Re: State v Jquan Scott; Appellate Case No.: 2016-000559

Mr. Scott:

As you have seen from the correspondence I've sent in the last two months, I have filed your Notice of Appeal. In the Amended Notice, I included the basis for this appeal and a brief explanation of the factual support. The Motion and Order included with the amended Notice also explains this action. I am providing you another copy of the Amended Notice, the Motion to Reconsider and the Order denying reconsideration under cover of this letter. As you can see, I am appealing the circuit court's denial of your Motion to Reconsider. In addition to the explanation contained in these materials, the Court also wishes for me to explain to you that you have 20 days from the date of this letter to "inform this Court in writing of any arguable basis that there are issues preserved for appeal." You need to send this information to Court addressed as follows: South Carolina Court of Appeals, PO Box 11629, Columbia, SC 29211.

I apologize that I can not send you postage or an envelope to send your letter but the corrections department considers the stamp and envelope contraband unless you buy it yourself. Further, I know you don't have access to a copy machine so I will obtain a copy from the Court. If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know.

Wishing you the best in the future,

Jim Brown
