Re: Reply Brief?/Final Brief

Dear Clerk,

It is my understanding as a Pro Se Appellant that the Reply Brief pursuant to SCACR 208(a)(3), is optional and not mandatory. I have recieved Respondents Initial Brief dated April 18, 2017 at Evans C.I. Mailroom on April 21, 2017.

I am corresponding to make this Court aware that I intend to proceed directly to filing my Final

Brief pursuant to SCACR 211.
This correspondence will reach you within the 10 day time limit of the Reply Brief filing.

If I am in error, I am respectfully requesting that this Court give me an extension of time to prepare and file the Reply Brief. If I am not in error of my understanding of the Reply Brief being optional, I am now respectfully requesting that this Court allow me to proceed to preparing and filing my Final Brief pursuant to SCACR 211.

Please correspond with me at your earliest convenience, that this Court understands my intentions to forego the Reply Brief and proceed to my Final Brief.

Respectfully Submitted,

Andrew P. Cato, II #316535
Pro Se Appellant.
