Dear Counsel:

The Court received your letter of April 27, 2017, regarding the filing of the appellant's final reply brief of the respondent/appellant. The Court construes this letter as motion to allow you to serve and file your reply brief in response to the reply brief of the appellant/respondent.

Within ten days of this letter, opposing counsel may serve and file a response to the issues presented in your letter. The Court will consider your request once the time for a response has passed.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
