Re: Gecy vs Somerset case #2016-001113

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

Please accept the following letter for my appellate case number listed above. Please advise, my recent motion respectfully requested an appearance Pro Se for correspondence only, and was necessary due to Robert Mathison Jr.'s administrative violation / suspension with the South Carolina Bar. Without any knowledge of when his license might be reinstated, I asked the Court of Appeals to copy me on any correspondence associated with case # 2016-001113. My appearance and motion was filed in accordance with the S.C. Rules of Civil Procedure, and properly served to all party's.

Yesterday, on May 9 2017, I opened mail from Morgan Templeton, an attorney for the defendants in my case. I was pleased Mr. Templeton took the time to copy me on his reply. After a brief check of the C-Track public access of my file, I was disappointed to see the South Carolina Appellate Court delivered correspondence to everyone involved in this case except, Pro Se / Benjamin Gecy. The April 7, 2017 motion / order was served to all party's except myself, Benjamin Gecy.

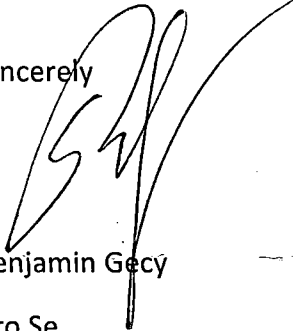

Since I did not receive the order and its mandatory deadlines, I have been put at a disadvantage and constrained from complying in any way shape or form. I immediately followed up with my case manager Elizabeth, who has confirmed the accuracy of my statements included in this letter and the lack of service received on recent communications. Additionally, I have confirmed with Elizabeth my correct address and contact information for future correspondence associated with my case.

I have also received a copy of Rob Mathison Jr's withdrawal and attempt to be relieved as counsel for Benjamin Gecy, RCD & RCRE. As of May 9, 2017, I object his motion for withdrawal as counsel and have not made a decision at this time if I will relieve him or not. I am respectfully requesting the Court allow my case an appropriate time to consider the advantages and disadvantages of relieving my counsel and the effects it may have on my ability to file the brief and comply with the Appellate Courts Procedures.

Sincerely

Benjamin Gecy
