ORDER

FILED-CLERK OF COURT
GREENVILLE CO. S.C.
PAUL C. WICKENSIMER
2015 MAR 13 PM 4 04

This is an action in supplemental proceedings brought by William Barry Chisholm against his former wife, Susan Elaine Chisholm. It is clearly related on many levels to an acrimonious divorce between the parties that involved an appeal to our South Carolina Court of Appeals. The $3,248.00 judgment that Mr. Chisholm holds against Ms. Chisholm is for costs awarded by the Family Court and the Court of Appeals. See, 2001-DR-23-03596.

The matter was initially before this Court on March 12, 2015, at which time both parties appeared. Ms. Chisholm was placed under oath and Mr. Chisholm asked her questions concerning any non-exempt assets. At that time, there did not appear to be any assets. However, based upon the Court's confusion concerning attorney's fees that had been paid or had not been paid as a result of the above-mentioned divorce case and whether those related to the current judgment, the Court continued the case to allow both sides to obtain and then later submit additional documents.

ENTERED COMPUTER

The matter was back before the Court on April 29, 2015. At that time, the Court heard from both parties concerning the history of this judgment and further examination concerning assets of Ms. Chisholm.

It is uncontroverted that as a result of a refinance on her residence, Ms. Chisholm, via her attorney, forwarded a check directly to Mr. Chisholm in the amount of $3,248.00 on or about July 7, 2008. Clearly, this was the original amount of the judgment and did not include any accrued statutory interest. However, Mr. Chisholm never notified Ms. Chisholm nor her attorney that he would not accept this amount in payment of the judgment. Rather, Mr. Chisholm never negotiated the check and later filed the present supplemental proceedings action on January 29, 2015; some six-and-a-half years after receiving the check for $3,248.00.

Mr. Chisholm argues that he entitled to the principal amount of $3,248.00 plus statutory interest in the amount of $4,680.70. Ms. Chisholm argues that the judgment should have been satisfied by Mr. Chisholm's receipt of the $3,248.00 in July of 2008. Alternatively, she argues that statutory interest should be paid only from the date the judgment was entered on October 7, 2005, until July 7, 2008, the date the check for $3,248.00 was proffered to Mr. Chisholm.

Upon a full and careful review of the testimony and the multiple submissions by both parties, the Court finds that Ms. Chisholm shall contact her attorney to cancel the check dated July 7, 2008 and have the attorney re-issue a check and then mail to Mr. Chisholm in that same amount. This shall serve as partial payment of the judgment. The Court further finds that Mr. Chisholm is entitled to statutory interest from October 7, 2005 through July 7, 2008, with that amount being as of today $653.25 (per diem of $.65). In the event that Ms. Chisholm pays this amount within 30 days, the judgment shall be satisfied in full. Otherwise, the $653.25 shall be entered as a further judgment against Ms. Chisholm.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

ORDER

The matter is currently before the Court based upon Plaintiff's Motion to Alter or Amend, filed with the Clerk of Court's Office on July 14, 2015. Plaintiff's Motion, in substance, alleges that the Court did not allow him a full opportunity to present his case or to be heard.

As noted in the record, this is an acrimonious action involving and arising out of the parties' divorce back in 2001 (2001-DR-23-03596). The current matter involves Plaintiff attempting to collect a Judgment against his former wife arising out of the marital litigation.

The matter was before the Court for two separate hearings, one on March 12, 2015, and the other on April 29, 2015. Both parties appeared and participated in each hearing.

The Court has fully reviewed the record, including the above-referenced transcripts, and denies Plaintiff's Motion.

It is so ordered.

ORDER

GREENVILLE CO. S.C.
PAUL B. WICKENSHER
2015 OCT 9 PM 1 38

This matter is before the Court relative to Mr. Chisholm's repeated written requests to the Court to provide to him all matters "concerning the ex-parte meetings between the Defendant, her lawyer and yourself in the above referenced case."

Out of an abundance of caution, and in an effort by the Court to allow Mr. Chisholm to have a full record for appeal purposes,¹ the current matter was heard on October 8, 2015. At that point, the Court invited Mr. Chisholm to present any and all evidence of any ex-parte meetings between the Court and Ms. Chisholm and/or her attorney. After repeated requests and opportunities, Mr. Chisholm was unable to present any evidence to support his contention. The Court noted on the record that there have not been any ex-parte meetings or contact in this matter.

Notwithstanding the above, the Court also questioned Mr. Chisholm as to whether he had received payments from Ms. Chisholm pursuant to the Court's May 13, 2015 Order, and the subsequent Order filed July 24, 2015. Those Orders determined the amount of the judgment and statutory interest that Mr. Chisholm was entitled to receive. Mr. Chisholm stated that he had never received any such funds. At that point, Ms. Chisholm presented a certified letter from her attorney dated July 6, 2015 and original, un-negotiated checks on her lawyer's trust account that are payable to Mr. Chisholm in the amounts as set forth in the Court's Order filed May 13, 2015. See, Def. Ex. 1. Ms. Chisholm also presented the original envelope that had been sent by her attorney to Mr. Chisholm via certified mail, with the Postal Service noting delivery was unclaimed by Mr. Chisholm. On the record, the Court inquired of Mr. Chisholm as to whether he wanted these un-negotiated, original checks. Mr. Chisholm testified that he would not accept them since, in his opinion, the Court had improperly set the statutory interest amount in its Order of May 13, 2015.

Mr. Chisholm sought to raise other substantive issues that had previously been ruled upon by the Court. Based upon the prior Orders and the pending appeal, the Court advised Mr. Chisholm the Court was without jurisdiction to address any such issues and that such issues were no longer relevant. Specifically, Mr. Chisholm wanted to again question Ms. Chisholm about her assets.

Based upon the foregoing, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

1. That Mr. Chisholm has been unable to present any evidence whatsoever of any "ex-parte meetings" between the Court and Ms. Chisholm and/or her attorney;
2. That Mr. Chisholm has refused payment of the full judgment amount set forth for in the Court's Order filed May 13, 2015 and tendered to him by Ms. Chisholm; and
3. In that the full judgment amount has been tendered, the Clerk of Court's Office shall mark the judgment as satisfied and paid in full. Mr. Chisholm shall have the right at any time to receive said funds through a written request to the attorney for Ms. Chisholm.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

1 BY THE COURT: All right, sir, you just want to move
2 into taking testimony?

3 MR. CHISHOLM: Yes, sir.

4 BY THE COURT: All right, Ms. Chisholm, if you would
5 come around to the witness stand, and if you will bring your
6 records you have with you, please.

7 And if you would place your left hand on the Bible and
8 raise your right hand for me.

9 Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and 10 nothing but the truth?

11 MS. CHISHOLM: Yes.

12 BY THE COURT: All right, thank you. If you would come
13 around and have a seat, please, and if you would, state your 14 full name, please?

15 MS. CHISHOLM: Susan Botts Chisholm.

16 COURT REPORTER: Could you spell that, please?

17 MS. CHISHOLM: B-O-T-T-S.

18 BY THE COURT: All right, and just for the record, I
19 want to state that off the record that there was some discussion
20 about a settlement of this, and Ms. Botts, I understand you have 21 offered to pay the full principal amount of the judgment, is
22 that correct?

23 MS. CHISHOLM: That was when it was first filed, but I
24 did. But I found that there are still two judgments against him
25 that he was going to pay for $2,075.00, and yet we've never

1 divided household goods and there was ---

2 MR. CHISHOLM: Your Honor, I can't hear.

3 BY THE COURT: All right, you can feel free to come
4 closer, then.

5 And if you could speak up a little bit louder?

6 MS. CHISHOLM: Okay. There was $2,075.00, two appeals
7 that he has not paid to me. And there is also a pension fund
8 that was to be divided fifty-fifty that was not done, nor have
9 we divided household goods.

10 BY THE COURT: All right, then, I am going to let Mr.
11 Chisholm proceed to ask you questions, and then we will address
12 all of those issues, okay?

13 MS. CHISHOLM: Okay.

14 BY THE COURT: All right, so, Mr. Chisholm, now is your 15 opportunity to ask her questions about assets.

16
17 EXAMINATION BY MR. CHISHOLM:

18 Q Would you repeat what you said just a minute ago?

19 A I said I had taken the 3248 to the Sheriff's Office, which 20 you refused. But since that time there are two judgments against 21 you for $2,075.00 and also ---

22 Q These aren't --- don't matter today. We're not discussing
23 this today ---

24 A True but ---

25 BY THE COURT: Mr. Chisholm, with all due respect,

1 that's kind of my job, to figure out what we're going to talk
2 about, okay?

3 MR. CHISHOLM: Yes, sir.

4 A And there is also a Jones pension fund that was to be
5 divided fifty-fifty that has not been done, nor have we divided
6 any of the things in the house, nor have I received my personal
7 goods from the house, many of those.

8 Q You said we haven't divided the personal property. You've 9 signed for all of that, have you not?

10 A But none of it's divided. I have not received my personal
11 property.

12 Q Have you signed to give me one single item?

13 A Yeah.

14 Q Careful.

15 A On division of property, yes.

16 Q You haven't signed to give me one single item.

17 A Okay, well, you have them all.

18 Q Pardon me?

19 A You have them all.

20 Q We are here to discuss the $3,400 judgment that you, I
21 guess, offered to pay the principal of four years after that 22 judgment was reached.

23 A But you've never asked me.

24 Q Is that true?

25 A But you've never asked until December for that.

1 Q Well ---

2 A In my ignorance, with all the appeals that have gone on, I
3 was unaware of it, but it has not been.

4 Q Well, I am asking for that amount since it was filed. You
5 are aware you had a judgment when it was filed, is that true?

6 A In '05, and everything was then appealed.

7 Q And you were aware that you are supposed to pay judgments
8 when they are due?

9 A You didn't.

10 Q Pardon?

11 A You did not.

12 Q Just answer the question. Are you aware you are supposed to 13 pay judgments when they are due?

14 A My attorney has not told me to pay.

15 Q Your attorney has not told you. Has your attorney told you
16 that he had clandestine meetings with the Family Court Judge,
17 and has charged me $10,000 in interest?

18 A No, he hasn't.

19 Q What else did he not tell you?

20 BY THE COURT: All right, Mr. Chisholm, that's an 21 impossible question to answer.

22 MR. CHISHOLM: I agree, Your Honor.

23 BY THE COURT: All right, let's move on to matters of 24 substance which are limited to what assets she has that may be
25 subject to seizure.

1 Q So are you saying you didn't owe me $3,248.00 plus
2 interest?

3 A No, I'm not saying that.

4 Q Would you like to say that?

5 A No.

6 Q Okay. I have a check here from an attorney, it's Ashmore,
7 Leopard (sic.), Rabon & Hines, where you offered to pay that
8 principal, but you didn't offer to pay any interest.

9 A I don't . . .

10 MR. CHISHOLM: May I approach her, Your Honor?

11 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 A I took cash to the Sheriff's Office. I did not take this.

13 Q Now, this is 2008.

14 A I don't remember.

15 Q You must have a lot of money if you don't remember
16 $3,248.00.

17 A That was in '08.

18 Q This came along with a letter stating that if I accepted
19 that check, I would be relinquishing my rights to interest. Are 20 you unaware of that? Are you unaware of that?

21 A I am unaware of it.

22 Q Pardon?

23 A I am unaware of that. If it was sent to you, why did you
24 not make correspondence back and forth?

25 Q Because there was nothing that required me to make

7

1 correspondence back and forth. How many trips have you taken
2 overseas in the last ten years?

3 A In the last ten years? I went to Mexico on a mission trip
4 twice, which I did not pay, and I've been to London to see our 5 daughter.

6 Q How many times?

7 A Twice.

8 Q Have you been to the Middle East?

9 A And I went there, yes, when our daughter was in Cairo.

10 Q So you've got plenty of money to go on trips?

11 A I saved. Took it out of my credit union or charged it.

12 Q You were saying that I had not given you a single item from 13 the house assets, is that correct?

14 A I'm saying it has not been divided fifty-fifty.

15 Q Do you recall signing documents for each item, or items
16 listed in two or three pages of documents?

17 A I do.

18 Q And do you remember, or do you recall, down at the library
19 in Mauldin, that you threw a fit, saying I really knew how to 20 --- what the hell did you say, Susan --- I really had played my 21 cards right in dividing the property? Do you remember that?

22 A No, I don't.

23 Q Do you realize that you have not assigned one piece of 24 property, of marital property, to me?

25 A Nothing has been formally divided that the arbitrators ---

9
1 BY THE COURT: All right, you're wanting the 3,248 plus
2 interest?

3 MR. CHISHOLM: Yes, sir.

4 BY THE COURT: All right, and Ms. Botts, show me what
5 you have as far as what you say is judgment.

6 MS. CHISHOLM: Okay, I have, that's my car title.

7 BY THE COURT: Now, I'm just looking, you said there
8 was a judgment entered against Mr. Chisholm on the appeal.

9 MS. CHISHOLM: Oh, this.

10 BY THE COURT: All right, so, Mr. Chisholm, are you
11 familiar with these? They are Remittiturs and Orders from the 12 South Carolina Court of Appeals.

13 MR. CHISHOLM: Can I look at them, Your Honor?

14 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir, there are two different
15 Orders. It looks like it awards Ms. Botts' attorney's fees on 16 appeal.

17 MS. CHISHOLM: My name is still Chisholm.

18 BY THE COURT: Okay, I'm sorry, I misunderstood that, 19 then.

20 MS. CHISHOLM: I have a bad tremor in my voice when I
21 get nervous.

22 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

23 MR. CHISHOLM: I guess they --- I guess they will. I
24 --- thank you, ma'am.

25 BY THE COURT: And, Mr. Chisholm, have those amounts

1 been paid, to your knowledge?

2 MR. CHISHOLM: I do not think so, no, sir.

3 BY THE COURT: Okay, and who is your Family Court
4 lawyer?

5 MR. CHISHOLM: I am my Family Court lawyer.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, and I see --- I see
7 Kenneth Porter, Esquire, is listed. So he's not your lawyer?

8 MR. CHISHOLM: That's one of her lawyers. She's had 9 three.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay.

11 MS. CHISHOLM: I have not had . . .

12 MR. CHISHOLM: Your Honor?

13 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir?

14 MR. CHISHOLM: This may not be the place to mention it,
15 but I'll mention it anyway. I have an issue with some of the 16 decisions made by that Judge in Family Court. I believe he is a
17 corrupt Judge, and I believe I can prove it when I get to Family
18 Court.

19 BY THE COURT: Well, you know, you have every right to 20 do that in Family Court ---

21 MR. CHISHOLM: And it has nothing to do with this case,
22 I know.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay.

24 MR. CHISHOLM: Other than that's why we're here today
25 and why they haven't been paid. There was another one last year.

1 Q Nothing will be formally divided until we go to court.

2 A There's been a request for an arbitration, and you refused
3 everything, to do that, so I ---

4 Q I'd like the record to reflect that I have appointed an
5 arbitrator within twenty-four hours of when I was first asked to 6 appoint one, and she has not agreed to arbitration yet.

7 BY THE COURT: All right ---

8 Q We have not ---

9 BY THE COURT: Hold on a second. The only thing ---
10 this is not Family Court. Obviously, there is a lot of personal
11 animosity, and there's a lot of revenge being sought ---

12 MR. CHISHOLM: I ---

13 BY THE COURT: Listen to me.

14 MR. CHISHOLM: Okay.

15 BY THE COURT: The only thing we can deal with today
16 are assets that Ms. Botts has that may be subject to seizure by 17 the Sheriff's Office. What all's going on in Family Court, I am
18 so happy to tell you, I don't have anything to do with that, so
19 we need to limit it just to issues of assets.

20 MR. CHISHOLM: Well, Your Honor, I kind of --- it's 21 been kind of a character assassination so far in all she's said,
22 and I am tired of those. Not --- not --- no reflection on you

23 ---

24 BY THE COURT: I understand.

25 MR. CHISHOLM: --- it's her. It's . . .

1 But it's six months old or something like that. I will gladly
2 pay those if she'll pay me what she owes me.

3 BY THE COURT: All right, well, I am going to tell you
4 both what I am going to do in just a moment. (Pause).

5 All right, here's what I am going to do. It's clear that
6 $3,248.00 is due you plus statutory interest. As we discussed
7 off the record, I don't know what that is because there is a
8 statute where every year ---

9 MR. CHISHOLM: They have it on record.

10 BY THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. CHISHOLM: At the Family Court Appeals Court.

12 BY THE COURT: All right.

13 MR. CHISHOLM: You just have to go back and look for 14 it.

15 BY THE COURT: All right, so here's what I want you to 16 do, Mr. Chisholm. Within the next week, I want you to send a
17 summary of what the interest would be directed to my court
18 reporter via email. She is going to give you her business card.
19 So you are entitled to that plus the interest. And from that 20 amount is going to be deducted $2,075.00, or the amount of 21 attorney's fees due according to the Court of Appeals Order ---

22 MR. CHISHOLM: Your Honor?

23 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir?

24 MR. CHISHOLM: Can I interrupt once again?

25 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1 MR. CHISHOLM: In the past, I have only paid those to
2 Mr. Porter. I haven't ever paid ---

3 BY THE COURT: Well, I am going to note in an Order
4 that those are going to be deducted, and so then Ms. Chisholm
5 can deal with Mr. Porter on that.

6 So, Ms. Chisholm, you are going to be getting a Court
7 Order. It's going to tell you how much money you owe to Mr.
8 Chisholm, and you are going to have to pay that within twenty-
9 one (21) days of your receipt of that Order. So it will be the 10 $3,248.00 plus interest minus $2,075.00 in attorney's fees, and 11 then you need to send a cashier's check directly to Mr.
12 Chisholm, and that will satisfy the judgment.

13 MS. CHISHOLM: And if I don't have that? I mean, I've 14 got the 3,248. I don't have the extra.

15 BY THE COURT: Well, it's going to be less --- it's 16 going to be $3,248 plus probably anywhere from 8 to 10 percent
17 interest, minus $2,075.00. So I think you will probably be 18 pretty close to having the amount of money that you need.

19 All right, I am going to give you these papers back.

20 MS. CHISHOLM: And it's interest ---

21 MR. CHISHOLM: Your Honor?

22 MS. CHISHOLM: --- accrued to this?

23 BY THE COURT: I don't know about that. You need to 24 talk with Mr. Porter about that.

25 Yes, sir?

1 MR. CHISHOLM: I would be glad to pay those two, just
2 to simplify matters, and just let her owe me.

3 BY THE COURT: I'm fine, whatever you all come up with.

4 MR. CHISHOLM: I would prefer to pay those two.

5 BY THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. CHISHOLM: I'll pay him this tomorrow, if she wants
7 --- he wants.

8 BY THE COURT: All right, then, Ms. Chisholm, you need
9 to get with Mr. Porter and explain that you've been here, and 10 once he gets the money from Mr. Chisholm, then he also needs to 11 let my court reporter that's been paid, and then at that point,
12 I will issue an Order.

13 MR. CHISHOLM: I don't have my checkbook.

14 BY THE COURT: Oh, that's fine. If you just get with 15 Mr. Porter, then.

16 Now, Mr. Chisholm, do you have my court reporter's business
17 card?

18 MR. CHISHOLM: Yes, sir.

19 BY THE COURT: Okay, now, whatever you send an email,
20 just be sure --- Ms. Chisholm, do you have an email address?

21 MR. CHISHOLM: No, I don't send emails.

22 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, well, then, just send
23 it regular mail or whatever, but I do need a calculation, a flow
24 sheet of sorts, so ---

25 MR. CHISHOLM: I will prepare that for you.

1 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, thank you, Mr.
2 Chisholm. Thank you, Ms. Chisholm.

3 MR. CHISHOLM: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir, thank you for coming in.

Court Reporter

1 BY THE COURT: For the record, this is Chisholm v
2 Chisholm, 2005-6786. We've already had one hearing, and just for 3 the record, this matter is so acrimonious, so personal, in the 4 Court's opinion, and there have been so many emails and calls
5 and personal visits by both the Chisholms, I have reconvened
6 today's hearing. We'll put everything on the record. You've got 7 twenty-five minutes to put it on the record and I'm going to
8 make my decision, and if you all disagree, one or both of you
9 can appeal it to Columbia.

10 So, Mr. Chisholm, I am going to give you about five minutes
11 to give me your summary. I know we are here because of a
12 judgment from 2005 that you have against Ms. Chisholm, your ex-
13 wife, but like I say, there have been so many emails and so many 14 allegations going back and forth about what's been paid and 15 what's not been paid. So, sir, please give me your assessment of 16 where things are.

17 MR. CHISHOLM: The judgment was for thirty-two hundred
18 and some odd dollars. None of it's been paid. She waited until 19 the --- she waited four or five years, and then tried to make a
20 payment and sent a letter saying this payment is without
21 interest, and you won't get any interest if you cash this check,
22 you won't ever get any interest, that sort of thing.

23 She also made some references that I hadn't cooperated in 24 dividing the property. And I have with me what I have done to 25 divide the property. And it wasn't that much. The only thing she

1 has done is schedule one meeting for six o'clock at the County
2 Library, which closes at six o'clock. So I showed up and watched
3 them close the library. I --- there's another little thing. She
4 used a different lawyer for doing that, and he had a comment
5 written on the check which I didn't understand that said it was
6 for a real estate trust, and I didn't --- I just didn't feel
7 comfortable with it.

8 I will do anything within reason to resolve this ---

9 BY THE COURT: All right, so ---

10 MR. CHISHOLM: It's an interlocutor thing between the 11 trial and separating the property. We separated the property.
12 They put it with the trial. And it all goes away.

13 BY THE COURT: All right, so the judgment that we are 14 here on was $3,248.00 ---

15 MR. CHISHOLM: Plus interest.

16 BY THE COURT: --- plus interest at the statutory rate,
17 and this is actually arising out of a Family Court Order filed
18 October 7, 2005.

19 MR. CHISHOLM: It's not from the Family Court. It's 20 from the Court of Appeals.

21 BY THE COURT: Well, but the original judgment ---

22 MR. CHISHOLM: Came from the Court of Appeals.

23 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir, but the Transcript of Judgment
24 that is in the Clerk of Court's file shows it arises out of 25 2001-DR-23-3596, which is a Family Court case, and it does

1 appear that it was appealed, and there is an Order dated August
 2 30th, 2005 from the Court of Appeals stating that Susan Elaine
 3 Chisholm's Motion for Costs is denied; William Barry Chisholm's
 4 Motion for Costs is granted in the amount of $3,248.00. So these
 5 are costs from, I can only imagine, a very bitter divorce case
 6 between the two of you all.

7 MR. CHISHOLM: It hasn't been that bitter on my side.

8 BY THE COURT: All right, I'm sure ---

9 MR. CHISHOLM: She ---

10 BY THE COURT: All right, thank you. All right, tell me
 11 when she proffered the check to you?

12 MR. CHISHOLM: Sir?

13 BY THE COURT: When did she offer or give the check to 14 you that you say was not an appropriate amount?

15 MR. CHISHOLM: I have that right here. (Pause). Oh come
 16 on, man. (Pause). It's dated July 7th, 2008.

17 BY THE COURT: And it was for how much?

18 MR. CHISHOLM: $3,248.00.

19 BY THE COURT: All right, and that check has never been 20 negotiated or cashed?

21 MR. CHISHOLM: No, sir, it's for a real estate matter.

22 BY THE COURT: All right, and it's on what account?

23 MR. CHISHOLM: Ashmore, Leopard, Rabon and Hines, LLC
 24 Trust Account.

25 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, so you contend that Ms.

1 Chisholm owes you the $3,248.00 plus statutory interest from 2 2005?

3 MR. CHISHOLM: Until today.

4 BY THE COURT: All right, and what is that amount of 5 statutory interest?

6 MR. CHISHOLM: The total?

7 BY THE COURT: I just need to know the total interest
8 to today.

9 MR. CHISHOLM: I'll have to figure that out. I don't
10 have an adding machine.

11 BY THE COURT: Well, tell me --- so do you have the 12 total including interest?

13 MR. CHISHOLM: Yes, sir.

14 BY THE COURT: All right, what is that?

15 MR. CHISHOLM: $7,928.70. That was by the Sheriff's 16 Department, calculated that for me.

17 BY THE COURT: So according to my calculations, that is 18 $4,080.70 in interest.

19 MR. CHISHOLM: I'll have to take your word.

20 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, and is your contention
21 that none of this amount has been paid?

22 MR. CHISHOLM: None of it has been paid, no, sir.

23 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, now, Ms. Chisholm, let 24 he hear your side of this.

25 MS. CHISHOLM: Okay. Initially, I couldn't even.

6

1 remember that amount, and Ken Porter, who was my attorney,
2 hadn't reminded me of it or anything. But after he showed the
3 check from Mr. Rabon in court, I kept trying to think, "Why
4 would Mr. Rabon send him a check," and I remembered, when I
5 refinanced the loan for my house, he pulled up and said, "There
6 is this judgment that needs to be paid, so we'll pull that
7 amount out of your loan and send it to him," which was done. And
8 I called Mr. Rabon, after remembering all of that, and asked,
9 was the check returned and did he hear from him regarding not
10 accepting it or whatever, and Mr. Rabon apologized for not ---
11 for overlooking that it had never been cashed.

12 So in '08, it was paid. He received it, but he didn't give 13 any correspondence back saying, you know, "I'll take it with 14 this amount of interest from '05." So nothing has been said
15 since that time.

16 BY THE COURT: All right, so when was the refinance?

17 MR. CHISHOLM: Your Honor?

18 BY THE COURT: All right, hold on. I am going to finish
19 hearing her, please, sir.

20 MS. CHISHOLM: I believe, in '08. I didn't ask Mr.
21 Rabon that specifically, but he did call me yesterday and asked
22 me to get this letter and take it to Mr. Chisholm.

23 BY THE COURT: All right, could I see the letter,
24 please?

25 MS. CHISHOLM: Yes, sir.

7
1 BY THE COURT: Just hand it up to my bailiff. (Court is
2 handed letter and reads same).

3 All right, so the letter is actually to Mr. Chisholm, is
4 that correct?

5 MS. CHISHOLM: Yes.

6 BY THE COURT TO BAILIFF: Mr. Bond, if you would give
7 that to him.

8 It basically just says that he has not record of any 9 objection?

10 MS. CHISHOLM: Yes.

11 BY THE COURT: Well, does Mr. Rabon say those funds are 12 still in his trust account?

13 MS. CHISHOLM: They are still in the trust.

14 BY THE COURT: All right, now, Mr. Chisholm, I will be 15 glad to hear from you.

16 MR. CHISHOLM: There's an old expression, "In for 17 penny, in for pound," and what that means, if I had cashed this 18 check, I get no interest. I get this money and that's it.

19 BY THE COURT: All right ---

20 MR. CHISHOLM: That's the one ---

21 BY THE COURT: --- there's also an old saying, "if 22 you're seeking revenge, you'd better dig two graves" ---

23 MR. CHISHOLM: It's an old saying. That's the law.

24 BY THE COURT: I don't necessarily agree with that ---

25 MR. CHISHOLM: I may not agree with it, but I believe

1 that is the law.

2 BY THE COURT: All right, and, Ms. Chisholm, I am
3 trying to recall from the earlier hearing, do you own the house
4 that you live in?

5 MS. CHISHOLM: I have it mortgaged.

6 BY THE COURT: Okay, how much equity is in the house?

7 MS. CHISHOLM: Probably twenty thousand.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay, and ---

9 MS. CHISHOLM: I've got ---

10 BY THE COURT: And you are still employed, correct?

11 MS. CHISHOLM: Yes.

12 BY THE COURT: And you work where and earn how much a
13 year?

14 MS. CHISHOLM: I work at Memorial Hospital. I'm a
15 nurse, and I earned, probably, last year, sixty-six thousand.

16 BY THE COURT: Okay, and do you have stocks or bonds or 17 other liquid assets in excess of $5,000.00?

18 MS. CHISHOLM: No, sir.

19 BY THE COURT: Do you have any kind of savings plans or 20 checking account that has assets of over $2,500.00?

21 MS. CHISHOLM: I have a credit union with twenty-eight
22 ninety-three.

23 BY THE COURT: $2,893.00?

24 MS. CHISHOLM: Uh-huh.

25 BY THE COURT: That's a yes?

1 MS. CHISHOLM: Yes.

2 BY THE COURT: Okay. Yes, sir, Mr. Chisholm?

3 MS. CHISHOLM: And then I have a hundred and twenty-

4 eight dollars in a bank.

5 BY THE COURT: Any other assets that could be used

6 towards satisfaction of the judgment?

7 MS. CHISHOLM: No.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, Mr. Chisholm?

9 MR. CHISHOLM: This is a Marital Profit Sharing Trust

10 Plan and Pension Plan from where she worked before. It was 11 valued at $90,000.00 on her thing she gave to the Family Court.

12 BY THE COURT: What's the status on that account, Ms.

13 Chisholm?

14 MS. CHISHOLM: It was used to pay attorney costs.

15 BY THE COURT: So you're telling me that's been 16 liquidated?

17 MS. CHISHOLM: Uh-huh.

18 BY THE COURT: Is that a yes?

19 MS. CHISHOLM: Yes, sir.

20 BY THE COURT: Is any portion of that still in your

21 possession?

22 MS. CHISHOLM: No, sir.

23 BY THE COURT: All right, anything else, Mr. Chisholm?

24 MR. CHISHOLM: She had I.R.A. accounts that I have

25 opened for her, spousal I.R.A.'s.

1 BY THE COURT: Do you have a ---

2 MS. CHISHOLM: I don't know what that is.

3 BY THE COURT: All right, do you have any I.R.A.'s or 4 any type of investment account in your name?

5 MS. CHISHOLM: Only the one at the hospital.

6 BY THE COURT: With a value of over $2,500.00?

7 MS. CHISHOLM: No, sir.

8 BY THE COURT: Okay. Do you have any vehicles?

9 MS. CHISHOLM: I have a --- my mom's Buick. It's a 1999
10 model.

11 BY THE COURT: Okay. All right, Mr. Chisholm, any other
12 assets you can direct the Court to?

13 MR. CHISHOLM: I had not planned on doing that, but I
14 can get out her assets statement that she gave the Family Court.

15 BY THE COURT: I am glad for you to do that. I mean, it
16 was almost ten years ago --- probably more than ten years ago.

17 MR. CHISHOLM: Where the hell would that be?

18 MS. CHISHOLM: I just don't understand why if he 19 received the check in '08, and he didn't find it acceptable,
20 that he didn't get back with Mr. Rabon and say, "I'll accept
21 this, but I also want this amount of interest."

22 BY THE COURT: And I understand. All right, do you wish
23 to examine Ms. Chisholm on your divorce financial statement?

24 MR. CHISHOLM: Do I?

25 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir.

1 MR. CHISHOLM: If I can find it, I would.

2 BY THE COURT: All right.

3 MR. CHISHOLM: Crap. (Pause while Mr. Chisholm examines
4 documents).

5 BY THE COURT: Ms. Chisholm, do you by any chance have
6 a copy of the Financial Declaration from the divorce action?

7 MS. CHISHOLM: I do. I didn't bring it.

8 BY THE COURT: All right.

9 MR. CHISHOLM: I know I have one.

10 MS. CHISHOLM: And he owns his house. He lives across
11 from the Greenville Country Club. I live in a little sided house
12 in Mauldin, and I'm 65 years old and working.

13 BY THE COURT: All right, so, Mr. Chisholm, are you
14 able to locate the Financial Statement Declaration?

15 MR. CHISHOLM: I couldn't hear what she said just then.

16 BY THE COURT: She said you live in a big house across
17 from the Country Club that's paid for, and she lives in a small
18 apartment in Mauldin and she's still working.

19 MS. CHISHOLM: A small house.

20 BY THE COURT: Small house, sorry.

21 MR. CHISHOLM: I live in a house I paid $85,000 cash 22 for.

23 BY THE COURT: All right, that's fine. That's not
24 relevant to my decision, where either one of you are living. I'm 25 just seeing if you have a copy of the Financial Declaration.

1 MR. CHISHOLM: Thank you, sir. I cannot locate it right
2 now. It shows she had assets at that time, considerable assets.
3 I don't know what she's done with them. I know she's taken trips
4 to Europe and Mexico and Egypt, and if she can do all these
5 things, she can pay her bills.

6 BY THE COURT: All right ---

7 MR. CHISHOLM: She said that she was 65 years old. That
8 means she got the debt when she was 55. My mother died in '92
9 and was paying her debts when she died.

10 BY THE COURT: All right, Ms. Chisholm, I am going to 11 ask you again, and you are under oath from the earlier hearing.
12 Do you have any assets that you have not told me about?

13 MS. CHISHOLM: No, sir.

14 BY THE COURT: All right, then here's what my Court
15 Order is going to be. I am going to direct that Mr. Rabon's law
16 firm re-issue that check for $3,248.00. I am going to find, Mr.
17 Chisholm, that you are entitled to interest from the date of the 18 judgment through July 7th, 2008. I am not going to allow interest
19 beyond that because you sat on your rights for now seven years,
20 and you can't come into court and seek seven years of interest.
21 But you are entitled to interest from ---

22 MR. CHISHOLM: Will you ---

23 BY THE COURT: All right, let me finish, please, sir.
24 You are entitled to interest from the date of the judgment
25 through July 7th, 2008, because that should have been included in

1 that check. So I am going to direct that Mr. Rabon re-issue the
2 check to you, that the difference between the $3,248.00 and the
3 interest will stay as a judgment against Ms. Chisholm since
4 there are no assets that have been revealed to the Court to have
5 the Sheriff seize.

6 MR. CHISHOLM: I'll attach her house.

7 BY THE COURT: All right, thank you. I will have a
8 written Order out within the next ten days.

9 MS. CHISHOLM: And it will have the amount?

10 BY THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

11 MS. CHISHOLM: And can I pay it here to pay to him?

12 BY THE COURT: If you choose to pay that amount, then
13 you should pay it directly to him.

14 MR. CHISHOLM: Can I get my court costs?

15 BY THE COURT: Yes, sir, $35.00, I think, is the costs.

16 Thank you.

Court Reporter

1 THE COURT: For the record, this is 2005-06786. This
2 arises out of a judgment via a divorce case where Mr. Chisholm
3 was awarded certain costs for appeal. It is now -- this is the
4 third hearing we've had. There have been any number of
5 communications by Mr. Chisholm with the Court. And this Court
6 has issued two orders; one Order dated May -- or filed May 13th,
7 2015 to which Mr. Chisholm filed a Motion to Reconsider or to 8 Alter or Amend. There was then an Order issued in response to 9 that Motion on July 24th, 2015. And Mr. Chisholm has provided
10 notice of appeal where those Orders are on appeal.

11 Since that time there has been multiple letters from Mr.
12 Chisholm to the Court. And the last one is styled Sixth Request.
13 I see the Fourth and Fifth one; don't see any other ones. But 14 anyway, the sum and substance is, Mr. Chisholm says, I would like
15 to obtain a copy of any and all transcripts, notes,
16 correspondence and/or written matter concerning the ex-parte
17 meetings between the Defendant, her lawyer and yourself, talking
18 about the Court, in the above-referenced case.

19 The Court did send a letter to Mr. Chisholm dated September
20 18, 2015, which I'm going to have my Court Reporter mark as an 21 exhibit. Based upon the ongoing level of communication and
22 contact with the Court, I felt it appropriate to set today's 23 hearing to allow Mr. Chisholm to put any and all issues on the 24 record for his full review on appeal.

25 So, Mr. Chisholm, be glad for you -- you know, I've set the

1 hearing at your request and be glad for you -- only thing we can
2 deal with are what you have stated, you know, wanting
3 transcripts, notes, correspondence, concerning ex-parte meetings
4 between the Defendant, her lawyer and myself, in the above-
5 referenced case. So be glad to hear from you, sir.

6 MR. CHISHOLM: Well, Your Honor, I'd like to call Ms.
7 Chisholm to the stand and ask her some questions. I was
8 interrupted when I was doing that in the first hearing, and I
9 didn't get to finish.

10 THE COURT: The questions would be related to what?

11 MR. CHISHOLM: The money she owes me.

12 THE COURT: Well, I'm going to deny that request. You
13 have filed an appeal on that. This court no longer has 14 jurisdiction over those type issues. So anything else you would 15 like on the record, sir?

16 I have ruled based upon the evidence. Obviously, you
17 disagree with my ruling. I'm okay with that. That's part of my
18 job. Today's hearing is solely limited to your repeated letters
19 asking about ex-parte meetings between the Defendant, Ms.
20 Chisholm, her lawyer, and myself. I can assure you -- listen to 21 me. I can assure you there have been zero ex-parte meetings.
22 But I'm giving you this last opportunity to have your full record
23 to go down to Columbia and say whatever you want to say to our
24 very fine appellate judges.

25 But you're not revisiting 39 issues I've already ruled upon.

1 MR. CHISHOLM: You're letting her make a profit on 2 this.

3 THE COURT: Is there anything else you'd like on the 4 record, sir, relative to your ---

5 MR. CHISHOLM: Yes. Do you want me just to read it in 6 the record?

7 THE COURT: You can put whatever you want to on the 8 record. But we're not going back to the issues that I've already 9 ruled upon.

10 MR. CHISHOLM: Your Honor, the Appeals Court ordered
11 her to pay my fees.

12 THE COURT: Are you talking about the Order arising out
13 of the divorce case?

14 MR. CHISHOLM: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Yes, sir, and I've already ruled on those 16 issues.

17 MR. CHISHOLM: The Family Court of Greenville ordered
18 her to pay that with statutory rate from 30 August, 2005.

19 THE COURT: And you disagree with my ruling. I'm okay
20 with that. You're appealing that issue. So it is now in 21 Columbia. You have raised repeated allegations of ex-parte
22 meetings between this Court, your ex-wife and her lawyer. This 23 is your chance to put whatever evidence you have to support your
24 unfounded, baseless allegations that this Court has done anything
25 in an ex-parte fashion?

1 MR. CHISHOLM: I have not said this Court has done
2 that.

3 THE COURT: Absolutely you have, sir. You have said --
4 listen to me. You have said repeatedly that this Court has had
5 ex-parte meetings with Ms. Chisholm's lawyer. There is
6 absolutely no factual basis for that. I am personally offended.
7 But this is your opportunity to present evidence that this Court
8 has had ex-parte meetings with Ms. Chisholm and whatever lawyer
9 you're saying that I have met with. So present your evidence or 10 be quiet.

11 MR. CHISHOLM: Your Honor, you used that as the grounds
12 for having a second meeting in the trial here.

13 THE COURT: Do you have any evidence whatsoever that I
14 have met with a lawyer and Ms. Chisholm outside of your presence?
15 If so, present it.

16 MR. CHISHOLM: I have a letter from Ann Dickey Campbell
17 that says, due to these ex-parte meetings, you're going to have 18 another hearing. And that was used for you to change your -- or 19 to have the Court -- the second Court trial. After that I
20 thought you had ruled against me, so I appealed the Court -- the 21 case. I find her lawyer has given her money. I wrote her lawyer
22 a check. He endorsed it to her. Are you aware of that?

23 THE COURT: Do you have any evidence ---

24 MR. CHISHOLM: All that is evidence.

25 THE COURT: Feel free to hand that to my Court

1 Reporter.

2 MR. CHISHOLM: Can I put her on the stand and ask her
3 about it?

4 THE COURT: If you have a piece of evidence you would
5 like marked, you may hand it to my Court Reporter.

6 MR. CHISHOLM: I'm sorry?

7 THE COURT: If you have a piece of evidence you would
8 like marked, you may hand it to my Court Reporter.

9 Ms. Hanks, if you would just mark that collectively, and
10 then if I could take a look at it, please, ma'am.

11 Is there anything else you would like to submit at this 12 point?

13 MR. CHISHOLM: Just a minute, please, sir. I'm looking
14 through my -- I have material I was going to introduce this 15 morning. I have proof that she has assets that she hasn't 16 disclosed. You're not ---

17 THE COURT: Mr. Chisholm, we're beyond that. I have 18 ruled on what amount of money ---

19 MR. CHISHOLM: But you didn't let me present my case
20 when you ruled.

21 THE COURT: I have ruled on that after two contested
22 hearings. I know you disagree. That's why you filed ---

23 MR. CHISHOLM: I didn't disagree. I was interrupted.

24 THE COURT: Is there anything else you would like to 25 have a part of this record, sir?

1 MR. CHISHOLM: No.

2 THE COURT: All right. Then pursuant to the Order that
3 was filed May 13th, 2015, Mr. Chisholm, I found that you were
4 entitled to $3,248.00 awarded as a result of the 2001 divorce
5 case, plus statutory interest; not to the extent that you
6 contended you were entitled to, but what I felt, in fairness and 7 equity, should be collected. So have you received from Ms.
8 Chisholm or any attorney on her behalf funds since this May 13th,
9 2015 Order?

10 MR. CHISHOLM: I have not.

11 THE COURT: So you're telling me you have not received
12 any funds whatsoever as a result of the May 13th, 2015 Order?

13 MR. CHISHOLM: I have not.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Chisholm?

15 MS. CHISHOLM: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: I'll be glad to hear from you.

17 MS. CHISHOLM: I have a letter from Mr. Rabon that was 18 sent to him with two checks. And the letter was returned.

19 THE COURT: All right. Could you hand that in to --
20 would you show that to Mr. Chisholm first?

21 MR. CHISHOLM: Never seen it before.

22 MS. CHISHOLM: And I asked Mr. Rabon if I could pay him
23 the interest and him do the check, because I was afraid he would 24 say he didn't get it. So ...

25 THE COURT: Can I take a look at that, please?

1 COURT REPORTER: You want it marked?

2 THE COURT: Not at this point. I've been handed a
3 letter dated July 6th, 2015 on the letterhead of Ashmore Leaphart
4 Rabon Hines LLC, a law firm in Greenville, to Mr. Chisholm, 220
5 Riverside Drive, Greenville, South Carolina 29605. And it
6 encloses attorney trust account checks for $3,248.00 for one
7 check, plus an additional check for $653.25 for statutory
8 interest. Both of those amounts are consistent with the Court's
9 Order of May 13th, 2015. It was sent certified mail and it bears
10 a postal sticker on it that says, return to sender, unclaimed.

11 So Mr. Chisholm, it appears that these are two un-negotiated
12 checks to your order, so I'm going to have my bailiff make copies
13 of both the letter, the checks and the envelope, and then if you
14 wish to receive those two checks, I'll be glad to get them to 15 you, or otherwise, I'll return them to Ms. Chisholm. So, Mr.
16 Chisholm, since you had refused the certified letter, then ---

17 MR. CHISHOLM: I've never seen that. I never refused
18 it.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So do you wish to have these two 20 checks ---

21 MR. CHISHOLM: No.

22 THE COURT: --- then? Okay. Well, then for the 23 record, I will note that they have been proffered to Mr.
24 Chisholm; that he is refusing them. And I'm going to return
25 them, Ms. Chisholm, to you, if you'll send them back to Mr.

1 Rabon.

2 MS. CHISHOLM: Will it reflect, also, that $3248.00 was
3 sent to him in '08, but he never cashed it.

4 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. That was set out in the Court
5 Order; yes, ma'am.

6 MR. CHISHOLM: I've got that check. She sent it with
7 no interest three years late.

8 THE COURT: I understand. And you held on to it for 9 over six years.

10 So, now let me come back, Mr. Chisholm, is there any 11 evidence you would like to place on the record to support your
12 allegations that the Court had ex-parte meetings with Ms.
13 Chisholm and her attorney in this matter?

14 MR. CHISHOLM: The only letter I have is from Ms.
15 Dickey. And she said this was the reason ... Can I get a copy
16 of this?

17 THE COURT: That's your letter, so why do you need a
18 copy of it?

19 MR. CHISHOLM: It's not my request. It's a letter I
20 received.

21 THE COURT: But it's in your possession; correct?

22 MR. CHISHOLM: Well, I want to enter it as evidence,
23 just like you did with her checks.

24 THE COURT: Well, you didn't tell me that. So, yes,
25 sir, I'll be glad to have my deputy and my bailiff get you a

1 copy.

2 MR. CHISHOLM: Your Honor, ---

3 THE COURT: Yes, sir. Let me make sure we have all the 4 documents in the record and properly accounted for, and then I'll 5 be glad to hear from you.

6 MR. CHISHOLM: Can I get a copy of those other
7 documents?

8 THE COURT: Sir?

9 MR. CHISHOLM: Those other documents I gave you on the 10 record, I need a copy of them, too.

11 THE COURT: Tom, if you would also make him a copy of 12 ---

13 THE BAILIFF: Will do. I'm going to use this one back
14 here.

15 THE COURT: That's fine.

16 THE BAILIFF: And I think he also wants a copy of this.

17 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

18 So while my bailiff is gone to get a copy of that, you were 19 getting ready to state something else, Mr. Chisholm. Be glad to 20 have you state it on the record.

21 MR. CHISHOLM: Your Honor, this Court is allowing Ms.
22 Chisholm to make a profit on what she owes me. Do you understand
23 that?

24 THE COURT: I have ruled against you. You have 25 appealed the issue. I no longer have jurisdiction. I have ruled

1 what I believe to be fair and appropriate and in compliance with
2 the law of the State of ---

3 MR. CHISHOLM: Do I have to appeal a second appeal for 4 this hearing?

5 THE COURT: You can appeal anything you want to, sir.
6 That's why this is my last opportunity to give you a chance to
7 come in and present your case ---

8 MR. CHISHOLM: You won't let me put her on the witness
9 stand.

10 THE COURT: The only issue, yet again I will explain to 11 you, is you have made allegations that the Court has had ex-parte
12 meetings with your ex-wife, with her attorney.

13 MR. CHISHOLM: No. I said Ms. What's Her Name made
14 those in the letter she wrote to me and gave me.

15 THE COURT: All right. I'm finding that there is 16 absolutely no evidence of any ex-parte meetings. I'm finding 17 that the checks have been proffered in full and in accordance 18 with the Court's Orders. That Mr. Chisholm has refused and 19 rejected them.

20 So, Mr. Chisholm, an Order will be issued for today's 21 hearing and you can certainly make that part of the appeal.

22 Thank you, sir.

23 Thank you, Ms. Chisholm.

RE: 2005-CP-23-06786

Dear Mr. Chisholm,

I am in receipt of what you have styled as your "FIFTH REQUEST" asking for "transcripts, notes, correspondence and/or written matter concerning the ex parte meetings between the Defendant, her lawyer and yourself in the above referenced case."

From my understanding, you have previously been provided with transcripts from the hearings in this case. If you are still lacking a transcript, please specify the dates in a written request and I will investigate to see the status on having the same provided to you.

As relates to your request for matters dealing with "ex parte meetings", I can assure you that there have been none. As you are aware, you have made numerous contacts with the court, most without notice to Ms. Chisholm, and my staff has responded to each and every request made by you, while also copying Ms. Chisholm.

Based upon your continued concerns as expressed in your multiple letters, a hearing has been scheduled on October 8 at 9:30 a.m. in courtroom #5 of the Greenville County Courthouse for you to raise any and all issues you have concerning this matter. That will allow you to have a full and complete record for any appeal purposes. Notice of this hearing was previously given to you via letter from my staff on September 3, 2015.

Sincerely,

Charles B. Simmons, Jr.

Thank you. So my understanding is that Judge Simmons will receive my correspondence? God bless you. I have talked with Neil Rabons office and asked that he send information re the check sent to mr. Chisholm in 08 and also to Judge Simmons. The $3148 are still with Mr. Rabon. He received no info from mr chishom. I will happily pay interest for the 3 years. Because mr c did not correspond then i do not feel i am responsible for execution and sheriff fees. He could have contacted Mr. Rabon. Thank you.

My understanding at the hearing was that Mr. Chisolm does not have an email address, and therefore, I mailed a copy of your email to him at the address he provided to me yesterday in the courtroom, which is 220 Riverside Drive, Greenville, SC 29605.

I do not know the answer to your question concerning another hearing, but I will find out and either contact you later or have someone in our office contact you with that information.

Thank you for the information. As stated in court, I do not have the interest- $4297.00, nor do I believe I should be held accountable for it since $3248 was paid in 2008. I will be happy to pay interest from 2005-2008.

Would it be possible, so that you would know Mr. Chisholm has received correspondence, to email our correspondence to him. I know of no other way.

I do not understand court protocol, but is there a way to ask to see Judge Simmons again with Mr. Chisholm?

Thank you

Thank you Ms. Campbell for your note. I talked with Mr. Rabon today. Mr. Chisholm was sent the check- the copy shown in court. Mr. Chisholm never cashed it, returned it, or gave any indication that it was not acceptable to Mr. Rabon. The monies were set aside to pay that outstanding judgement against me at that time.

I am asking Mr. Rabon to write a letter to both Mr. Chisholm and Judge Simmons stating that the check was sent in 2008 and no correspondence re: it. Again, I do not believe I should pay any interest, other than perhaps 2005-2008.

I know that Mr. Chisholm would deny ever receiving a letter or any correspondence from me if I attempted to contact him so that info could be given to Judge Simmons.

Again, I thank you for your correspondence.

Ms. Campbell, I appeared in Judge Simmons court this morning at 0900 AM. My ex husband questioned me re: a judgement made in 2005 for $3248.00. During the questioning he showed a copy of a check sent to him by Neil Rabon for that amount and it was dated in 2008. It is hard to relax and think while facing a man who absolutely hates you. But, I wish I had realized that that monies was secured during a refinancing of my home in '08. Mr. Rabon stressed that it had to be paid, thus the check was sent. Because of no request, etc. I had forgotten about it- totally

My question involves Judge Simmons judgement.

1. If Mr. Chisholm was given the monies in 2008, why did he not communicate THEN re: interest? Why wait almost 10 years from the judgement and why am I held accountable for these years of interest- that I've not received any request for. Is he not responsible since he refused to cash the check?

2. Mr. Chisholm was given 5 minutes to compute the interest. Judge Simmons had stated he was leaving the court room during that time and if no computation, then I was to pay the $3248.00. When Judge Simmons returned, we simply went to an "on the record questioning", resulting in interest being added to the judged amount.

Truthfully, the $3248 came from my credit union emergency fund. I almost have that amount today. BUT, I don't have any additional. I live paycheck to paycheck. I am 65 years old, I work at the hospital and work extra when I can. Paying the judged amount will deplete my monies. After today, I cannot rest that Mr. Chisholm will ever be satisfied until I am destitute. We were divorced in 2003 and he needs to get on with his life.

Thank you for reading this and hopefully sharing it with Judge Simmons.

Received Judge Simmons letter regarding court appearance on October 8. I have also received numerous letters from Mr. Chisholm regarding requests for copies of correspondence between me and attorneys, etc. My limited correspondence has been in person, not written, so do not have any copies for him. Mr. Chisholm is not an attorney, nor does he have an attorney, that I am aware of. Because of monetary status, I no longer pay for the services of Mr. Porter.

When I come to court on October 8, do I need to bring all my financial information, that was brought during my appearance at the first hearing?

Thank you.
