Re: 2016-002081

Dear Clerk of Court,

I am corresponding to the letter you sent me dated May 24, 2017, that I recieved at Evans C.I. mailroom on May 31, 2017. I am an incarcerated Pro Se Appellant. It is my understanding that as an incarcerated Pro Se Appellant, I am held to less stringent standards.

In regards to my Record on Appeal of Appellant and my Final Brief of Appellant, due to my incarceration, I have absolutely no access to any blue covers. Also I do not have income that will afford me to provide 14 copies.

My Record on Appeal of Appellant did indeed have a Certificate of Service. Nevertheless, I am resending another Certificate, and another Cover to my Record on Appeal of Appellant.

As an incarcerated Pro Se Appellant I have complied with the SCACR as best as my Pro Se abilities will allow. I am respectfully requesting for this Court to allow my litigation to suffice. All deficiencies have been addressed within the time frame allotted for me to do so.

Sincerely,
Orion P. Cole, II
