Re: Appellate Case # 2017-000834
Homestead Exemption 15-41-30 (a)(1)

Judge Beatty ,

Hope all is well . I appealed an Order from Judge Carmen Mullen , Form 4 dated March 24 , 2017 ; no Order attached . I received an unsigned Order on March 30 , 2017 . Court of Appeals clocked my Appeal in on April 5, 2017 . My property was sold at a "foreclosure" sale on April 4 , 2017 . I had no mortgage on said property . I received the signed Order by Judge Mullen on April 13 , 2017 (Rule 203 ) by USPS ; nine (9) days after the sale .

My Appeal only pertains to the Homestead Exemption 15-41-30 (a)(1) , "dependent of the debtor" ; which is my 68 year old retarded brother . He has been in my care for 39 + years . He resides with me at the property that was sold by the Clerk of Court on April 4 , 2017 . Judge Early is confused in this matter .

I'm the "debtor" in this case and I'm entitled to an exemption of $ 59,100.00 . More than this amount has been deposited with the Clerk of Court in Dorchester County . ( 15-41-30 (a)(1) )

I have petitioned the Clerk and the Court for disbursement of these funds , all documents are listed in the "case management file " in Dorchester County , case # 2009-CP-18-2200.

Mr. Claude L. Soles purchased the property on April 4, 2017 and he would be at ease when all funds are disbursed thus giving him a clear title / deed . Any help will be deeply appreciated.

TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE .

With kind regards,
