Re: Israel Wilds v. State of South Carolina; Appellate Case No: 2014-001191

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I received a call today from Attorney Shurling regarding the invoices she has submitted to the Court in the above referenced case. Ms. Shurling informed me there are some errors in these invoices that she intends to correct and that she will be sending a letter to the Court regarding this issue and also agreeing that SCCID should be not required to respond until she has made these corrections. SCCID had intended to file a response on May 10, 2017, as provided for by Order of the Court. However amendments made by Ms. Shurling could result in a change in SCCID's position and arguments raised in its return. Therefore, the Agency respectfully requests ten days to respond once Attorney Shurling has submitted the corrected invoices.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

J. Hugh Ryan III

cc: Tara Shurling, Esq.
