SC Court of Appeals

APPELLANT RETURN TO MOTION

Appellant submitted an Amended Designation Of Matter and Amended Record On Appeal dated April 11, 2017 which a copy was provided to Respondent. Respondent did not filed an opposition until May 2, 2017 after final submission of Appellant's Designation Of Matter and Amended Record On Appeal dated April 27, 2017 is abuse of the process. Appellant's Amended Designation Of Matter was modified as to the order each document was listed to provide more clarity that is consistent with facts and law for a proper defense. Appellant's Designation Of Matter and Amended Record On Appeal did included an additional document pertaining to email correspondences with the office of Honorable Judge Casey L. Manning. Because Appellant has shown that email correspondences with the Office of Honorable Judge Casey L. Manning was presented to the COURT which confirms that jurisdictional procedures and misconduct had taken place during proceedings which has been established by South Carolina Supreme Court regarding Alternative Dispute Resolution.

Appellant's request this Honorable Court to Dismiss Motion to Strike and/or Make Correction to Amended Designation Of Matter and Amended Record On Appeal.
