Factual and Procedural Background

Plaintiff and defendant entered into a Contract on November 1, 2013 that ended midnight November 1, 2014. On August 30, 2014 the defendant sent a letter to the plaintiff stating that this is a thirty (30) days notice to vacate the property that the lease would not be renewed. This was a violation of the terms and conditions of the Contract.

On November 1, 2014 the defendant entered the residence unlawfully and removed plaintiff personal property out of and off the premises and chained the gate, without demand or notice. Plaintiff filed a Civil Suit on February 6, 2015, under S.C. Code of Law 27-40-660 (recoverable under 27-40-410)

The Court held a Pre-Trial Conference on March 23, 2015. Plaintiff was represented by William Thrower Esquire, the defendant did not have representation but wanted to seek legal help and a jury trial. Date was given for the jury trial May 27, 2015. On the day of the hearing attorney Bruce A. Berlinsky was for the defendant and William Thrower for the plaintiff. The attorneys entered into the Judge's Chamber and a short time later called the plaintiff and Informed him that his attorney had to leave to go to federal court, attorney inform me to go on everything was alright. The judge inform the jury that they were dismissed and the hearing continued. Plaintiff had no time to look at what was suppose to be evidence or answer's or counter claim's eviction notice at all.

On June 1 2015 the court ruled in favor of the defendant, that "no ouster was proven."

ISSUE

Did the lower court err in the findings of the eviction notice. Was Plaintiff due process violated by the dismissal of the jury and was counsel effective.

Magistrate Rules

Rule 15(a)(b)

There was no exchange of documents by parties prior to trial, only that was not offer into evidence and there was no trial.

Because trial judge makes a determination as to impartiality of selected jury judge's involvement in selection process is substantial enough to be considered "State action Subject to mandates of the Fourteenth Amend. 385 S.E.2d 206 S.Ct. 1340, 99L.Ed.2d 565. On the finding of the court without a jury dismissed by the judge and the abuse of discretion occurs when the ruling of the court is based on an error of law or factual conclusion without evidentiary support. Hanahan v. Simpson 306 S.C. 140, 155, 485 S.E.2d 903, 911, Patel v. Patel, 359 S.C. 515, 529, 599 S.E.2d 114, 121, In this case, the parties agreed to provide each other all documents to be presented at trial. Their should have not been exclusion of evidence also a jury trial.

In action of Demand and notice, the primary consideration is their one. in law action lower court must be affirmed where there is any evidence to support findings,

Counsel's ineffectiveness should have filed for a continuance under magistrate court rule, by not filing left plaintiff without representation, no papers to show what was answer or cross. Plaintiff knew defendant did not have a notice or demand from any court in the jurisdiction where he resided.

The legal process that began the original process is the final issue, is their evidence to support the findings of the court.

MOTION FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff moves to the court for relief and judgment and demands that he is entitled to recovery of personal property damages and deposit of 7,500.00 Compensation award.

I state under Penalty of Perjury that the above is correct and true.

FACT / PROCEDURAL ISSUES.

Outser

- (1) Plaintiff and defendant entered an agreement, residential lease or contract enforceable under S.C. Code of law 27-40-310, Exhibit (1) pg 1 at 1 and pg 5 at notice, under this Chapter this entitles the defendant to file a notice or demand. Without such notice defendant does not have a legal right to enter premises. The defendant has yet to produce the notice or demand.

Writ of Ejection

DUE PROCESS NOTICE AND JURY

- (2) Notice was given for a jury trial under Statute Section 14-7-1050 Code of law of South Carolina 1976, as amended. The intent of the code section is to give litigants a fair and impartial jury. Brown v. S.H. Kress & Co. A trial judge's interference in the selection process is substantial enough to be considered "STATE ACTION". Tula Professional Collection Service Inc v. Pope 108 S.Ct. 1340 99 Ed 2d - 565. Once the judge dismissed the jury in which the defendant requested without waiver from the plaintiff without an attorney to defend or present their should be a jury selection in which the plaintiff can make his peremptory strike. The notice was given for a jury trial, that did not take place. Exhibit (2) and Magistrate court Rule's (13 & 14)

INEFFECTIVE ASSISTANCE COUNSEL

(3) Attorney William Thrower abandonment of the plaintiff at the hearing was a clear violation of the 6th Amendment, Attorney's misconduct in failing to review documents, failing to advise client of untimely respond to Complanits not Filing Summary Judgment. All this is a violation of Appellate Courts Rules 40 Rule's of Professional Conduct. (3.1+3.2)

It is clear view had attorney answered calls or notify plaintiff, plaintiff would have evidence to show that defendant did not answer timely or counter claim. Attorney knew he had a Court appearance in Federal Court (30) thirty days ahead and should have file under magistrate Court Rule's (14)

For continuance of trial for a good cause he also violated Rule (15.) the only paper i have from a attorney william Thrower are (9) nine pages and one was VIA hand Delivery to William Thrown, Esquire (4) Carriage Lane Charleston 29407 from one Carriage lane Charleston. Attorney address is 6 Carriage lane how authentic.

4. Findings of Expend more than the Security deposit.

Defendant would have to repair the house in less than 2 days. See Exhibit From Chas. Water works.

I Garnar's Hamilton being duly sworn, state that I am the plaintiff and amend the pleading and send's one copy to the defendant.

RULE 18
APPEALS

All appeals of judgments rendered by the magistrates court shall be to the circuit court of the county where the judgment was rendered. Within thirty (30) days after delivery of written notice of judgment to the parties or their attorneys, a party wishing to appeal shall serve on the respondent and file a notice of appeal containing a statement of the grounds for appeal with the magistrate rendering the judgment and with the Circuit Court of the County where the judgment was rendered. If the judgment is announced at a trial in the presence of the parties or their attorneys, the notice of appeal shall be served and filed within thirty (30) days of the date the judgment is announced. At the time of the filing of the notice of appeal, the appropriate filing fee shall be paid by the appellant to the clerk of the circuit court to which the appeal is taken, unless a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and an affidavit showing the appellant's inability to pay the fee required to appeal the action accompanies the filing of the notice of appeal. The right of appeal from a judgment exists for thirty (30) days after the denial of a motion for a new trial.

Within thirty (30) days of the date of filing of the notice of appeal with the Circuit Court, the magistrate shall file the return to the notice of appeal with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the county wherein the judgment was rendered, together with the record, a statement of all proceedings in the case, and, if necessary, the testimony taken at trial. Upon motion for good cause shown, the Circuit Court may allow a finite extension of time in which to file the return.

Pursuant to Rule 75, SCRPC, upon receipt of the magistrate's return, the clerk of the Circuit Court to which the appeal is taken shall give notice in writing to the parties that the return has been filed.

RULE 19*NEW TRIAL; AMENDMENT OF JUDGMENTS

) A new trial may be granted to all or any of the parties and on all or part of the issues for any of the reasons for which new trials previously have been granted in the courts of this state. On motion for a new trial in an action tried without a jury, the court may open the judgment, if one has been entered, may take additional testimony, may amend findings of fact and conclusions of law, may make new findings and conclusions, and may direct the entry of a new judgment.

) The motion for a new trial shall be made in writing and filed with the court no later than ten (10) days after notice of the judgment. However, a motion for a new trial in cases involving landlords and tenants under Chapters 37 and 40, Title 27 of the South Carolina Code, must be filed within five (5) days after notice of the judgment. The court shall notify all opposing parties that the motion has been filed and shall provide those parties a copy of the motion in a manner provided for in Rule 8.

) Not later than ten (10) days after entry of judgment, the court, on its own initiative, may order a new trial for any reason for which it might have granted a new trial on motion of a party. However, the court may order a new trial under this paragraph not later than five (5) days after entry of judgment in cases involving landlords and tenants under Chapters 37 and 40, Title 27 of the South Carolina Code. After giving the parties notice and an opportunity to be heard on the matter, the court may grant a motion for a new trial, timely served, for a reason not stated in the motion. In either case, the court shall specify in the order the grounds for granting a new trial.

A motion to alter or amend the judgment shall be filed no later than ten (10) days after notice of the judgment, except that in cases involving landlords and tenants under Chapters 37 and 40, Title 27 of the South Carolina Code, the motion shall be filed no later than five (5) days after notice of the judgment. The court shall notify all opposing parties that the motion has been filed and shall provide those parties a copy of the motion in a manner provided for in Rule 8.

Except by consent of the parties, argument on a motion for a new trial or to alter or amend the judgment shall be heard by the magistrate before whom the trial was held. However, the motion may, in the discretion of the court, be decided on briefs filed by the parties without oral argument.

Amended by Order dated April 29, 2015.

AMENDMENT TO CONFORM TO THE EVIDENCE ON
MOTION TO DISMISS

FILED

2015 AUG -6 PM 3: 18

JULIE J. ARMSTRONG
CLERK OF COURT

Plaintiff respectfully amend to respondents motion to dismiss.

1. Plaintiff move's that the motion for dismissal be removed under ECRCP Rule 15(A). A Party may amend his pleading once as a matter of course at any time before or within 30 thirty days after responsive pleading is served or, if the pleading is one to which no responsive pleading is required and the ACTION HASN'T BEEN placed upon the TRAIL ROSTER.
2. Notice of motion scheduling was dated July 10, 2015. The same date for Appeal and motion for relief, defendant filed notice date July 21, 2015. Plaintiff did not received a copy of the motion until plaintiff pick it up from the Clerk of Court August 3, 2015 at 3:17 p.m. under informa pauperis act.
3. The notice of motion and motion to dismiss is a moot case a matter in which a controversy no longer exists, see respondent motion page 1 at (2) The Judge issued his written order to all parties on or about June 1, 2015.

How ever, "the moment the order is filed by the clerk of court"; it becomes judgment of the court, and fixes the rights of the parties. Our court's rules provide that (A) Notice of appeal SHALL be served on all parties within (30) thirty days after receipt of written notice of entry of order or judgment [EMPHASIS ADDED] SCRCP 203(B) Judgment is effective only when so set forth and entered into records. SCRCP Rule 58(a). The motion only presents an abstract question that does not arise from existing facts or rights.

4. SCRCP Ruled (11) (A) All motion filed shall contain an affirmation that He or She is movants counsel prior to filing motion see (Cover sheet for motion), SCRCP 11(C) Affidavits and Verifications. Affidavits or verifications authorized or permitted under these rules SHALL be written statement or declarations by a party or his attorney of records under Magistrate Court Rules (17) and (8) and in the magistrate return the question on appeal is notification and verification under due process notice.

Wanting to obtain counsel an attain counsel is different, there is no proof of sufficient process in the defendant's answer or the magistrates return. (Attorney Client) Key 73 written authority filing of attorney. The fact that that the notice and motion is mootness doctrine, in which there is no longer any actual controversy, and the courts can't decide moot doctrine.

The plaintiff asked that Honorable Judge Nic Holson lets the pleading speaks for itself. There's nothing in the courts return or answer by the defendant, only alleged "counsel" that plaintiff did not file a motion for a New Trial under magistrate court Rule 18 and A. Plaintiff filed a timely appeal. Everything that was pleaded for and about in the pleading is proven by the evidence in the courts return and answer by the defendant, there is no evidence to support the lower courts findings of fact or conclusion. The fact is that the Plaintiff and the defendant are under North Charleston Housing Authority HCV Program contract (See Exhibit 101) an court's return pages - 40 thru 43 and page 46.

There is but only one finding that plaintiff followed the contract and the lease. There upon making an order specifying the facts that appear without substantiation controversy, including the extent to which the amount of damages or relief is not in controversy, and such judgement be granted to plaintiff.

Mr. Hamilton is a participant in the North Charleston Housing Authority HCV Program. Per his request for documentation from his folder pertaining to his tenancy at 2208 Clinton Street, North Charleston, SC, there is no documentation from his landlord stating that he owes for damages to the unit. There is also not paper work from the courts pertaining to him being taken to the magistrate or a Writ of eviction being done. The only item we have is a 30day notice to vacate given to Mr. Hamilton from his previous landlord Mr. Henry Scott.

Jeff Baxter

2B "Mitch" Mitchell

If Mr. Hamilton had abandoned his unit we would have sent him a termination letter for abandonment. He was issued a new voucher to look for another unit. We also have no documentation stating that Mr. Hamilton owes his previous landlord Mr. Henry Scott for damaged that he caused to the unit.

TRANSCRIPT OF RECORDS. AUGUST 14, 2015

PROCEEDINGS

1
2 THE COURT: All right Mr. Hamilton, I've read the
3 return from the Magistrate. I'll be glad to hear you on 4 your appeal.

5 MR. HAMILTON: Yes, sir. Your Honor, I'm appealing
6 the case on the findings of the court factual not
7 conclusive when he said there was evidence to support
8 that I did not prove ousted. Mr. Scott never produced a
9 writ of eviction and that's on page 14 of the judge's
10 return which he said that he would produce these in court
11 when he came. He never produced a writ of eviction to 12 show that he had legal rights to be in the house under 13 the resident landlord tenant act 27-40-530.

14 THE COURT: Is that the reason you're appealing?

15 MR. HAMILTON: Yes, sir. I'm appealing the findings
16 of the court because I did prove that he ousted me
17 because he had no probable cause to be in my house
18 without the writ of eviction notice to be inside the 19 house to terminate it and a written letter from him in 20 which he said I abandoned the house. We are under an HCV
21 contract under North Charleston housing; anything under 22 that I would have been put out the program. And that was 23 not proven there because he didn't put any evidence to 24 prove to show that I abandoned the house which I did not
25 do because if I abandoned the house under the amendment

1 to perform, which I amended the complaint to the answer
2 that shows in there that I am under the HCV program and
3 anything under the housing authority clearly states there
4 is no documents of landlord stating that I owed for any
5 damage to the unit. There is no paperwork from the court
6 pertaining to the Magistrate writ of eviction; only the 7 30 days notice which he wrote a letter telling me he 8 wasn't going to renew the contract.

9 My lease was still up at the time -- and it clearly
10 states that if I had abandoned the house they would have 11 sent me a termination letter for abandonment. So
12 anything under the court's finding that I didn't prove 13 ousted because he had no writ to go in the house. And 14 legally under 530 of the access clearly states that only 15 he must give me 24 hours notice before he enters the 16 premises.

17 Under 530 it says the only way the landlord has no
18 other rights it says rights of accessing except pursuant
19 to a court order which is a writ permitted by 27-40-720
20 and 27-40-30 when accompanied by a law enforcement
21 officer at a reasonable time the purpose to serve a
22 process of eviction proceedings. These things never 23 happened. He never evicted me. He never filed a writ of 24 eviction and that's clearly a violation of due process
25 anyway giving notice to be in court.

1 THE COURT: Anything else?

2 MR. HAMILTON: You want me to go on?

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 MR. HAMILTON: The jury -- the non jury -- as far
5 as the non-jury trial in there we were -- I wasn't given
6 notice to be to court but attorney William Thrower was 7 given the notice ---

8 THE COURT REPORTER: --- what was the attorney's
9 name?

10 MR. HAMILTON: William Thrower was given notice,
11 attorney Berlinsky, and also Mr. Scott. I never 12 received a notice to be in court for a jury trial. But 13 on the date given for the jury trial Mr. Thrower had --
14 access to the court. He had a federal court appointment,
15 which he should have asked for a continuance. He did not 16 ask for a continuance but the judge went on with the case
17 after the attorney left and dismissed the jury, which is 18 considered stayed action. He shouldn't be involved in a
19 jury case anyway once he was given notice for a jury
20 trial that was supposed to happen under the due process
21 laws. And as far as Mr. Scott signing a waiver I never 22 seen a waiver. I never received anything as far as an
23 answer, returns or anything. I never received anything
24 from the defendant or his counsel. The only reason I
25 knew about the court date is when I called the Clerk of

1 Court and she informed me the date it was. Inside the
2 pleading it's also stated out on the facts.

3 THE COURT: Anything else?

4 MR. HAMILTON: I said the court 'errored' because 5 there is no evidence inside; there are no conclusions or 6 facts to show that the defendant had a legal right to be
7 in the house. As far as there is no evidence there is no
8 deciding what the judge said.

9 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you very much. Mr.
10 Berlinsky?

11 MR. BERLINSKY: Thank you, Your Honor. Your Honor,
12 I guess it may be a little out of order but I have a
13 motion to dismiss the appeal because Mr. Hamilton didn't
14 follow the rules of court. Rule 18 says that the right
15 to appeal from -- and this is Magistrate Court Rule 18
16 not Circuit Court -- says the right to appeal from a
17 judgment exists for 30 days after denial of a motion for 18 a new trial. And a motion for a new trial has to be made
19 or a motion to alter or amend has to be made not later
20 than 10 days after the judgment or five days in a
21 landlord tenant matter; that's Rule 19. And he did
22 neither of those things so I don't even know that he has 23 the right to an appeal.

24 MR. HAMILTON: Excuse me, Your Honor, but that rule
25 does not ---

1 look in the return there is nothing in there clarifying
2 that he is an attorney for Scott. I received no answer,
3 no return or nothing from Magistrate court. If we're
4 going to follow the rules of Magistrate court we should
5 follow the Magistrate court up. Everything is in the 6 return.

7 Also, Your Honor when I wanted to file for a new 8 trial in Magistrate court clearly he abused his 9 discretion on me and decided by not even looking at the 10 writ of eviction, the itemized statement; all these 11 things were right there in the court in front of him. He 12 abused his discretion on that then why would I want to go
13 back to the same court that ignored the court's rule and 14 the court's law.

15 THE COURT: Mr. Berlinsky, on Rule 18 on appeals my 16 interpretation he has 30 days to file an appeal. Now if 17 he does file a motion for a new trial, then that has to 18 be filed within 5 days however he didn't ask for a new 19 trial. I don't think the fact that he didn't ask for a
20 new trial or file a motion for a new trial prohibits him
21 from appealing the Magistrate's court decision. He had 22 to do that within 30 days. Now I'll hear you on the 23 merits of his appeal.

24 MR. BERLINSKY: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor. May 25 it please the court? His first argument was that my

1 client did not file a writ of ejectment. My client
2 doesn't have to file a writ of ejectment. My client was 3 a defendant in an action Mr. Hamilton filed and we
4 defended that. As you know general law -- well first off
5 an appeal from Magistrate court is only if the judge made
6 an error of law.

7 THE COURT: Not in civil court but in criminal 8 court that's correct. You can modify the findings of 9 fact in the civil side, okay.

10 MR. BERLINSKY: But the fact of the matter was my 11 client didn't have to file a writ of ejectment. He 12 voluntarily left after we sent him a letter that said
13 you're violating the lease because you have a dog and the 14 lease clearly says no animals on the premises. The trial
15 took place. There was -- Mr. Hamilton testified on his 16 behalf with no independent witnesses. Mr. Scott
17 testified on his behalf with three independent witnesses.
18 The judge has to weigh the creditability of the evidence
19 and creditability of the witnesses. We proved our case
20 that he violated the lease. He voluntarily left
21 therefore abandoning the premises he came back three to 22 four times; that was the testimony to retrieve his 23 possessions. He never said I want possession of the 24 house again that you've improperly ousted me until he
25 files this action several months after he voluntarily

1 left and after the lease expired. So the weight of the 2 evidence is that my client did nothing wrong other than 3 tell him you're violating the lease by having a dog on 4 the premises and either you or the dog has to do. The 5 next thing we know he's gone; Mr. Hamilton, not the dog.
6 So I don't know where we've wrongfully ousted him. And I
7 don't know that we have to do an eviction.

8 With regard to the jury trial issue my client
9 requested the jury trial, not Mr. Hamilton. We decided 10 to waive the jury trial. We're entitled to do that. He
11 had notice of that and he told the judge that he was fine
12 with that. We also discussed Mr. Thrower not being 13 available and the judge offered him the opportunity to 14 continue the trial and he said I feel comfortable with 15 you I'm ready to go forward today. Nobody forced him to 16 go forward that day. He was in court; he was there
17 before we were. So I don't know where there are any 18 grounds for appeal in this thing where my client did
19 anything wrong. And that's resulted in Judge Turner's
20 ruling.

21 THE COURT: Thank you Mr. Berlinsky.

22 MR. BERLINSKY: Thank you.

23 THE COURT: All right Mr. Hamilton, anything you
24 want to say very briefly in reply?

25 MR. HAMILTON: Yes, sir. Your Honor, Mr. Scott's

Garnaris Hamilton v Henry Scott, Sr.
(2015-CP-10-3372)
August 14, 2015

1 notice is dated August the 30th he said, if I may read
2 it, please consider this letter as your 30 day notice to
3 vacate the property. Your lease will not be renewed as 4 of September 1, 2014. You have until October 1st to 5 remove all your property and possessions. If there are 6 any damages that was committed by you, please make sure
7 all repairs are complete before October 1st, 2014. I
8 will not use -- I will use your deposit to cover any
9 repairs. Please note that if repairs exceed your deposit
10 you are required to pay the balance.

11 Your Honor, there is nothing in there about no dog,
12 nothing about anything except that he wanted me out the 13 house before the lease expired. That was a broken
14 contract right there. And as far as me willing to leave
15 or abandoning the house no I didn't abandon the house.
16 What happened was I left on the 27 -- 29th of October I
17 removed some furnishings out of the house so that I would 18 be able to make room in there to put other things in.
19 When I came back in the police had removed my possessions
20 and Mr. Scott was in my house with a painter painting
21 over my suits, my items, and a young lady was in there
22 throwing trash; my food in a garage can which she told me
23 I can get back out. I did not want to receive food back
24 out of the garbage can. Mr. Scott ran out the back door
25 and I called the police. They said to go through

1 Magistrate court. And as far as me not being there to
2 come back; no I wasn't there because I had a nervous
3 breakdown. I was at the Charleston Center and if you
4 look inside the original filing I do have the papers in 5 there stating that I was in Charleston Center because I
6 had a breakdown, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you so very much.
8 Looking at the Magistrate's return, look at the 9 Magistrate's file the Magistrate found for the defendant
10 and said the plaintiff failed to prove ouster. The 11 plaintiff brought the action in the case so as far as his 12 argument on the eviction etcetera the Magistrate found
13 that he was not ousted, he voluntarily left. And I see 14 no error of law or any reason to modify the findings of 15 the Magistrate at the lower court ---

16 MR. HAMILTON: --- Your Honor ---

17 THE COURT: --- the appeal is denied. Have a good
18 day.

19 MR. HAMILTON: Okay. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

21 MR. BERLINSKY: Thank you, Your Honor.

22 MR. HAMILTON: Thank you, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Berlinsky, you want to do a form
24 order or do you want me to do a short order?

25 MR. HAMILTON: Yes, sir. Please do a form order

1 please.

2 THE COURT: Do you want me to do a short order or a
3 form order ---

4 MR. BERLINSKY: --- yes, please if you don't mind.
5 I mean if you prefer I'll do it.

6 THE COURT: It doesn't matter. I'll do a short
7 order just stating that the appeal is denied based upon
8 the record.

9 MR. BERLINSKY: Okay.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Thank y'all very much.

11 MR. BERLINSKY: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 MR. HAMILTON: Thank you.

JUL 07 2015
SMALL CLAIMS COURT

THIS is an appeal from the Charleston County Small Claims Court, North Charleston Division.

The action commenced by the Plaintiff Hamilton filing a complaint alleging violations of the provisions in the South Carolina Landlord Tenant Act relating to ouster of a tenant and deposit.

An attachment to the complaint listed various items of personal property alleged to be improperly disposed of by Scott, the landlord.

The pro se answer filed by Scott asserted that Hamilton received proper written notice of termination and that Hamilton abandoned the household and his personal property by failing to secure it and leaving doors open.

Scott requested a jury trial in his answer but the demand was waived after he obtained counsel.

A non-jury trial was conducted on May 27, 2015. The court ruled in favor of the Defendant Scott by written order dated June 1, 2015.

Factual Background

Mr. Hamilton admitted the lease into evidence which expressed an expiration date of November 1, 2014 at midnight. The lease commenced on November 1, 2013 and stated it was for a one year term.

Hamilton testified that he appeared on November 1, to move everything out but that Scott along with a painter and another individual cleaning the premises had already entered.

Hamilton testified that numerous items were missing and recited their value. He testified that his monthly rent contribution was twenty two dollars per month and that he paid a security deposit of five hundred fifty dollars which was not returned.

Scott testified that he discovered an unauthorized dog and sent written notice per the lease terminating the tenancy as of October 1, 2014. He testified that between twelve to thirteen hundred dollars was expended for repairs and painting including but not limited to damage from the dog. This expenditure exceeded the security deposit.

Shirley Washington, the sister in law of Scott who was also the next door neighbor of Hamilton testified that she observed several trucks loaded by Hamilton and he appeared to have completely vacated.

Emily Hamilton testified that she cleaned the property for Scott. She testified that Hamilton appeared and did not want to recover anymore items left at the premises. She described the items as trash. Emily Hamilton did not observe any of the items that the Plaintiff Hamilton claimed to be missing.

Conclusions

The court found that appropriate written notice to terminate the lease was delivered to Hamilton by Scott prior to the expiration of the lease. Hamilton failed to prove an ouster by the preponderance of the evidence.

Additionally, the court found that although the security deposit was withheld it was not wrongfully withheld. The ruling was that the expenses incurred by the landlord exceeded the deposit and that damages could not be recovered under S.C. Code of Laws, section 27-40-410.

APARTMENT - CONDOMINIUM - HOUSE

BY THIS AGREEMENT made and entered into on November 1, 2013, between Henry Scott, herein referred to as Lessor, and Garnaris Hamilton herein referred to as Lessee. Lessor leases to Lessee the premises situated at 2208 Clinton Street, Charleston, SC, for a term of 1 year, to commence on November 1, 2013, and to end on November 1, 2014 at 12 midnight.

1. Rent. Lessee agrees to pay, without demand, to Lessor as rent for the demised premises the sum of Five hundred Fifty dollars ($550.00) per month in advance on the first day of each calendar month.

If Lessee shall fail to pay rent when due, or perform any terms hereof, after not less than three (3) days written notice of such default given in the manner required by law, Lessor at his option, may terminate all rights of Lessee here under, unless Lessee, within said time, shall cure such default.

2. Form of Payment. Lessee agrees to pay rent each month in the form of one cashier's check, OR one money order made out to Henry Scott.

3. Late Payments. For any rent payment not paid by the date due, Lessee shall pay a late fee in the amount of Thirty Dollars ($30).

4. Returned Checks. If, for any reason, a check used by Lessee to pay Lessor is returned without having been paid, Lessee will pay a charge of thirty-five Dollars ($35) as additional rent AND take whatever other consequences there might be in making a late payment. After the second time a Lessee's check is returned, Lessee must thereafter secure a cashier's check or money order for payment of rent.

5. Security Deposit. Of $ 550.00, receipt of which is acknowledged by Lessor, as security for the faithful performance by Lessee of the terms hereof, to be returned to Lessee, without interest, except where required by law, on the full and faithful performance by him of the provisions hereof.

Prior to release of security deposit at the end of the (natural lease agreement) a inspection of the home will be conducted. If damage is done to the home that is not due to normal wear and tear Lessor reserves the right to deduct the cost of repair from the Security Deposit. Remaining balance of the security deposit will be refunded to the Lessee within 30 days from the date possession is delivered to the Lessor.

6. Use of Premises. The demised premises shall be used and occupied by Lessee exclusively as a private single family residence, and neither the premises nor any part thereof shall be used at any time during the term of this lease by Lessee for the purpose of carrying on any business, profession, or trade of any kind, or for any purpose other than as a private single family residence. Lessee shall comply with all the sanitary laws, ordinances, rules, and orders of appropriate governmental authorities affecting the cleanliness, occupancy, and preservation of

10. Assignment and Subletting. Without the prior written consent of Lessor, Lessee shall not assign this lease, or sublet or grant any concession or license to use the premises or any part thereof. A consent by Lessor to one assignment, subletting, concession or license shall not be deemed to be a consent to any subsequent assignment, subletting, concession, or license. An assignment, subletting, concession, or license without the prior written consent of Lessor, or an assignment or subletting by operation of law, shall be void and shall, at Lessor's option, terminate this lease.

11. Alterations and Improvements. Lessee shall make no alterations to the buildings on the demised premises or construct any building or make other improvements on the demised premises without the prior written consent of Lessor. Lessor's insurance does not cover Lessee's possessions or Lessee's negligence. 23. Holdover by Lessee. Should Lessee remain in possession of the premises with the consent of Lessor after the natural expiration of this lease, the lease will automatically be renewed for an additional one year term. If the Lessee desires to move from the premises at

Lessee shall be given written notice of any default or breach, and termination and forfeiture of the lease shall not result if, within fifteen days of receipt of such notice, Lessee has corrected the default or breach or has taken action reasonably likely to effect such correction within a reasonable time.

26. Abandonment. If at any time during the term of this lease Lessee abandons the demised premises or any part thereof, Lessor may, at his or her option, enter the demised premises by any means without being liable for any prosecution therefore, and without becoming liable to Lessee for damages or for any payment of any kind whatever, and may, at his or her discretion, as agent for Lessee, re-let the demised premises, or any part thereof, for the whole or any part of the then unexpired term, and may receive and collect all rent payable by virtue of such re-letting, and, at Lessor's option, hold Lessee liable for any difference between the rent that would have been payable under this lease during the balance of the unexpired term, if this lease had continued in force, and the net rent for such period realized by Lessor by means of such re-letting. If Lessor's right of re-entry is exercised following abandonment of the premises by Lessee, then Lessor may consider any personal property belonging to Lessee and left on the premises to also have been abandoned, in which case Lessor may dispose of all such personal property in any manner Lessor shall deem proper and is hereby relieved of all liability for doing so.

27. Binding Effect. The covenants and conditions herein contained shall apply to and bind the heirs, legal representatives, and assigns of the parties hereto, and all covenants are to be construed as conditions of this lease.
