The Pro se Appellant submits that on April 3rd the Honorable Court ruled and granted the Pro se an extension of time to submit his Final Brief. Unfortunately, somehow the Pro se requested an extension of time for the Final Brief, but the 61 year old Pro se made a mistake because he was actually thinking he was requesting an extension for his Record on Appeal, because of the cost. Pro se is unemployed and requesting disability for his multiple physical problems and he proceeded in the Lower Court under Informa pauperis, but was denied by the Court of Appeals because of the understanding that he wasn't incarcerated.

Furthermore, at this time this is a great expense for the Pro se and he has realized this morning that he cannot complete his Record on Appeal, because of the limited funds that comes in monthly from my 64 year old wifes check. Therefore the Pro request the Honorable Court to grant the Pro se a 30 day extension to file and serve his Record on Appeal, pursuant to rule 263(b) SCACR.
