Re: Pepperman v. Edwards, Appellate Case No. 2016-002552, The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Dear Office of Court Administration:

I am contacting you at the direction of the Clerk of the Court captioned above to report the following.

Via a letter dated March 4, 2017, I requested Court Reporter Margaret Woods prepare a transcript of a hearing held before the Honorable R. Keith Kelly on August 23, 2016. When I received no response to that letter, I wrote again on March 18, 2017, making the same request.

Via a letter dated March 22, 2017, Court Reporter Margaret Woods informed me that I should send her a certified check for $61.75. I responded to this with a letter dated March 27, 2017, enclosing a bank check made payable to her for $61.25, which by mistake was $.50 short.

I have heard nothing further from Ms Woods, and now the Court of Appeals has raised the issue of the lack of the transcript, which is holding up the appeal. I would hope that the $.50 is not delaying the transcript preparation, but Ms Woods has not contacted me about it and I have not received the transcript.

Respectfully yours,

Walter L. Pepperman II, 165 Old Melvin Hill Road, Campobello, SC 29322
Appellant
