APPEAL FROM RICHLAND COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

Clifton B. Newman, Circuit Court Judge

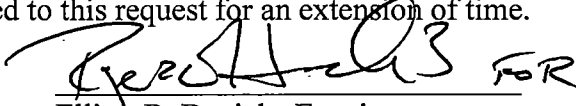

Appellate Case No: 2017-000167

Cedric Young Appellant,
v.
Valerie Poole Respondent.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Respondent, Valerie Poole, through its undersigned counsel, hereby respectfully moves for a thirty (30) day extension of time to serve and file its Initial Brief and Designation of Matter until May 28, 2017. Presently, Valerie Poole's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter are due on April 28, 2017.

This motion is based upon the undersigned having a funeral out of state and having the sale of a family home that has required regular travel in the preceding month. Counsel has consulted with attorney for Appellant, and he has consented to this request for an extension of time.

Dear Madame Clerk:

Please see the attached Motion for an Extension of Time, which attorney for the Respondent, Valerie Poole, hereby requests. I am out of the office this week due to the birth of my first child.

You will also find a check in the amount of $25.00 for the same Motion enclosed. All counsel of record, copied here, consent to this request. Also, I understand based on my communications with a Deputy Clerk that parties may proceed as if this request, timely made and for 30 days until May 28, 2017, has been granted. Please advise if this is incorrect.

I would appreciate your filing the originals of these documents, clocking the copies, and returning the same to me in the enclosed, self-addressed, stamped envelope provided for your convenience. As always, I thank you and your staff for all the help and assistance you provide with regard to these matters.

Sincerely,

Elliott B. Daniels
