Re: State Of South Carolina v. Gerald J. Nagy
Appellate Case #2015-002576

Dear Ms. Allen,

I am in receipt of your letter dated April 21, 2017 requesting I contact you concerning the status of my initial reply brief. I finished moving from my old residence at the end of February but it took almost a month for me to get my office set up and organize all the documents concerning this case. After that, I was out of town for work for two weeks and upon my return, had some medical issues. Last Thursday was the first day I was able to return to work and begin to address this. I spoke with Brandon Hall this morning and this letter is a follow-up to that conversation.

I will be filing my reply brief within tens days of the date of this letter, and probably sooner. I understand that if I do not, my appeal may be dropped. Thank you for your understanding in this matter.

Kindest Regards,

Gerald J. Nagy
