Re: Pope v. Wilson Appellate Case No. 2016-001727

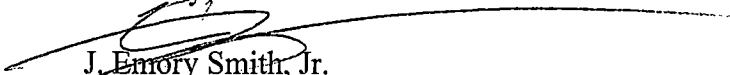

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I see that my attached letter to you of April 12 incorrectly shows the case number 1708, another Pope case, rather than 1727, the case in which the briefs were to be filed. I would appreciate your checking to ensure that the briefs filed on the 12th are in the file for case 1727 rather than 1708 as misstated in the letter.

I am also filing today, by separate cover, briefs in case 1708.

I am sorry for any confusion and thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

J. Emory Smith, Jr.
Deputy Solicitor General

ALAN WILSON
ATTORNEY GENERAL

HAND DELIVERED

Re: Pope v. Wilson Appellate Case No. 2016-001708

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Enclosed for filing with your Office is the original Final Brief of Respondent Attorney General together with a certificate of service and the Rule 211(b)(2) Certificate.

Now that the Brief is printed, I see that the signature page contains the incorrect date rather than today's date. Normally, my Word documents update the date automatically, but this one did not for some reason. If you would like me to resubmit the briefs with the correct date or hand correct the dates, I will be glad to do so.

Please stamp the enclosed copy of the Final Brief and return it.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

J. Emory Smith, Jr.
Deputy Solicitor-General
