

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

The State, Respondent,

v.

Robert Max Watkins, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2016-000966

ORDER

Appellant has filed a letter, which we construe as a motion to relax the copy requirements relating to the record on appeal. The motion is granted to the extent that Appellant may file only one copy of the record on appeal. Appellant shall also serve a copy of the record on Respondent. Because Appellant has not retained a copy of the record he filed with this court, we are providing Appellant with a copy of the record. Appellant shall serve Respondent with a copy of the record on appeal within twenty days of this order and provide this court with proof of service.

Respondent's motion to compel is granted to the extent that Appellant shall compile a supplemental record on appeal containing the trial transcript dated September 22-24, 2008. Appellant shall serve a copy of the supplemental record on Respondent and file one copy with this court within twenty days of this order.
