SC Court of Appeals

William Allen #128666, Appellant

6-6-17

v.

Appellate Case No: 2012-000596

South Carolina Dept. of Corrections, Respondent

Motion/request for a lawyer

under - EX-PARTE

Statement of fact,

Appellant feels he is being held unlawfully by South Carolina Dept. of Corrections, under the color of law.

Discussion

Appellant feels he is be prejudice against. As to the fact SCDC medical records will show that appellant is VISION IMPAIRED. This places an extraordinary burden upon appellant to do research or legal work. SCDC will not make copies that are hand written. Appellant has to rely on other inmates for help, as to his disability with his eye-sight. Appellant is listed under the ADA with SCDC. Appellant is also being treated by mental health in SCDC.

Appellant feels he is being violated under the 14th Amendment, 8th Amendment and the 5th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America.

SCDC has no valid legal document that gives SCDC the authority of law to hold Appellant in their custody.

Conclusion

For the above stated facts on page one, Appellant feels he should be intitled to be granted an attorney by the Court to assist in Appellate Case No: 2012-000596.

Appellant feels his case is a Criminal matter before the Court. Due to the fact SCDC is holding Appellant, Appellant, is being held by SCDC on a piece of paper that states Criminal act, that Appellant has Never even been charged with or indicted for No where in the state of South Carolina, there is no way this is a valid piece of paper.

Appellant is being Ceased and held illegal under the Color of Law, with-out any foundation to do so.

Appellant hopes + prays that the Court will Appoint Appellant Counsel in this case, 2012-000596.

Respectfully submitted,

Will Allen
