified.

3 Now, I'm going to talk just briefly about the applicable
4 law in this case. First of all, the judge is going to charge
5 you on the law, and if anything I say contradicts what the 6 judge instructs you, follow what the judge tells you. She's
7 the judge of the law. But you're going to have two options,
8 two particular crimes that you're going to look at, and you
9 can find him guilty or not guilty of either/or or not guilty
10 of both.

11 The first one is criminal domestic violence, all right,
12 which states when a person causes physical harm or injury to 13 a person's own household member or offers or attempts to 14 cause physical harm or injury to a person's own household
15 member with the apparent present ability under circumstances
16 reasonably creating fear of imminent peril.

17 So if Mr. Ward's my wife and I say, "I'm going to punch 18 you," do I have the ability to carry that threat out from 19 here? No. If I'm right here and I say, "I'm going to punch 20 you," did I put him in imminent peril? That's what the 21 second one means.

22 The first one's pretty clear. You caused physical harm
23 or injury. The second one says you offer or attempt to, but 24 you have to be able to carry it out, imminently. Not "I'm 25 going to kill you tomorrow."

1 Criminal domestic violence of a high and aggravated
2 nature. That's what the defendant's indicted for. That's
3 criminal domestic violence, which I just talked about, but it
4 has to have an aggravating circumstance, okay, and there's 5 two possibilities.

6 The first one is an assault and battery, which involves
7 the use of a deadly weapon or results in serious bodily
8 injury to the victim; or the second one, which I would 9 contend is appropriate here, an assault, with or without the 10 accompanying battery. In other words, you don't have to have 11 an injury, which would reasonably cause a person to fear
12 imminent serious bodily injury or death. "He was going to 13 kill me. He was choking me."

14 Now, what us lawyers say is not evidence. The only
15 evidence in this case is what you heard from that witness
16 stand and physical evidence that's introduced. What I say,
17 what Mr. Wehman says is not evidence. We make arguments, we 18 don't introduce evidence. This is the evidence and what you
19 heard from that witness stand is the evidence in the case.

20 And what did you hear? What's the evidence in this
21 case? Well, Ms. Martin took the stand, and what did she tell
22 us? If I had to sum it up, she doesn't remember much.
23 That's what she told us. She does remember some things, she 24 remembers leashes and twine, okay. She knew what this was 25 (indicating), and she puts it in his hands that night.

1 She tells us about twine that he put around her wrist.
2 You'll have this back there (indicating). Puts that around
3 her wrists. And when you look at the pictures, and they're 4 really -- when you put them on that machine, it kind of 5 whites it out a little bit.

6 You can see the marks in her wrist, right there
7 (indicating). They show up real nice in the picture. And
8 you'll have these pictures back there. You can look at them.
9 In fact, you can even see them from that far distance. Those
10 are indentions in her wrists. She testifies it was loose.
11 Is that reasonable to believe they were loose when it made
12 indentions in her skin? (Indicating.)

13 But she admits this was on her wrist. And why? She 14 says that he was trying to confine her. That's the word she 15 used. Why? Well, she says he was drinking that night; he 16 suffers from PTSD; and he was just crazy that have night.
17 That's why she tried to leave the house, because she was 18 scared. She said that, "I was scared."

19 "Why did you leave the house?"

20 "I was scared."

21 "I was scared." Reasonably cause a person to fear.
22 Fear, imminent serious bodily injury or death. And when 23 police arrive, you know, what did Deputy Powell tell you?
24 Distinct red mark.

25 Well, if you look at the pictures again, sometimes

1 technology isn't the greatest thing. Red mark (indicating),
2 okay. You can see it in that picture. You'll have these
3 back there. This is just another angle from the front. Red
4 mark. And when you look at that, doesn't look like that
5 string. But (indicating) maybe a leash.

6 The question is why is he putting twine around her
7 wrists? Is that reasonable? Is that a reasonable thing?
8 And she runs out, and she goes outside, that's where she's 9 hollering. The neighbor hears her. Neighbor calls 911. And 10 what do police find in the driveway? Her cell phone battery,
11 her cell phone battery in the driveway. She didn't call 911.
12 The neighbor did.

13 I would submit to you she couldn't call 911 because the 14 phone wasn't in -- the battery wasn't in her phone. She told 15 three different people the night of the incident all these 16 other things. And those three people, the two deputies, the 17 EMT, they came. They testified.

18 The EMT talked about, you know, her chief complaint.
19 What was her chief complaint? Head and neck pain. Head and 20 neck pain.

21 The officers took a written statement from her that 22 night. Deputy Strickland, he talked about that. Here's the 23 statement. It's in evidence. You can read it. She states,
24 "Been drinking all day. When he came out, he started
25 slapping me and punching me. Slapping me and punching me.

1 Then he decided to tie me up." She testified to that, "And
2 he tied me up with fishing string," she testified to that,
3 "and was choking me."

4 "Choking me," would reasonably cause a person to fear
5 imminent serious bodily injury or death. If someone's
6 choking you, would it be reasonable to fear serious bodily
7 injury or death? They're choking you.

8 Then the officer asks, "Where did he slap and punch
9 you?"

10 "Face, head and back. Used the leash and twine, tied my 11 neck, then my hands and was starting to tie my feet when the 12 police came to the door."

13 "Did he say how he was going to kill you?"

14 She said, "Choke me with the twine."

15 "Did he prevent you from calling law enforcement?"

16 "Yes, he took my phone."

17 And what did we find on the sidewalk? The battery from 18 the phone. Okay.

19 But if that's not enough, Deputy Powell had his mic on 20 that happen night, okay, and he, you know, recorded
21 everything that was going on. And you heard those tidbits.
22 I'm going to play them again for you here in a second, but
23 there's four little tidbits.

24 The first one, she's heard saying, "He's been trying to 25 kill me all day." All day. Hence the dried blood, okay.

1 Hence the dried blood.

2 "He beat the shit out of me. He tried to choke me to
3 death." Reasonably cause a person to fear imminent serious
4 bodily injury or death.

5 "He's got to go. He's got to go." That's what she said
6 in her own words.

7 The next -- and can we play that? Play that little
8 first snippet.

9 (Audio played.)

10 MR. JUSTIS: Then she says, few minutes later, she says.

11 "He tried to kill me tonight. You all got here just in 12 time."

13 Play that clip.

14 (Audio played.)

15 MR. JUSTIS: And then she says again, little while 16 later, "He tried to kill me tonight."

17 (Audio played.)

18 MR. JUSTIS: And then finally, the officer asks her,

19 "Did you lose consciousness at any time, ma'am?"

20 And she says, "Slightly, yes."

21 "At what point?"

22 And she says, "When he punched me." And then she goes
23 on to say, "He hit me on top of the head, just everywhere.

24 (Audio played.)

25 MR. JUSTIS: That's her words, okay. And that is the

1 night of the incident. The night of the incident. An
2 assault, with or without the accompanying battery, which
3 would reasonably cause a person to fear imminent serious
4 bodily injury or death. Doesn't matter if she's scared today
5 or yesterday. The question is was she scared on July 1st,
6 2014. It's her own words.

7 Now, as I mentioned, lawyers, we make assertions. What
8 I call assertions. It's not evidence; it's assertions. Now,
9 the defense asked Deputy Powell about the size of the 10 defendant, six-four, 250. I can only assume that, you know,
11 someone that big, you know, if he hit her, he would have 12 really -- as frail as she is, really hurt her.

13 But remember what she said: He was drunk. He was 14 drunk, you know, just out of his head, according to her.
15 Drunk people don't always make the best fighters.

16 So you've got her written statement made that night,
17 written by her, signed by her that she acknowledges, "That's 18 my handwriting. That's my signature, but I don't remember,"
19 okay. Then we have the oral statements that were recorded
20 that are her saying basically the same thing. Then all of a
21 sudden in Court, "I don't remember."

22 Why? Why would she testify that way? Maybe she doesn't
23 remember. Maybe those blows to the head did affect her
24 memory. People lose memory. Maybe that is the case. Or 25 maybe -- maybe she's so scared of him that she doesn't want

1 to be held responsible for helping to get him convicted. So
2 you come into Court and say, "I don't remember," because if
3 it didn't happen, just say it didn't happen. If it didn't
4 happen, just say it didn't happen. Don't say, "I don't
5 remember." It was seven months ago, not seven years ago.

6 You know, the thing about witnesses, and the Judge will
7 tell you this: You're the judges of the facts. And one of 8 the things the judge will instruct you on is the credibility
9 of witnesses. And the judge will tell you that as the judge
10 of the facts, you have a wide latitude to determine people's 11 credibility.

12 And that's why jurors, you come from different walks of 13 life, but we all determine and judge credibility every day.
14 When someone tells you something, whether it's your wife,
15 your husband, your kids, your friends, your relatives, your 16 enemies, you're constantly evaluating, "Do I believe them,
17 yes or no?" And the judge will tell you that. The judge
18 will tell you about factors to consider when you're judging
19 credibility.

20 And the judge will tell you that you have, as the 21 finders of fact, you have the right as a juror to believe the 22 entirety of someone's testimony, all of it, or you have the 23 ability to reject the entirety of someone's testimony, or you
24 have the ability to accept part and reject part of someone's
25 testimony. You can believe one person over many or many over

1 one. The Judge will tell you this.

2 So when you look at witnesses and their testimony,
3 you're going to evaluate their credibility. Do witnesses
4 lie? Sometimes. Sure. We're human beings. Pictures don't 5 lie, okay, because pictures, kind of like audio tape, it just
6 records what's there. There's no bias.

7 So when you look at it, okay, it just records what it
8 looked like that night. A picture can't lie. We might not
9 like what we see in a picture. I don't think anybody likes
10 their driver's license photo, but the picture just takes 11 what's there, okay.

12 And you know there's an old saying that says a picture
13 is worth a thousand words. Well, ladies and gentlemen, I
14 submit to you that these pictures right here, they're worth
15 one word, and that's guilty. Thank you.

16 THE COURT: Mr. Wehman.

17 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
18 Court.

19 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

20 MR. WEHMAN: Solicitor Ward, Solicitor Justis.

21 Good morning. You made it to the end of this trial.
22 Now, the solicitor has painted a very good picture for you.
23 Unfortunately, that picture has holes. He tells you that you
24 need to look at all the evidence. He tells you to listen to 25 this video, the audio clips that were played. He wants you

1 to take a look at this statement. It will be back in the 2 jury room with you. It's in evidence. You can look at it.
3 However, he wants you to consider to discredit what the
4 victim, Becky Martin, said on that witness stand.

5 Now, the State has a burden. Mr. Martin doesn't have a
6 burden. He's an innocent man sitting there until you, the 7 jury, come back and find him guilty. And it's guilty beyond
8 a reasonable doubt. A reasonable doubt. Something that 9 would cause a reasonable person to pause.

10 One person testified during this entire trial that knew
11 what happened, that saw what happened, that was there:
12 Becky Martin.

13 The State put up on the screen the elements of a couple
14 of crimes, criminal domestic violence of a high and 15 aggravated nature, and a key element of that, one is serious
16 bodily injury. I would argue, when you go back to your jury
17 room, and you'll have these pictures and you can look at 18 them, this is not serious bodily injury. Not serious bodily
19 injury, I would argue.

20 However, there is another section of that statute that
21 allows if you would find a person would reasonably fear.
22 Now, they put a witness on that stand who was there during
23 the entire incident. She told you and the entire courtroom
24 that she did not fear that man right there. In fact, she 25 said a lot of things. She said, "He's a good man. I'm not

1 afraid of him." This is his wife of 46 years. "I'm not
2 afraid of him." She admitted that she had an anxiety
3 disorder.

4 When you hear the video, you hear the audio, what you
5 hear that night is someone who is in distress. There was an
6 argument. I'm sure there was an argument. She was in 7 distress. She has an anxiety disorder. She didn't call the 8 police. The police were called for her.

9 There's mention -- you'll see a picture of a battery, a
10 cell phone battery, is that their only phone? Is that from 11 her cell phone? We don't know. But it's a battery. It's in 12 their yard. They want to say that she had no ability to call
13 911. Did she tell you she had no ability? No, she did not.

14 She said that he has PTSD and needs help, needs help.
15 That's what she said.

16 She laughed at the very idea that the dog leash would 17 even fit around her neck. And I would encourage you to take 18 a look at these. I mean, take a look at the photos. Could 19 this cause that (indicating)? Possibly. Is it definitive
20 that this caused that? Can you even make out what the injury
21 is? Take a look. You'll have them.

22 Now, aside of Ms. Martin, there were a lot of other
23 witnesses that testified, all of which were put up to 24 discredit her testimony. You heard Deputy Strickland. He 25 came up. He told you how a statement is taken, how they make

1 statements. During that statement, she was in her home. She
2 had the opportunity to write down everything she wanted to.
3 He asked some questions to clear some things up.

4 She was not sitting in a chair, did not swear an oath to
5 tell the truth, but she made a statement to him. He didn't
6 see anything. He can only tell you what she told him, which
7 is great, if she's telling the truth. Fortunately she came
8 in today or yesterday -- I'm sorry, sat there and told you
9 what she told him was not true.

10 She discredited her entire original story. She told you
11 a new story. And there was mention that she came in and told 12 that story to me in my office. She did. She came in and 13 told me that story.

14 EMS was called up. And through the EMS officer, you
15 heard she did not lose consciousness. She told them, "I did 16 not lose consciousness." The indictment you heard at the 17 beginning of the trial pointed out that she did, caused her
18 to lose consciousness, as part of the facts to support the 19 CDV HAN warrant. She told you she didn't lose consciousness
20 or at least didn't complain to the EMS attendant that was 21 there at that time that she did.

22 You also heard from Deputy Powell the victim answered
23 the door, opened the door, let him in. Again, a picture was 24 painted of a woman bound, in fear for her life. She answered
25 the door. She had marks on her hands. She admits, she got

1 on the stand and told you, yes, she had rope tied around her
2 hands. She answered the door.

3 You saw her try to get back to that -- the gallery. She
4 had a hard time moving. Whatever was around her, she got up
5 and answered the door.

6 We heard from the Deputy who booked him Ralph Martin is 7 6 foot 4 inches, 250 pounds. We also heard in the audio that
8 "He was slapping and punching me all over." 6 foot 4,
9 250 pounds, "Trying to kill me all day." The solicitor made
10 mention that drunk people might not make the best fighters,
11 but he is 6 foot 4 and 250 pounds, had a woman, according to 12 her initial statement, tied up, hitting her on top of the 13 head.

14 You can look at the pictures. Her arms are there. Her
15 head, her face. If a man that large was slapping and hitting
16 her all day, would there be more than what is shown there? I
17 submit to you that there would.

18 Reasonable doubt. The judge is going to charge you on 19 reasonable doubt. What could be more reasonable? What could 20 cause you to pause than the very person whom my client
21 Ralph Martin was alleged to have committed criminal domestic 22 violence against telling you, "I lied. I lied. The 23 statement I gave that night, not true. This is what 24 happened."

25 He wants to say that she can't remember. She was

1 provided with the affidavit that she signed, and she almost
2 said, "I don't remember what's in that."

3 He said, "Do you want to review it?"

4 She put it down, said, "I don't need that because I know
5 what happened. Do I remember what I said that night? No,
6 but I know what happened."

7 He does not have to prove his innocence. They have to 8 prove beyond a reasonable doubt that he is guilty.

9 Fear for her life, scared. Solicitor said maybe she's 10 intimidated. She's sitting behind him right now. Wife of 46
11 years.

12 Ladies and gentlemen, Ms. Martin's a reasonable person.
13 She told you she was not in fear of imminent serious bodily
14 injury. She answered the door.

15 As to CDV, which the solicitor told you he'll also make 16 an option or the judge might make an option for you, physical
17 harm or injury. You'll see injury on her mouth. She said --
18 some of you sitting right here in front of her might have 19 seen her teeth. She said she caused that injury. And as a
20 reasonable person, she did not fear imminent bodily injury.

21 Ladies and gentlemen, this case is now to you. I would
22 argue the State has not met its burden. What could be more
23 reasonable than the one person who was there saying it didn't
24 happen. Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, it's now time for me

1 to instruct you on the law. The indictment charges the
2 defendant with criminal domestic violence of a high and
3 aggravated nature. I remind you that the fact that the 4 defendant was arrested, charged and indicted in this case is
5 not evidence in this case and cannot be considered by you as 6 evidence of guilt in this case, nor does it create any 7 presumption of inference of guilt. This document is simply 8 the formal written instrument which contains the charges made
9 against the defendant, the formal document by which the case
10 is brought into this Court.

11 The defendant has pled not guilty to this indictment and 12 the plea of not guilty puts the burden on the state to prove 13 the defendant guilty of the indictment before he can be 14 convicted of that indictment.

15 A person charged with committing a criminal offense in 16 South Carolina is never required to prove himself innocent.
17 I charge you that it is an important rule of the law that the 18 defendant in a criminal trial, no matter what the seriousness
19 of the charge may be, will always be presumed innocent of the 20 crime for which the indictment was issued unless guilt has 21 been proven by evidence satisfying you of that guilt beyond a
22 reasonable doubt.

23 The presumption of innocence does not end when you begin
24 your deliberations, but it accompanies a defendant throughout 25 the trial until you reach a verdict of guilt based on the

1 evidence satisfying you of that guilt beyond a reasonable
2 doubt.

3 The presumption of innocence is like a robe of 4 righteousness placed about the shoulders of the defendant,
5 which remains with the defendant until it has been stripped
6 from the defendant by evidence satisfying you of the 7 defendant's guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

8 The presumption of innocence is not a mere legal theory;
9 it is not just a mere legal phrase. It is a substantial
10 right to which every defendant is entitled unless you, the 11 jury, are satisfied from the evidence of the defendant's
12 guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

13 What is a reasonable doubt in the law? A reasonable
14 doubt is a kind of doubt that would cause a reasonable person
15 to hesitate to act. The State has the burden of proving the 16 defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. Some of you may 17 have served as jurors in civil cases where you were told that 18 it is only necessary to prove that a fact is more likely true
19 than not true, such as by the greater weight or preponderance
20 of the evidence. In criminal cases, the State's proof must 21 be more powerful than that. It must be beyond a reasonable
22 doubt.

23 Proof beyond a reasonable doubt is proof that leaves you
24 firmly convinced of the defendant's guilt. There are very 25 few things in this world that we know with absolute

1 certainty. In criminal cases, the law does not require proof
2 that overcomes every possible doubt.

3 If based on your consideration of the evidence you are
4 firmly convinced that the defendant is guilty of the crime
5 charged, you must find the defendant guilty. If on the other
6 hand you think there is a real possibility the defendant is 7 not guilty, you must give the defendant the benefit of the 8 doubt and find him not guilty.

9 I remind you that during this trial you and I have 10 certain duties to perform. As the trial judge, it is my 11 responsibility to preside over the trial of this case, and I
12 also have the duty to rule on the admissibility of evidence
13 offered during this trial.

14 You are to consider only the competent evidence before
15 you. If there was any testimony ordered stricken from the 16 record in this case during this trial, you must disregard
17 that testimony. You are to consider only the testimony which 18 has been presented from the witness stand, any exhibits which 19 have been made a part of the record in this case, and any 20 stipulations of counsel.

21 In addition, I have the duty to charge you the law
22 applicable to this case. As a presiding judge, I am the sole
23 judge of the law in this case and it is your duty as jurors
24 to accept the law and apply the law as I now state it to you.
25 If you already have an idea as to what the law is or what the

1 law ought to be and it does not agree with what I now tell
2 you the law is, you must abandon this idea because you are
3 sworn to accept the law and apply the law exactly as I state
4 it to you.

5 In every case tried in this Court before a jury, the 6 jury becomes the sole and exclusive judge of the facts in the 7 case, a trial judge cannot intimate, state, comment on or 8 make any statement to a trial jury about the facts in the 9 case.

10 Since you, the jury, are the sole judge of the facts in 11 the case, you are not to infer from what I have said during 12 the progress of the trial or in ruling on admissibility of 13 evidence or otherwise or anything that I say now during the 14 course of this instruction to you that I have any opinion
15 about the facts in this case. The law does not allow me to 16 have an opinion about the facts in the case. This is a
17 matter solely for you, the jury, to determine.

18 As jurors, it is your duty to determine the effect,
19 value, weight and the truth of the evidence presented during 20 this trial. There are two types of evidence which are 21 generally presented during a trial: Direct evidence and 22 circumstantial evidence. Direct evidence is the testimony of 23 a person who claims to have actual knowledge of a fact, such
24 as an eye witness. It is evidence which immediately
25 establishes the main fact to be proved.

1 Circumstantial evidence is proof of a chain of facts and
2 circumstances indicating the existence of a fact. It is
3 evidence which immediately establishes collateral facts from
4 which the main fact may be inferred. Circumstantial evidence
5 is based on inference and not on personal knowledge or 6 observation.

7 The law makes absolutely no distinction between the 8 weight or value to be given to either direct or 9 circumstantial evidence, nor is a greater degree of certainty
10 required for circumstantial evidence than of direct evidence.
11 You should weigh all of the evidence in the case.

12 After weighing all the evidence, if you are not
13 convinced of the guilt of the defendant beyond a reasonable
14 doubt, you must find the defendant not guilty.

15 In order to establish criminal liability, criminal
16 intent is required. For example, the mental state required
17 to be proven by the state for a particular crime might be 18 purpose, intent, knowledge, recklessness or criminal
19 negligence, criminal intent must be proven by the State
20 beyond a reasonable doubt.

21 Criminal intent is always a matter that must be 22 determined by the jury from circumstances surrounding the 23 situation. There is no way to prove intent by a mathematical
24 certainty. There is no way medical science can dissect a
25 person's brain and determine what the person had in mind, so

1 the law says that criminal intent may be inferred from the
2 circumstances shown to have existed. This is how you make a
3 determination of whether or not the element requiring intent
4 was present.

5 It is not necessary to establish intent by direct and
6 positive evidence, but intent may be established by inference
7 in the same way as any other fact by taking into
8 consideration the acts of the parties and all of the facts
9 and circumstances in the case.

10 Criminal intent is a mental state, a conscious
11 wrongdoing. It is up to you to determine what the defendant
12 intended to do based upon the circumstances shown to have 13 existed. Criminal intent can arise from action or failure to 14 act. It may arise from negligence, recklessness or an 15 indifference to duty or to consequences that is considered by 16 the law to be the equivalent of criminal intent.

17 Necessarily, you must determine the credibility of 18 witnesses who have testified in this case. Credibility
19 simply means believability. It becomes your duty as jurors
20 to analyze and evaluate the evidence and determine which 21 evidence convinces you of its truth.

22 In determining the believability of witnesses who have 23 testified in this case, you may believe one witness over
24 several witnesses or several witnesses over one witness. You
25 may believe a part of the testimony of a witness and reject

1 the remaining part of the testimony of that same witness.
2 You may believe the testimony of a witness in its entirety or
3 reject the testimony of a witness in its entirety. You may 4 consider whether any witness has exhibited to you any
5 interest, bias, prejudice or any other motive in this case.
6 You may also consider the appearance and the manner of a
7 witness while on the witness stand.

8 There has been evidence that the witness may have made
9 prior statements which are not consistent with the witness's
10 present testimony. You may use this evidence to decide
11 whether to believe the witness. You may also use evidence of 12 the earlier contradictory statements to determine the truth
13 of those statements. It is up to you to decide whether to 14 believe the earlier statements or the testimony given at 15 trial.

16 If a witness is shown to have knowingly testified
17 untruthfully concerning any material matter, you may consider
18 this in determining whether to trust the witness's testimony
19 as to other matters. You may reject all testimony of that 20 witness or give all or part of the testimony the weight that 21 you think it deserves.

22 I instruct you and emphasize that the fact that the 23 defendant did not testify is not a factor to be considered by 24 you in any way in your deliberation and in your consideration
25 on the question of guilt or innocence of the defendant. It

1 must not be considered by you in any manner whatsoever. A
2 defendant has the constitutional right to remain silent, and
3 the assertion of this right must not be considered by you in 4 your deliberations.

5 I repeat, under your oath, you are to draw no conclusion
6 whatsoever from the fact the defendant in this case did not
7 testify. The fact that the defendant did not testify should 8 not even be discussed in the jury room.

9 The burden of proof, as I have stated to you, is on the 10 State. The defendant is not required to prove his innocence.
11 The burden of proof remains on the state to prove guilt
12 beyond a reasonable doubt.

13 The defendant has been charged with criminal domestic 14 violence of a high and aggravated nature. A defendant is 15 guilty of criminal domestic violence of a high and aggravated
16 nature when the defendant commits an assault and battery upon
17 a member of the defendant's own household and certain
18 aggravating factors are present.

19 A household member is a spouse, a former spouse, a
20 parent, a child, a grandparent, a brother or sister, a
21 grandchild or a person with whom the defendant has a child in 22 common and a person of the opposite sex with whom the 23 defendant is living with or has lived with in the past.

24 An assault occurs when a person unlawfully attempts or 25 offers to commit a violent injury upon another person and has

1 the present ability to complete the attempted injury. It is
2 the intentional creation of a reasonable fear of imminent
3 bodily harm, it is not necessary that the attempted injury or 4 the harm actually takes place. For example, if I walk up to 5 you and when we are within arms' reach I reach back to hit
6 you, that is an assault.

7 The battery is the unlawful touching of another person
8 by a person who has committed the assault. An unlawful 9 touching can be caused by a part of the accused's body or by 10 any object the accused puts in motion. A battery is the 11 completion of the assault by using or applying force to 12 another person, however slight that force may be. Using my 13 earlier example, if I carry through the assault by hitting 14 you, that is a battery.

15 As I have stated, the State must also prove the
16 circumstance of aggravation. This means that the assault and
17 battery must involve the use of a deadly weapon or result in
18 serious bodily injury to the victim.

19 In addition, an assault that may reasonably cause a
20 victim to fear imminent bodily serious injury or death
21 constitutes an aggravating circumstance.

22 If you find that the State has not proven that the 23 defendant is guilty of criminal domestic violence of a high
24 and aggravated nature, you must then determine whether the 25 State has proven that the defendant is guilty of criminal

1 domestic violence.

2 In order to prove criminal domestic violence, the State
3 must prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant
4 caused physical harm or injury to a member of the defendant's
5 own household or that the defendant offered or attempted to 6 cause physical harm or injury to a member of the defendant's
7 own household with the apparent present ability to cause harm
8 or injury under the circumstances, reasonably creating a fear
9 of imminent danger.

10 There are several possible verdicts which you may find
11 in this case, and there's no significance in how these 12 verdicts are stated. It's simply that one must be stated
13 first.

14 Ladies and gentlemen, your verdict must be unanimous,
15 and Mr. Abernethy, as foreperson, you will sign the actual 16 verdict form. The verdict form is pretty self-explanatory.
17 It goes to -- "As to the charge of criminal domestic violence
18 of a high and aggravated nature, we, the jury, unanimously
19 find the defendant," and it says "Circle one, either not 20 guilty or guilty," and your verdict.

21 If your verdict was not guilty as to the charge of 22 criminal domestic violence of a high and aggravated nature,
23 then render a verdict on the charge below. The charge below
24 is the charge of criminal domestic violence. And, again,
25 "We, the jury, unanimously find the defendant either guilty

1 or not guilty," and it would be signed by the foreperson.

2 Ladies and gentlemen, I will now ask you to return to
3 your jury room. Do not begin your deliberations yet until 4 the bailiff knocks on the door and gives you all the exhibits
5 in this case. Thank you.

6 (The jury retires to the jury room at 11:29 a.m.)

7 THE COURT: Any exceptions or objections to the jury
8 charge from either the State or the defense?

9 MR. JUSTIS: None, Your Honor.

10 MR. WEHMAN: No, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: If you would gather up the exhibits, and 12 here's the verdict form, and we'll send it back to the jury.

13 (Evidence and verdict form delivered to the jury at 14 11:32 a.m.)

15 (Recess held.)

16 THE COURT: We have a note from the jury that states,
17 "Would you please clarify the difference between the charges
18 of CDV and CDV of a high and aggravated nature," and it's 19 signed by the foreman of the jury. We'll mark this as a
20 Court's exhibit.

21 (The Court's Exhibit 1 marked for identification.)

22 THE COURT: What I thought is I would just reread both 23 criminal domestic violence and criminal domestic violence of 24 a high and aggravated nature, if that's okay with both sides.
25 Any other different suggestions?

1 MR. WEHMAN: That sounds good to me.

2 MR. JUSTIS: I would think so. And I guess you'd start
3 with CDV first, like maybe -- because really the aggravated
4 is kind of like that plus the aggravated. I mean, that's why
5 in my closing I kind of did it like that. I think it makes
6 logical sense, especially since they're just hearing it.

7 THE COURT: Right.

8 MR. JUSTIS: And they don't have something in writing
9 that they can refer to.

10 THE COURT: Well, that's another option too. I can give 11 them the written charge on each.

12 MR. JUSTIS: I don't have a problem with the written
13 charge.

14 THE COURT: That's up to you all.

15 MR. WEHMAN: That's fine.

16 MR. JUSTIS: Just because it uses a lot of big words,
17 monosyllabic words or whatever.

18 MR. WEHMAN: Multisyllabic.

19 MR. JUSTIS: Multi. Exactly. It might be easier for 20 them, then they can --

21 THE COURT: I'm happy to do that. I mean, that's up to 22 you all. If you all don't have any objection, we can just 23 give them the written instruction, and I'll let you look at 24 it real quick before we do that.

25 MR. WEHMAN: Your Honor, we -- actually, we will object.

1 We would ask that you bring them back in and verbally --

2 THE COURT: That's fine.

3 MR. JUSTIS: And that's fine. If they're not fine with 4 that, that's fine.

5 THE COURT: All right. Let's have our jury.

6 (The jury enters the courtroom at 11:59 a.m.)

7 THE COURT: Welcome back, ladies and gentlemen of the 8 jury. I've received your note regarding your wish to be 9 clarified on the law of criminal domestic violence and the 10 difference between that and criminal domestic violence of a
11 high and aggravated nature, so I will read each of the law
12 pertaining to each of those charges.

13 Criminal domestic violence, in order to prove criminal
14 domestic violence, the State must prove beyond a reasonable
15 doubt that the defendant caused physical harm or injury to a
16 member of the defendant's own household or that the defendant
17 offered or attempted to cause physical harm or injury to a
18 member of the defendant's own household with the apparent
19 present ability to cause harm or injury under circumstances
20 reasonably creating a fear of imminent danger.

21 Criminal domestic violence of a high and aggravated
22 nature is as follows: A defendant is guilty of criminal
23 domestic violence of a high and aggravated nature when the 24 defendant commits an assault and battery upon a member of the 25 defendant's own household and certain aggravating factors are

1 present.

2 A household member is a spouse, former spouse, a parent,
3 a child, a grandparent, a brother or sister, a grandchild, a
4 person with whom the defendant has a child in common and a
5 person of the opposite sex with whom the defendant is living
6 or has lived with in the past.

7 An assault occurs when a person unlawfully attempts or
8 offers to commit a violent injury upon another person and had
9 the present ability to complete the attempted injury. It is
10 the intentional creation of a reasonable fear of imminent
11 bodily harm. It is not necessary that the attempted injury
12 or harm actually take place. For example, if I walk up to 13 you and we're within arms' reach and I draw back to hit you,
14 then that is an assault.

15 A battery is an unlawful touching of a person by another
16 person who has committed the assault. An unlawful touching
17 can be caused by part of the accused body or any object the 18 accused puts in motion. A battery is the completion of the 19 assault by using or applying force to another person, however
20 slight that force might be. Using my earlier example, if I
21 carry through the assault by hitting you, that is a battery.

22 As I have stated, the State must also prove the
23 circumstance of aggravation. This means that the assault and
24 battery must involve the use of a deadly weapon or result in
25 serious bodily injury to the victim.

1 In addition, an assault that reasonably causes a victim
2 to fear imminent bodily serious -- imminent serious bodily
3 injury or death constitutes an aggravating circumstance.

4 I hope that clarifies your question between the 5 difference of the two, in the two charges. Is that
6 sufficient, Mr. Foreman?

7 THE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

9 (The jury retires to the jury room at 12:02 p.m.)

10 THE COURT: Any exceptions or objections from the State
11 or from the defense?

12 MR. JUSTIS: No, Your Honor.

13 MR. WEHMAN: No, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: We'll mark the note as a Court's Exhibit.

15 (Recess held.)

16 THE COURT: It's my understanding that have we have a
17 verdict, so we will go ahead and bring the jury in.

18 (The jury enters the courtroom at 12:14 p.m.)

19 THE COURT: Mr. Foreman, has the jury reached a verdict?

20 THE JUROR: Yes, ma'am.

21 THE COURT: If you would please hand it to the bailiff.

22 Everything appears in order. Madam Clerk, if you'd 23 please publish the verdict.

24 THE CLERK: Yes, ma'am. In the matter of State of South
25 Carolina versus Ralph Martin, Dorchester County, indictment

1 2014-GS-18-05 -- 0851, as to the charge of criminal domestic

6 If you would please return to your jury room just briefly,

7 I'll be in there to release you in just one second.

8 (The jury retires to the jury room at 12:17 p.m.)

9 THE COURT: I'm going to go release the jury before we 10 proceed to sentencing.

11 Solicitor, if you'd please prepare a sentencing sheet.

12 MR. JUSTIS: Yes, Your Honor, it's being done right now.

13 (Recess held.)

14 THE COURT: And just for the record, the jury has been
15 officially released; however, some of the members of the jury
16 did want to come in, as is their right, to be present for 17 sentencing.

18 Parties ready to proceed?

19 MR. JUSTIS: State's ready, Your Honor.

20 MR. WEHMAN: Yes, Your Honor.

21 MR. JUSTIS: May I approach, Your Honor?

22 THE COURT: Yes, sir. Mr. Wehman, I'll be happy to hear
23 from you.

24 MR. WEHMAN: Thank you, Your Honor. May it please the
25 Court.

1 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

2 MR. WEHMAN: As you're aware now, Mr. Martin is 63 years
3 old. He has an associate's degree in engineering. He is a
4 Vietnam veteran. He served overseas, served in Vietnam, was 5 diagnosed with PTSD, did see active combat over there.
6 During his service he was awarded with six combat medals for 7 various achievements in combat.

8 After his honorable discharge, he has had increasing
9 interaction with the VA Hospital. He is being treated. He
10 is on a -- he has a list of medications that I have printed
11 out from the VA. It's about seven medications, Your Honor,
12 and they're for a variety of things.

13 He is diagnosed with PTSD. He also has been diagnosed
14 with depression from that instance and I guess in connection
15 with his PTSD. He has various other medical problems.
16 Cirrhosis of the liver, I believe, is one of them. He has 17 had CAT scans on his brain. He is in rapidly declining
18 health.

19 Your Honor, his sister has been here in support of him.
20 She's seated on the first row. At the appropriate time, she 21 would like to address you, if you'd be willing to hear from 22 her. Additionally, his wife, Ms. Becky Martin, has stated
23 that she would like to address you.

24 THE COURT: I'll be happy to hear from them.

25 MR. WEHMAN: Ms. Martin. And this is his sister,

1 Ms. Patricia Martin.

2 MS. P. MARTIN: My name is Patricia Martin. I'm Wayne's
3 sister. I just would like to beg for mercy. Wayne is 63
4 years old. I'm the oldest. I'm 64. If you open -- take his 5 shirt sleeves off up right now, you will see scars where he
6 was beaten as a child with cowhide strings. We all were.

7 He can be rehabbed. He's a very sick man. He has
8 cirrhosis of the liver. Pretty sure he has high blood
9 pressure. He suffers with depression. I myself have 10 bipolar.

11 Wayne was given a death sentence this afternoon because 12 he's going to die there. And I'm just pleading, and he's not 13 a bad person. It was out of control. He has PTSD. He was 14 raised in hell. He went into the United States Army. My 15 parents signed for him at 17 years of age. He was also 16 signed at 17 years of age where he could get married.

17 This, this incident, this horrible thing that has 18 happened today that you're seeing has been a monkey -- a
19 circus and a monkey show for 46 years between Wayne and 20 Becky. It's never stopped. It's just war. Long time. It's 21 made it worse.

22 If he were going to kill her, he would have killed her a
23 long time ago, and she's not going to kill him. He's not a
24 bad person, Your Honor. He needs to be in a hospital. I'm 25 begging. He needs to be in a hospital. He needs treatment.

1 Please spare his life by getting him into a rehab center as
2 an inpatient. I'm begging. I'm begging for his life because
3 when he's sentenced to prison today, he's going to die there.

4 Our mom is 85 years old. She doesn't even know he's in
5 jail. This will probably kill my mom too. So today is a day
6 that we'll never forget. And all I'm asking is for mercy. I
7 love him very much. I know for a fact he's not a bad man.
8 He does bad things, and a lot of it's just plain from birth
9 until today, whatever today is, February 2015. Again, I'm 10 begging for mercy.

11 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Martin.

12 Yes, ma'am.

13 MS. B. MARTIN: I love him very much. Very, very much.
14 He's been a good man. He really has, but he has them
15 episodes of PTSD and he can't control it. And he's been 16 involved with the VA ever since 1972, and he's got a social 17 worker, but I think she was told not to come. She said the 18 only person that Wayne would hurt would be himself. He 19 wouldn't hurt anybody else, it was ridiculous the things that 20 he was being charged with.

21 And he's got a doctor, Dr. Harmen at the VA, and he's 22 involved in the program continuously. And if he had -- I was 23 going to ask the -- she said for me to start coming with him
24 to the hospital with him.

25 And my son's got PTSD from -- from -- from Korea, and

1 he -- he was home that night, but he stayed in his bedroom.
2 And all three of my -- all three of my children love their
3 daddy. That's why they didn't come, because they couldn't
4 handle this today. And we've got seven grandchildren and
5 three great-grandchildren, and they all ask me, "Where's
6 Granddaddy?" And I said, "He's just -- he's in the hospital.
7 He'll be -- he'll be coming home."

8 Even my mom, my mom called on him with a note to tell
9 him happy birthday on his birthday because my mom loves him,
10 because my mother had a -- my mom's schizophrenic. She had a
11 mental breakdown and was living in Hugh, Florida and Wayne
12 would go over there every weekend and take her off and do
13 things with her because he loves her.

14 He's a very, very loving man, but he's got that PTSD,
15 and that's why he needs help. And that's all I ask, is that 16 he gets treatment and not prison time, because that will kill
17 him and it will definitely kill me. My health's bad, and I
18 can't -- I can't handle being away from him. I can't do it.
19 I have nobody else. My kids are grown and I will not ask
20 them for help. They got their own lives. But he can go --
21 his VA and get help, extended help. I know he'll be okay.

22 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

23 MS. B. MARTIN: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Anything further from the defense?

25 MR. WEHMAN: Yes, Your Honor, I have -- she alluded to

1 the VA and a contact there. I have spoken to two contacts
2 there: Ms. Deborah Davis and Ms. Merideth Miller. They did
3 provide me -- they do have an extensive inpatient-type
4 program where it's a step-down-type program. The first step
5 would be him residing there in their hospital where he can
6 get treatment.

7 He does -- he is listed alcohol dependent. And based on
8 what we heard in the trial and from what I've talked about,
9 alcohol mixed with these medications does cause problems. So
10 he would be there. He'd be treated for the alcohol problems.

11 Once he completes that phase, there is a step-down where 12 he would not be in the hospital but in housing with other
13 individuals, again, away from home, away from his wife, other 14 individuals going through this program, until he graduates to 15 the next phase.

16 They said that he is -- he's eligible, and what we would 17 ask, Your Honor, is that he be incarcerated in the jail until 18 he's able to be put in a program, either that program or any 19 program that you would be satisfied with, to combat the 20 problem that he has with alcohol.

21 He does have a record, and based on my review of the 22 record, there are a lot of CDV arrests. Most of those 23 arrests involve a time-served sentence. From what I have 24 heard, he tells me the option was put to him, plead guilty,
25 go home today, time served.

1 And we would ask that he be given treatment to help him,
2 to help him overcome this alcoholism, and that's what we
3 would ask for, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.
5 Solicitor.

6 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, Your Honor, may it please the
7 Court.

8 As far as the sentence goes, and I'm sure Your Honor
9 knows there's a one-year minimum that's not suspendable. He 10 does have credit for approximately seven months. He's been 11 incarcerated since that night in the Dorchester County jail.

12 Looking at his record, Your Honor, it starts back in 13 1976. He was convicted of a DUI. And according to my 14 records, DUI second. That's as far back as I can go, so
15 obviously there was a DUI prior to that.

16 1979 DUI third; 1981 DUI; 1986 DUI; 1997 DUI third; 1999
17 DUI third and a driving under suspension fifth.

18 2002, he was convicted of child abuse, a misdemeanor
19 child abuse out of North Carolina.

20 In 2005, Colleton County, a criminal domestic violence;
21 2006 in Horry County, criminal domestic violence second
22 offense, and it was actually a criminal domestic violence
23 high and aggravated, pled down to a second offense. 2010,
24 again, Horry County, criminal domestic violence second
25 offense, again, another criminal domestic violence high and

1 aggravated, pled down. 2011, criminal domestic violence out
2 of Berkeley County. 2012, two separate convictions for
3 public disorderly conduct. 2014, here in Dorchester County,
4 he had two counts of criminal domestic violence high and
5 aggravated nature. One was dismissed; one was pled to a
6 criminal domestic violence. That was in January of 2014.

7 Between January of 2014 and April of 2014, three months,
8 he was convicted of DUI first. In April of 2014, he was 9 charged again with criminal domestic violence high and 10 aggravated. Those charges are still pending. I have those 11 charges.

12 Before I even got the case on that situation, he picked
13 up the present charge, another criminal domestic violence
14 high and aggravated. So that's the extent of his record. I
15 do have the public index of all those if you need proof of 16 all that, but I do have that.

17 You know, based on his extensive record, Your Honor, you
18 know, the State would just ask for the maximum sentence under 19 the law. You know, obviously Mr. Martin has gotten a second,
20 third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth chance. And it
21 is the State's opinion that he's just -- he's just run out of 22 chances. Thank you.

23 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Martin, you have people here that 24 support you and love you, despite your actions and your 25 continued violent history.

1 You come before this Court and you basically have had
2 opportunity after opportunity to get help for your treatment
3 and your problem, and you failed to do so. Our society
4 cannot tolerate violence like this against the one person
5 that you're supposed to love and protect and in front of your
6 children. That's despicable.

7 Under indictment 2014-GS-18-0851, you're hereby
8 committed to the State Department of Corrections for a period
9 of ten years, provided upon the service of nine months --
10 nine years, 11 months, with probation to follow for four 11 years. Special conditions of probation are that you are to 12 receive substance abuse counseling, random drug and alcohol
13 testing, you must complete a batterer treatment program and 14 you must perform 100 hours of public service employment.

15 Good luck to you.

16 MR. JUSTIS: Thank you, Your Honor.
