Appellate Case #2016-002177

Dear Ms. Mason,

I am writing you today in reference to correspondence you and your office are required to send to me. Your assistant has been sending copies of your filings to my old address. It should be obvious, especially to you, that I no longer live there. Further, all court records concerning this appellate case, from the beginning, have been filed using the address shown in the letterhead. I am rather surprised you and/or your staff are not aware of this and have not bothered to update your records. Regardless, moving forward, please use:
