Mount Pleasant SC 29464

Re: Johnson Koola v. Cambridge Two (2)
Appellate Case No. 2017-000822

Dear Mr. Koola:

This responds to your request for an extension of time to file a reply to any return that may be filed and to exceed the page limit in that reply. Since neither of the respondents in this matter have filed a return, these requests are premature and no action will be taken on them by this Court. Instead, if a return is filed, you will need to serve and file a motion seeking relief at that time.

Finally, you make reference to counsel for Trademark Properties, Inc., being relieved. Robert Michael Ethridge, Esquire, and Suzanne Elizabeth Deters, Esquire, were the counsel of record for Trademark Properties, Inc., before the South Carolina Court of Appeals.<sup>1</sup> Since these attorneys have not been relieved as counsel by this Court, they remain as counsel of record before this Court. Rule

<sup>1</sup> The Court of Appeals did receive a proposed consent order for substitution of counsel, but it declined to act on this proposed order since the petition for a writ of certiorari had been filed with this Court. No motion seeking substitution of counsel has been filed with this Court. I am providing the attorneys mentioned in the proposed consent order with a copy of this letter.

264 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Very truly yours,
