Re: Kenneth Maurice Jones v. State
Appellate Case No. 2017-000876

Dear Mr. Jones:

This Court has received your explanation under Rule 243(c) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR).

Since this is your sixth post-conviction relief application challenging your 1993 convictions, this Court, if it determines that you have failed to provide an adequate explanation under Rule 243(c), SCACR, may decide to prohibit you from filing a post-conviction relief application, habeas corpus action or any other action, motion or petition in the circuit court challenging this conviction(s) and sentence(s) (including a motion under Rule 29 of the South Carolina Rules of Criminal Procedure) without first obtaining the permission of this Court to do so. If you believe that there are any reasons why such a prohibition should not be imposed on future filings by you in the circuit court, those reasons should be provided to this Court within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several loops and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.
