APPEAL FROM YORK COUNTY

S. Jackson Kimball, Judge

Appellate Case No. 2017-000851

Thomas F. McDow d/b/a
Law Office of Thomas F. McDow

Respondent,

V

Joann A. Wright

Appellant.

MOTION TO FILE EXTENSION OF TIME

Through inadvertence or excusable neglect, the Appellant misread/misunderstood Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Rule 207 states that appeals from the court of common pleas...the transcript must be ordered within ten (10) days after the date of service of the Notice of Appeal. Although no excuse, the Appellant is pro se and was confused regarding the timing of ordering the transcript because the Respondent had already filed a Motion to Dismiss. The Appellant now understands the timeframe in which the transcript should be ordered.

The Appellant respectfully moves to request an extension of time for ordering the transcript. Appellant has contacted the Shirley Broom, 16th Circuit Court Reporter, and is in the process of sending the proper fees in order to procure the transcript.

Very truly yours,

Joann A. Wright

Re: Thomas F. McDow d/b/a Law Office of Thomas F. McDow
vs. Joann A. Wright; 2014-CP-46-2809

Dear Ms. Wright:

Please be advised that I am in receipt of your e-mail request for the above transcript. Please be advised that the cost of a transcript is $3.25 per page. Upon payment/receipt of a deposit by way of a U.S. postal money order in the sum of $50.00 made payable to myself I will be happy to prepare the transcript. Should the transcript be less than $50.00 I will refund the difference, however, should it be more, the balance will be due by way of payment by money order prior to providing same. Upon reviewing my records, it appears the hearing was very short and was less than ten minutes, so I would not anticipate the transcript totaling more than 15 pages.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thanking you, I am

Sincerely,

Shirley G. Broom
